Adequate notice will be given depending on the nature of work. Emergence works will not require notice.

22.0 DAMAGE TO OR DESTRUCTION OF PREMISES

22.1 The LANDLORD may but shall not be obligated to cancel this lease if:

22.1.1 There is damage to the building such that the demised premises have been rendered substantially untenantable because of absence of access or supply of any necessary service or amenity; or

22.1.2 There is destruction or damage to the building or parts thereof, whether or not the premises are involved and the LANDLORD determines to put an end to the tenancies in the building in order to engage in reconstruction, renovation or rebuilding.

22.2 The cancellation under clause 22.1 shall be by writer notice given by the LANDLORD within 60 days of the taking place of the event referred to in clause 22.1 giving rise to the cancellation, provided that in the case of notice given in terms of this clause such notice shall be deemed to be effective as from the date on which the damage or destruction as the case may be took place, and in the case of notice shall be deemed to be effective on the expiration of a period of 30 days of the giving of such notice or a period that is reasonable for the TENANT to find alternative office accommodation.

22.3 Any such cancellation shall be without prejudice to any rights or claims which the LANDLORD may have against the TENANT whether in terms hereof or otherwise or the TENANT against the LANDLORD.

22.4 If there is any dispute as whether:

22.4.1 There is damage to the premises or the building so as to affect the enjoyment of the premises, but not to such extent as to entitle the LANDLORD to cancel subject to clause 21.1: or

22.4.2 The LANDLORD does not exercise its right to cancel under clause 21.1 when entitled to do so, then the TENANT shall be entitled to a remission of rent for the period during which and to the extent to which it is deprived of beneficial occupation and enjoyment of the premises, provided that such damage was not occasioned by invitees, contractors or employees.

22.5 If there is any dispute as to

22.5.1 Whether the premises have been rendered substantially untenable or

22.5.2 The amount of the remission of rental and/or the extent to which the TENANT is deprived of beneficial occupation and enjoyment of the leased premises, the decision of architect appointed by mutual agreement of the LANDLORD and the TENANT and approved by either the National Construction Council or the Board of Architects and Quantity Surveyors who will act as experts and not as arbitrators, and who
