7. Every general meeting shall be called by twenty-one clear days' notice in writing at the least. The notice shall specify the place, the day and hour of meeting and, in case of special business, the general nature of that business:
 - (a) in the case of a meeting called as the annual general meeting, by all the members entitled to attend and vote thereat
 - (b) in the case of any other meeting, by a majority in number of the members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority together representation not less than seventy – five percent of the total voting rights at that meeting of all the members

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

8. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an extraordinary general meeting, and also all that is transacted at an annual general meeting, with the exception of declaring a dividend, the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets, and the reports of the directors and auditors, the election in the place of those retiring and the appointment of, and the fixing of the remuneration of the auditors and Company Secretary.
9. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of the members, shall be dissolved, in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to such other day and at such other time and place as the directors may determine
10. The chairman of the board of directors shall preside as chairman at every general meeting of the company, or if there is no such chairman or if he is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting, or is unwilling to act, the members present shall appoint one of the members present to be chairman of the meeting
11. The Chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place. When a meeting is adjourned for fourteen days or more, at least seven clear days notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given specifying the time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
12. In any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided in a show of hands and the decision of the meeting shall be of the voting side whose members constitute Seventy Five percent and/or above of the paid up shares of the company. In the case of equality of votes, the same rule shall mutatis mutandis apply
13. Subject to any right or restrictions for the time being to any class or classes of shares, at meetings of members or classes of members, each member entitled to vote by vote in person or by proxy or by attorney and on a show of hands. Every person present who is a member or a representative of a member shall have one vote and the decision shall be as per article 13 above
14. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing, in the common or usual form, under the hand of the appointer or of his attorney dully authorized in writing or, if the appointer is a corporation either under seal or under the hand of an officer or attorney duly authorized. A proxy may but need not be a member of the company

15. The instrument appointing a proxy and/or the power of attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed or a materially certified copy of that power or authority shall be deposited at the registered office of the company not less than 48 hours before the time of holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid

CALL UP FOR SHARES

16. The Board may, from time to time, make calls upon the Members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares and not, by the conditions of allotment thereof, made payable at fixed times and each Member shall, subject to the Company giving to him at least fourteen days' notice specifying the time or times and place of payment, pay to the Company at the time or times and place so specified, the amount called on his shares. A call may be revoked or postponed as the Board may determine.
17. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the directors authorizing the call was passed and may be required to be paid by installments
18. If the sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest on the sum from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at such rate not exceeding 10% per annum as the directors may determine but the directors shall be at liberty to waive payment of that interest whole or in part

TRANSFER OF SHARES

19. If a shareholder wishes to sell some or all of his shares, such shares must first be offered to other existing members at a price determined by the directors or the auditor of the company. In the case of a shareholder selling all of his/her shares, they shall be paid one year (if transfer is made within two years of the company's lifespan) or two years (if the company's lifespan exceeds two years) profits of his share percentage net any paid up dividend and the shares shall be valued at current or latest net worth of business ascertained from financial statements. If no shareholder is interested, then shares of the company can be freely transferred to an outsider mutually accepted by the existing members
20. Subject to these articles, any member may transfer some or all of his shares by instrument in writing in any usual or common form or in any other form which the directors may approve. The instrument shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and the transferor shall remain the holder of shares transferred until the transfer is registered and the name of the transferee is entered in the register of members in respect thereof. Upon entering the transferee's name in the register, the transferor shall cease to be a member. Notwithstanding that cession, each member shall, after he ceases to be a member, continue to be loyal to the company by not diverging any business secrets of the company or setting up any business, either in sole proprietorship or in a corporate form, that may be similar and/or competitive to the company's
21. The instruments of transfer must be left for registration at the registered office of the company together with such fee, accompanied with the certificate of the shares to which it relates and any such other evidence as the directors may require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer and thereupon the company shall subject to the powers vested in in the directors by these articles, register the transferee as a shareholder and retain the instrument of transfer

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

22. In the case of the death of a Shareholder, the survivors or survivor, where the deceased was a joint holder, and the executors or administrators of the deceased where he was a sole or only surviving holder, shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to his shares; Provided that nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased Member from any liability in respect of any share solely or jointly held by him.
23. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member shall, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be required by the Board, have the right either to be registered as a Member in respect of the share or, instead of being registered himself, to make such transfer of the share as the deceased or bankrupt person could have made but the Board shall, in either case, have the same right to refuse or suspend registration as it would have had in the case of a transfer of the share by the deceased or bankrupt person before the death or bankruptcy.
24. If a person so becoming entitled elects to be registered himself, he shall deliver or send to the company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects. If he elects to have another person registered, he shall testify his election by executing in favor of that person a transfer of the share. All limitations, restrictions and provisions of these articles relating to the rights to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death or bankruptcy of the member had not occurred and the notice or transfer signed by that member
25. Where the registered holder of any share dies or becomes bankrupt his personal representative or the assignee of his estate, as the case may be, shall upon the production of such evidence as may from time to time be properly required by the directors in that behalf, be entitled to same dividends and other advantages

FORFEITURE OF SHARE

26. If a Member fails to pay any call or installment of a call on the day appointed for payment thereof the Board may, at any time thereafter while any part of such call or installment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or installment as is unpaid together with any interest which may have accrued and all expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment.
27. The notice shall specify a date, not less than fourteen days from the date of service of the notice, on or before which and the place where the payment required by the notice is to be made and shall state that, in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed, the shares in respect of which such call was made or installment is payable will be liable to be forfeited. The Board may accept the surrender of any shares liable to be forfeited hereunder and, in such case, references herein to forfeiture shall include surrender.
28. If the requirements of any such notice are not complied with, any shares in respect of which such notice has been given may, at any time after the date specified therein, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture.

29. Forfeited shares shall be deemed to be the property of the Company and may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of upon such terms and in such manner as the Board may think fit but, at any time before a sale, re-allotment or other disposition, the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the Board may determine.
30. A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares but shall, notwithstanding, remain liable to pay to the company all moneys which, at the date of forfeiture, was payable by him to the company in respect of the shares together with interest at the rate of 10% per annum from the date of forfeiture on the money for the time being unpaid if the directors think fit to enforce payment in full of all such money in respect of the shares
