This letter has reference to our letter dated 13th July, 2021 with Ref No. TICC/PP.10/010439/48 and your application letter dated 12th August, 2021.

2. Please note that your application for these farms was received and evaluated according to the set criteria as provided in our letter.

3. TIC is pleased to inform that following the evaluation, your company was considered a preferred applicant to implement the planned sugar project in Kasulu District and that there will be a Performance Contract that will specify project deliverable targets and timelines to be signed between yourselves and the Government. The signing of the Performance Contract will be on 3rd September, 2021 at TIC Head Office in Dar es Salaam.

4. I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate you on this important milestone in this investment and wish you success in the implementation of the project.

Yours Sincerely,

RE: COMMITMENT TO IMPLEMENT KASULU SUGAR PROJECT

We refer to your bid submitted on 12th August 2021 regarding the implementation and operation of Kasulu Sugar project over Farm No. 210 Kitanga & Kiyugwe, Farm No.211 Nyarugusu, Farm No.212 Kigadye, Farm No.213 Herushingo, Farm No.214 Nyamidaho and Farm No.215 Kumtundu, amounting to 37,662ha in Kasulu District, Kigoma Region. We are writing to inform you that the allocation of these parcels of land to Mufindi Paper Mills Limited for implementation and operation of Kasulu Sugar Project was approved subject to the following terms and conditions:

i. Mufindi Paper Mills Limited shall implement and operate Kasulu Sugar Project as one of its business units. For identification of this business unit, Mufindi Paper Mills Limited may register the words 'Kasulu Sugar' as a trademark and/or trading name.

ii. Mufindi Paper Mills Limited shall guarantee the performance of its obligations during the implementation periods (phase 1 and phase 2) by providing an irrevocable and unconditional performance guarantee from a reputable local bank of a sum or equivalent to TZS 5,792,500,000 and TZS 3,475,500,000 for phase 1 and phase 2 respectively.

iii. Mufindi Paper Mills Limited shall submit to TIC, a project implementation schedule and detailed land-use plan including an out growers' scheme, which shall be reviewed by TIC and, upon approval; it will become part of this commitment letter.

iv. Mufindi Paper Mills Limited shall submit to TIC, a detailed business plan and other TIC registration documentation including project financial plan for TIC registration, prior issuance of Derivative rights.

v. Mufindi Paper Mills Limited shall establish a company field office in Kasulu within 45 days after signing Derivative rights.

Fax: (255) 22 2118253, Email: info@tic.go.tz, Website: www.tic.go.tz

vi. Mufindi Paper Mills Limited shall submit to TIC, a detailed progress implementation report every six months during project implementation and operation. The report will also disclose the amount spent includes what expenditure and investments have taken place in the six months period.

vii. Mufindi Paper Mills Limited shall pay the cost for premium, land registration, stamp duty, rent, deed plan and certificate of occupancy to the Ministry of Lands and Human Settlement amounting to TZS 337,585,739 and facilitation fee amounting to TZS 33,758,573.9 to be paid to Tanzania Investment Centre, the costs shall be for all land allocated for the project, that is to say, Farm No. 210 Kitanga & Kiyugwe, Farm No.211 Nyarugusu, Farm No.212 Kigadye, Farm No.213 Herushingo, Farm No.214 Nyamidaho and Farm No.215 Kumtundu amounting to 37,662ha in Kasulu District, Kigoma Region. The investor undertakes to utilize the said land according to the implementation plan submitted to TIC. If the investor fails to do that without satisfactory reasons, TIC may call the Bank guarantee to be provided under clause 1(ii) above.

viii. Mufindi Paper shall reimburse the previous investor amount of approximately TZS 926,800,000 will be paid once the Government has been convinced with the authenticity of the claim as the moderate cost incurred by the company to prepare a land-use plan, TZS 27,000,000 as of the cost to re-conducting land use plan and TZS 66,920,000 as of the cost to resurvey the land.

ix. Mufindi Paper Mills Limited, after consultation with TIC, Kasulu District Council and Kasulu District Commissioner shall pay moderate administrative costs not exceeding TZS 40,630,000 of relocating people currently conducting economic activities in the farms to another farm of 1000ha set aside by Kasulu District Council. For the sake of good order, administrative costs referred to in this clause do not mean making compensation to former landowners. TIC confirms that no compensation is required to be made because the land to be utilized in the sugar project was previously owned by the village and no other person owned the land or conducted economic activities on the said land before its acquisition for the project purposes.

x. Mufindi Paper Mills Limited accepts to undertake corporate social responsibility activities as will be agreed between Mufindi Paper Mills Limited and the Kasulu District Council.

Mufindi Paper Mills Limited shall be liable to reinstate farms beacons immediately after signing the commitment letter. TIC agrees to facilitate Mufindi Paper Mills Limited for implementation and operation of the Kasulu Sugar project in the boundary recovery process by providing an introduction letter to the Kasulu District Council xi. Mufindi Paper Mills Limited shall provide a Board of Directors' resolution committing to comply with the above terms. That failure to comply with these terms and conditions that are solely attributable to Mufindi Paper Mills Limited may lead to the cancellation of the land rights and allocation of the project land to another investor.

2. Please sign and return one copy of this letter indicating your acceptance of these terms.

Mufindi Paper Mills Limited HEREBY AGREES AND ACCEPTS the terms and conditions for the allocation of the land for Kasulu Sugar project as prescribed in this commitment letter.
