5.
 1. If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class otherwise provided by the terms of issue of shares of that class may be varied with the sanction of any extra-ordinary resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of that class.
 2. To every such separate general meeting the provisions of these regulations relating to general meeting shall mutatis mutandis apply, but so that the necessary quorum shall be two persons at least holding or representing by proxy two third of the issued shares of the class and that any holder of shares of the class present in person by proxy may demand a poll.
 3. For the purpose of this article the right conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking therewith.
6. Every person whose name is entered as member in the register of members shall, without payments, be entitled to one certificate under the common seals of the company paid up thereon, provided that in respect of a share or shares held jointly by several persons the company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate and delivery of a certificate for a share to one of several joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all.
7. The company shall be entitled to treat the person whose name appears upon the Register in respect of any shares as the absolute owner thereof and shall not be under any obligations to recognize any trust or equitable claim to or partial interest in such shares, whether or not it shall possess other notice thereof.
8. If a share certificate is defaced, lost or destroyed it may be renewed on payment of such fee, if any, not exceeding one hundred shillings and on such terms, if any, as to evidence and indemnity as the directors think fit.

9. LIEN

1. The company shall have a first and paramount lien on shares for all moneys whether presently payable or not called or payable at a fixed time in respect of those shares, and the company shall also have a first and paramount lien on all shares standing registered in the name of any person for all money presently payable by him or his estate to the company: but the Directors may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempted from the provisions of this articles.

2. The lien hereby conferred shall attach to all shares registered in the name of any person indebted or under liability to the company, whether he is the sole registered holder or shall be one of several joint holders.
3. The company's lien, if any, on a share shall be extended to all dividends payable thereon.
10. The company may sell, in such manner as the directors think fit, any shares on which the company has a lien, but no sale shall be made unless some sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable, not until the expiration of thirty days after a notice in writing, stating and demanding payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable has been given to the registered holder for the time being of the share of the person entitled by reason of his death or bankruptcy to the share.
11. For giving effect to any such sale, the directors may authorize some person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser thereof. The purchaser shall registered as the holder of the share comprised in any such transfer and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase monies, nor shall title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity of the transaction in reference to the sale.
12. The proceeds of the sale shall be applied in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable and the residue shall be held [subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares prior to the sale] by the company on behalf of the person entitled to the shares immediately prior to the sale.

CALLS ON SHARES

13. The Directors may from time to time make calls upon the members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares, and each member shall [subject to receiving at least forty five day's notice specified the amount called on his shares. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorizing the call was passed.

14. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.
15. If a sum in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest upon the sum at the rate of ten percent per annum from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of the actual payment, but the directors shall be at liberty to waive payment of such interest or any part thereof.
16. The provisions of these articles as to the liability of joint holders and as to payment of interest shall apply in the case of non-payment of any amount which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time whether on account of the amount of the share or by way of premium, as if the same had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
17. The Directors may make arrangements on the issue of shares for a difference between the holders and the amount of calls to be paid in at the time of payment.
18. The Directors may, if they think fit, receive from members willing to advance the same, all or any part of the monies uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by them and upon all or any of the money so advanced may [until the same would but for such advance become presently payable] pay interest at such rate [not exceeding without the sanction of the company in general meeting, eight percent as may agreed upon between the member paying the sum in advance and the Directors.

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

19. Subject to the conditions hereinafter contained, shares in the company shall be transferable by written instrument in the common form signed by both the transferor and the transferee, and the former shall be deemed to remain the holder of the shares until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of members in respect thereof.
20. Save as hereinafter provided, the Directors may in their absolute discretion decline to register any transfer of shares to a person of whom they do not approve not already a member of the company and may also decline to register any transfer of share on which the company has a lien. The Directors may also suspend the registration of transfers during the period of thirty days immediately preceding the General Meeting in each year. The Directors may also decline to recognize any instrument of transfer unless:-

[a] fee not exceeding an amount paid for stamp duty is paid to the company in respect thereof; and

[b] The instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates, and such other evidence as the directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer.

21. If the Directors refuse to register a transfer of any shares they shall within two months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the company send to the transferee notice of their refusal.

22. The personal representative or assignee or trustee of a deceased sole holder of a share shall be the only person recognized by the company as having any title to the shares. In the case of a share being registered in the names of two or more holders, the survivors, or survivor or the personal representative of the deceased's survivor, shall be the only persons recognized by the company as having any title to the share.

23. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member shall upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be required or, instead of being registered himself to make such transfer of the share as the deceased or bankrupt person could have to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the share by the deceased or the share by the deceased or bankrupt person before the death or bankruptcy.

24. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were registered as a member in respect of the share and shall be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the company.

25. Save as in hereafter provided, no shares in the company shall be transferred otherwise than to a person who is already a member of the company until the rights of pre-emption hereby conferred shall have been exhausted, that is to say;-

a. Every member or other person referred to in article 23 hereof who intends to transfer shares [hereinafter called "the Vendor"] shall give notice in writing to the Board of Directors ["Board"] his intention to do so. Such notice shall constitute the Board as agent for the sale of the said shares in one or more lots at the discretion of the Board to members of the company at a price to be agreed upon by the Vendor and the Board or in default of agreement, at a price which the auditor of the company for the time being shall certify in writing under his hand, to be in his opinion, the fair selling value thereof as between a willing vendor and a willing purchaser.

- b. Upon the price being fixed as aforesaid, the Board shall forthwith give notice to all the members of the shares to be sold and invite each of them to state in writing within forty five days from the date of the said notice whether he is willing to purchase any, and if so what maximum number of the said shares.
- c. At the expiration of the said forty five days, the Board shall allocate the said shares to or amongst the member or members who shall have expressed his or their willingness to purchases as aforesaid and if more than one, so far as may be prorated according to the number of shares already held by them respectively PROVIDED THAT no member shall be obliged to take more than the said maximum number of shares so notified by him as aforesaid.
- d. Upon such allocation being made the vendor shall be bound on payment of the said price to transfer the shares to the purchaser or purchaser. If he makes default in so doing the Chairman for the time being of the Directors of the company or failing him, one of the Directors duly nominated by resolution of the Board for that purpose shall forthwith be deemed to be the duly appointed attorney of the Vendor with full power to execute, complete and deliver in the name and on behalf of the Vendor a transfer of the shares to the purchasing members as holder of any share purchased by him.

26. In the event of the whole of any lot of shares offered by the board as provided by Articles 25 hereof not being sold in manner by the Article provided, the Vendor may at any time within six calendar months after the expiration of the said period of forty five days after the date of the notice given by the Board to the member, transfer the shares not so sold to any person [subject to Article 20] and at any price.

27. The provisions of Articles 20, 23 and 25 hereof notwithstanding, any share held by a deceased member may be transferred at any time by such deceased member's executor or administrator to his heirs PROVIDED THAT such heirs are the deceased member's wife or assignee, ascendant or descendant.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

28. If a member fail to pay any call or installments of a call no the day at time thereafter during such time as part of such call or installment remains unpaid ,serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or installment as is unpaid together with any interest which may have accrued.

29. The notice shall name a further day [not earlier than the expiration of forty five days from the of the notice] on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made, and shall state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time appointed, the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited
30. If the requirement of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may time thereafter and before the payment required by the notice has been made be declared forfeited by the Board, and such forfeiture shall extend to any dividends in respect of any share so forfeited not actually paid at the date said notice.
31. A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the Directors think fit, at time before sale or disposition the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the directors think fit.
32. A person whose share have been forfeited shall cease to be the owner of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding, remain liable to pay the company all monies which, at the date of the forfeiture were presently payable by him to the company in respect of the shares, but his liability shall cease if and when the company receives payment in full of the nominal amount of the shares.
33. A statutory declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director of the company, and that a share in the company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share. The company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share on any sale or disposition thereof and may execute a transfer of the share in favor of the person to whom the share or disposed of and he shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in transaction in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the shares.
34. The provision of these articles as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the issue of share, becomes payable at a fixed time whether on account of the amount of the share, or by way of premium, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

ALTERATION OF CAPITAL

35. The company may from time to time by special resolution increase the share capital by such sum, to be divided into shares of such amount, as the resolution shall prescribe.
36. Subject to any direction to the contrary that may be given by the resolution sanctioning the increase of share capital, new shares shall, before issue, be offered to such persons as at the date of the offer are entitled to receive notice from the company of general meetings in proportion as nearly as the circumstances admit, to the amount of the existing shares to which they are entitled. The offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares offered, and limiting a time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined, and after the expiration of the time, or on receipt of an intimation from the person to whom the offer is made that he declines to accept the shares offered, the Directors may dispose of the same in such manner as they think most beneficial to the company. The Directors may likewise so dispose of any new shares which [by reason of the ratio which the new shares bear to shares held by persons entitled to an offer of new shares] cannot, in the opinion of the Directors, be conveniently offered under this article.
37. The new shares shall be subject to the same provisions with reference to the payment of calls, liens, transfer, transmission, and forfeiture and otherwise as the shares in the original share capital.
38. The company may by ordinary resolution:-
- [C] Consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares;
 - [d] Sub-divide its existing shares, or any of them into shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the Memorandum of Association, subject, nevertheless, to the provision of section 64 (1) (d) of the Act.
 - [e] Cancel any shares, which, at the date of the passing of the resolution have been taken or agreed to be taken by any person.
39. The company may by special resolution, reduce its share capital in any manner and with, and subject to, any incident authorized, and consent required, by law.

GENERAL MEETINGS

40. A general meeting shall be held once every calendar year at such time [not being more than fifteen months after the holding of the last preceding general meeting] and place as may be determined by the directions.
