SHARE CAPITAL AND VARIATION OF RIGHTS

7. The initial authorized share capital of the Company is TZS 500,000,000/= divided into 50,000 ordinary shares of TZS 10,000/= each.
8. Without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of any shares or class of shares, any share in the Company may be issued with or have attached thereto such preferred, deferred, cumulative or other special rights or such restrictions, whether in regard to dividend, voting, return of capital or otherwise, as the Company may from time to time by ordinary resolution determine.
9. Subject to the provisions of section 61 of the Act, any preference shares may, with the sanction of a special resolution, be issued upon the terms that they are or, at the option of the Company, are liable to be, redeemed on such terms and in such manner as the Company may by special resolution determine.
10. If, at any time, the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may from time to time, whether or not the Company is being wound up, be altered or abrogated with the consent in writing of the holders of not less than three-fourths of the issued shares of that class or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of that class. To every such separate general meeting, all the provisions of these Articles relating to general meetings of the Company shall, mutatis mutandis, apply but so that the necessary quorum shall be one person at least holding or representing by proxy not less than half of the issued shares of the class and that any holder of shares of the class present in person or by proxy may demand a poll.
11. The special rights conferred upon the holders of any shares or class of shares shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by the conditions of issue of such shares, be deemed to be altered by the creation or issue of further shares ranking pari passu therewith.
12. Subject to the provisions of these Articles and/or conditions of issue as contemplated in any agreement between the Members from time to time, the shares in the capital of the Company shall be at the disposal of the Board which may allot, grant options over or otherwise dispose of them to such persons, for such consideration, on such terms and conditions and at such times as it may be determined provided that no shares shall be issued at a discount except in accordance with section 60 of the Act.

13. The Company may exercise the powers of paying commissions conferred by section 56 of the Act, provided that the rate, per cent or amount of the commission paid or agreed to be paid and the number of shares for which persons have agreed for a commission to subscribe absolutely shall be disclosed in the manner required by that section and that such commission shall not exceed ten per cent of the price at which the shares in respect whereof the same is paid are issued or an amount equal to ten per cent of such price (as the case may be). Such commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash or the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly in one way and partly in the other. The Company may also, on any issue of shares, pay such brokerage as may be lawful.
14. Except as required by law, no person shall be recognised by the Company as holding any share upon any trust and the Company shall not be bound by or compelled in any way to recognise, even when having notice thereof, any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share or any interest in any fractional part of a share or, except only as by these Articles or by law otherwise required or provided, any right in respect of any share other than an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder.

CERTIFICATES

15. Every person whose name is entered as a Member in the register of members shall be entitled, without payment, to one certificate for all his shares of each class and, when part only of the shares comprised in a certificate is sold or transferred, to a new certificate for the remainder of the shares so comprised or, for every certificate after the first as the Board shall from time to time determine, several certificates each for one or more of his shares of such class. Every certificate shall be issued within two months after allotment or lodgement of the instrument of transfer or within such other period as the conditions of issue shall provide, shall be under the Seal and shall specify the share or shares to which it relates and the amount Paid Up thereon. In the case of shares held jointly by several persons, the Company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate for such shares and delivery of a certificate to one of the several joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all.
16. If a share certificate is defaced, lost or destroyed, it may be replaced on such terms, if any, as to evidence and indemnity and payment of the out-of-pocket expenses of the Company of investigating such evidence, as the Board may think fit and, in case of defacement, on delivery of the old certificate to the Company.

LIEN

17. The Company shall have a lien on every share (other than a fully paid share) registered in the name of a Member, whether solely or jointly with others, for all moneys, whether presently payable or not, due by such Member or his estate, either alone or jointly with any other person, to the Company but the Board may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this Article. The Company's lien on a share shall extend to all dividends payable thereon.

18. The Company may sell, in such manner as the Board may determine, any share on which the Company has a lien but no sale shall be made unless a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable and not before the expiration of fourteen days after a notice in writing, stating and demanding payment of the sum presently payable and giving notice of the intention to sell in default, shall have been given to the holder for the time being of the share or to the person entitled by reason of his death or bankruptcy to the share.
19. To give effect to any such sale, the Board may authorise any person to transfer the share sold to the purchaser thereof. The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the share and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.
20. The net proceeds of any such sale, after payment of the cost of such sale, shall be applied in or towards payment or satisfaction of the debt or liability in respect whereof the lien exists so far as the same is presently payable and any residue shall (subject to a like lien for debts or liabilities not presently payable as existed upon the share prior to the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the share at the time of the sale.

CALLS ON SHARES

21. The Board may, from time to time, make calls upon the Members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares and not, by the conditions of allotment thereof, made payable at fixed times which have not yet arrived, and each Member shall, subject to the Company giving to him at least three days' written notice specifying the deadline and bank account or place of payment and available times for physical payment, pay to the Company in accordance with such notice, the amount called on his shares. A call may be revoked or postponed as the Board may determine.
22. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Board authorising the call was passed and may be required to be paid by instalments.
23. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.
24. For the avoidance of doubt, any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable upon allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal amount of the share or by way of premium, shall not be deemed to be a call made, provided that the Board may make a call on such sums as they see fit pursuant to Article 21.
25. If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest on the sum from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment or forfeiture of the share at such rate, not exceeding fifteen per cent per annum, as the Board may determine but the Board may waive payment of such interest wholly or in part.

26. The Board may differentiate between the holders of unpaid or partly paid shares as to the amount of calls to be paid and the deadlines and times of payment.
27. The Board may, if it thinks fit, receive from any Member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him and upon all or any of the moneys so advanced may, until the same would, but for such advance, become presently payable, pay interest at such rate, not exceeding fifteen per cent per annum, as may be agreed upon between the Board and the Member paying such sum in advance, provided that if no such agreement is reached then no interest is payable.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

28. The transfer of any share in the Company shall be in writing in any usual or common form and shall be signed by the transferor and the transferee and executed under seal by the transferor or the transferee if they are a Tanzanian company. The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of members in respect thereof. All instruments of transfer, once registered in the register of members, shall be retained by the Company.
29. Save for a transfer of shares contemplated in any shareholders agreement entered into between the shareholders of the Company, the directors shall be entitled, in their own discretion, to refuse a transfer of shares. The Board may refuse to register a transfer of shares:
 - 29.1 the registration of which would cause the number of Members to exceed the maximum permitted by Article 4;
 - 29.2 on which the Company has a lien;
 - 29.3 unless the instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate for the shares to which it relates, or an indemnity for a lost or destroyed certificate, and such other evidence as the Board may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer; and
 - 29.4 unless each instrument of transfer is in respect of only one class of share, provided that several instruments of transfer may be used to transfer shares comprising several classes of shares.
30. If the Board refuses to register a transfer it shall, within fifteen days after the date on which the instrument of transfer was lodged with the Company, send to the transferee notice of the refusal.
31. The registration of transfer may be suspended at such time and for such period as the Board may from time to time determine, provided always that such registration shall not be suspended for more than thirty days in any year.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

32. In the case of the death of a Member, the survivors or survivor, where the deceased was a joint holder, and the executors or administrators of the deceased where he was a sole or only surviving holder, shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to his shares; provided that nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased Member from any liability in respect of any share solely or jointly held by him.
33. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member shall, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be required by the Board, have the right either to be registered as a Member in respect of the share or, instead of being registered himself, to make such transfer of the share as the deceased or bankrupt person could have made, and subject to the powers of such person provided by law, but the Board shall, in either case, have the same right to refuse or suspend registration as it would have had in the case of a transfer of the share by the deceased or bankrupt person had they still been alive or not bankrupt.
34. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share except that he shall not, before being registered as the holder of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to general meetings of the Company. The Board may, at any time, give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share and, if the notice is not complied with within three months after the date of service thereof, the Board may, thereafter, withhold payment of all dividends and other moneys payable in respect of the share until compliance with the notice has been effected.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

35. If a Member fails to pay any call or instalment of a call on the day appointed for payment thereof the Board may, at any time thereafter while any part of such call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid together with any interest which may have accrued and all expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment.
36. The notice shall specify a date, not less than three days from the date of service of the notice, on or before which and the place or bank account where the payment required by the notice is to be made and shall state that, in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed, the shares in respect of which such call was made or instalment is payable will be liable to be forfeited. The Board may accept the surrender of any shares liable to be forfeited hereunder and, in such case, references herein to forfeiture shall include surrender.
37. If the requirements of any such notice are not complied with, any shares in respect of which such notice has been given may, at any time after the date specified therein, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect.

Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture.

38. 119. Subject to the rights of any persons entitled to shares with special rights as to dividends, all dividends shall be declared and apportioned and paid to the Members according to the shares held by them respectively during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid, and shall not be dependent on the amounts paid up on the shares in respect whereof the dividends are declared; provided that, if any share be issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date, such share shall rank for dividend accordingly.
120. The Board may deduct from any dividend payable on a share any sums of money presently payable, by the person to whom the dividend is payable, to the Company on account of calls or otherwise.
121. The Board may retain any dividend or other money payable on or in respect of a share on which the Company has a lien and may apply the same in or towards satisfaction of the debts, liabilities or engagements in respect of which the lien exists.
122. No dividend shall bear interest against the Company.
123. With the sanction of a general meeting, any dividend may be paid wholly or in part by the distribution of specific assets and, in particular, of paid-up shares or debentures of any other company or in any one or more of such ways. Where any difficulty arises in regard to such distribution, the Board may settle the same as it deems expedient, but may not issue fractional certificates, and may fix the value for distribution of such specific assets or any part thereof and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any Member upon the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of all Members and may vest any such specific assets in trustees upon trust for the Members entitled to the dividend as may seem expedient to the Board.

124. Any dividend, interest or other sum payable in cash to the holder of shares may be paid by: (a) cheque or warrant sent through the post addressed to such holder at his address stated in the register of members (or such other address notified pursuant to these Articles) or, in the case of joint holders, addressed to the holder whose name stands first on the register of members in respect of the shares; or (b) by telegraphic transfer to such bank account in any country as the holder of shares (or, in the case of joint holders, the holder whose name stands first on the register of members in respect of the shares) may notify the Company from time to time. Every such cheque or telegraphic transfer shall, unless the holder otherwise directs, be made payable to the order of the registered holder or, in the case of joint holders, to the order of the holder whose name stands first on the register of members in respect of such shares and shall be sent at his or their risk. Any one of two or more joint holders may give effectual receipts for any dividends or other moneys payable in respect of the shares held by such joint holders.
125. The Board may, before recommending any dividend, set aside out of the profits of the Company such sum as it thinks proper as a reserve which shall, at the discretion of the Board, be applicable for any purpose to which the profits of the Company may be properly applied and pending such application may, at the like discretion, either be employed in the business of the Company or be invested in such investments (other than shares of the Company or its holding company, if any) as the Board may from time to time think fit. The Board may also, without placing the same to reserve, carry forward any profits which it may think prudent not to divide.
126. Any unclaimed dividends may be paid by the Directors into an unclaimed dividend account, but such payment shall not constitute the Company a trustee in respect thereof. Any dividend unclaimed after a period of twelve years from the date of declaration of such dividend shall be forfeited and shall revert to the Company.

CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS

127. The Company in general meeting may, upon the recommendation of the Board, resolve that it is desirable to capitalise any part of the amount for the time being standing to the credit of any of the Company's reserve accounts or of any share premium account or of the profit and loss account or otherwise available for distribution and, accordingly, that such sum be set free for distribution amongst the Members who would have been entitled thereto if distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions, on condition that the same be not paid in cash but be applied either in or towards paying up any amounts for the time being unpaid on any shares held by such Members respectively or paying up in full unissued shares, income notes or debentures of the Company to be allotted and distributed, credited as fully paid up, to and amongst such Members in the proportions aforesaid or partly in the one way and partly in the other and the Board shall give effect to such resolution; Provided that amounts standing to the credit of a share premium account or a capital redemption reserve fund may, for the purposes of this Article, only be applied in the paying up of unissued shares to be issued to Members of the Company as fully paid bonus shares.

128. Whenever such a resolution as aforesaid shall have been passed, the Board shall make all such appropriations and applications of the undivided profits, allotments and issues of fully paid shares, income notes or debentures as may be required thereby and shall do all acts and things required to give effect thereto, with full power to the Board (excluding the power to acquire fractions or to make such provisions by the issue of fractional certificates), including by payment in cash or otherwise as it thinks fit for the case of shares or debentures which would otherwise be distributable in fractions, and also to authorise any person to enter on behalf of all the Members entitled thereto into an agreement with the Company providing for the allotment to them respectively, credited as fully paid up, of any shares, income notes or debentures to which they may be entitled upon such capitalisation or, as the case may require, for the payment up by the Company on their behalf, by the application thereto of their respective proportions of the profits resolved to be capitalised, of the amounts or any part of the amounts remaining unpaid on their existing shares, and any agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding on all such Members.
