49. A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the Directors think fit, and at any time before a sale or disposition the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the Directors think fit.
50. A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall notwithstanding, remain liable to pay to the Company all moneys which, at the date of forfeiture, were presently payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares, together with interest thereon at such rate not exceeding 10 percent per annum, as Directors shall think fit, from the date of forfeiture until payment but his liability shall cease if and when the Company shall have received payment in full of all such moneys in respect the shares.
51. A statutory declaration in writing that the declaring is a Director or Secretary of the Company, and that a share in the Company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share. The Company may receive the consideration, if any given for the shares on any sale, re-allotment or other disposition thereof and many execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of and he shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share, and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be effected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale re-allotment or disposal of the share.

52. The Company may by Ordinary Resolution convert any paid-up share into stock, and reconvert any stock into paid-up shares of any denomination.
53. The holders of stock may transfer the same or any part thereof in the same manner, and subject to the same regulations, as and subject to which the shares from which the stock arose might previously to conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances admit; and Directors may from time to time fix the minimum amount of stock transferable, provided that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.
54. The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at the stock arose, but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the Company and in the assets on a winding up) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage.
55. Such of the Articles of the Company as are applicable to paid-up shares apply to stock, and the words "share" and "shareholder" therein shall include "stock" and "stockholder".

ALTERATION OF CAPITAL

56. The Company may from time to time by Ordinary Resolution increase the share Capital by such sum, to be divided into shares of such amount, as the resolution shall prescribe.

57. Subject to the other provisions of the see Articles the shares shall be at the disposal of the Board, which may allot or otherwise dispose of them to such person (including any Directors) at such times and for such consideration and upon such terms and conditions as the Directors may determine.
58. Except so far as otherwise provided by the conditions of issue, or by these Articles, any capital raise by the creation of new shares shall be considered part of the original capital, and shall be subject to the provisions herein contained with reference to the payment of calls and installments, transfer and transmission, forfeiture, lien, surrender, and otherwise, unless otherwise provided in accordance with these Articles the new shares shall be Ordinary Shares.
59. The Company may from time to time by Ordinary Resolution:-
- a) Consolidate and divide all any of its shares capital into shares of large amount than its existing shares; or
 - b) Subdivide its shares, or any them, into shares of smaller amount than is fixed by its Memorandum of Association subject, nevertheless, to the provisions of the Act; or
 - c) Cancel any shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person, admonish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled.
60. The Company may by special resolution reduce its share capital, any capital redemption reserve fund or any share premium account in any manner and with, and subject to, any incident authorized and consent required, by law.

GENERAL MEETING

61. The Company shall in each year hold a General Meeting as its Annual General Meeting in addition to any other meetings in that year, and shall specify the meeting as such in notices calling it, and not more than fifteen months shall elapse between the date of one Annual General Meeting of the Company and that of the next. The annual General Meeting shall be held at such time and place as the Directors shall appoint.

62. All General Meetings other than Annual General Meetings shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings.

63. The Directors may, whenever they think fit, convene an Extraordinary General Meeting, and Extraordinary General Meetings shall also be convened on such requisitions, or in default, may be convened by such requisitions, as provided by the Act. If at any time there are not within the Country sufficient Directors capable of acting to form a quorum, any Director or any two members having the right to attend General Meetings and vote thereat may convene an Extraordinary General meeting in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings may be convened by the Directors.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

64. An Annual General Meeting and a meeting of the Company other than meeting for passing of the Special Resolution shall be called by fourteen days' notice in writing at the last. A meeting called for the passing of a Special Resolution shall be called twenty-one days' notice in writing at the last.

65. The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given, and shall specify the place, the day, and the hour of the meeting and, in case of special business, the general nature of that business, and shall be given, in manner hereinafter mentioned or such in other manner, if any, as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting, to such persons as are, under the regulations of the Company, entitled to receive such notice from the Company, but with the consent of all the members entitled to receive notice of some particular meeting, that meeting may be convened by such shorter notice and in such manner as those members may think fit.

66. Notice may be given by the Company to any member entitled to receive the same either personally or by sending post to him or to his registered address, or (if he has no registered address within the Country) or to the address, if any, within the Country supplied by him to the Company for the giving of notice to him. Where the notice is sent by post, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected by properly addressing, prepaying and posting a letter containing the notice, and to have been effected in the case of a notice of a meeting at the expiration of twenty-four hours after the letter containing the same is posted, and in any other case at the time at which the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.
67. A notice may be given by the Company to the joint holders of a share giving the notice to the joint holder first named in the Register in respect of the share.
68. Any notice or document sent by post to or left at the registered address of, any member, in pursuance of these Articles, shall, notwithstanding such member be then deceased or bankrupt and whether or not the Company have notice of his decease or bankruptcy, be deemed to have been duly served in respect of any shares, whether held solely or jointly with other persons by such member, until some other person be registered in his stead as the holder or joint holder thereof, and such service shall for all purposes be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or document on all persons interested (whether jointly with or as claiming through or under him) in any such share.
69. Notice of every General Meeting shall be given in any manner hereinbefore authorized to:-
- a) every member except those members who have not supplied to the Company an address within Tanzania for the giving of notices to them;

- b) every person upon whom the ownership of a devolves by reason of his being a legal personal representative or a trustee in bankruptcy of a member where the member but for his death or bankruptcy would be entitled receive notice of the meeting; and
- c) the auditor for the time being of the Company.

70. No other persons shall be entitled to receive notices of General Meetings.

71. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

72. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting, and also all business that is transacted at an Annual General Meeting, with the exception of declaring a dividend, the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets, and the reports of the Directors and Auditors, the election of Direction in place of those retiring and the appointment of, and the fixing of the remuneration of, the Auditors.

73. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business; save as herein otherwise provided, two members having the right to attend and vote there at present in person or by proxy shall be quorum.

74. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, or to such other day and at such other time and place as the Directors may determine, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the members having the right to attend and vote thereat who are present shall be a quorum.

75. The Chairman, if any, of the Board of Directors shall preside as chairman at every General Meeting of the Company, or if there is no such chairman, or if he shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act the Directors present shall elect one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.

76. If at any meeting no Director is willing to act as chairman or if no Director is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting the members having the right to attend and vote thereat who are present shall choose one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting.

77. The chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, seven clear days' notice at the least of the adjourned meeting shall be given specifying the place and the time of the meeting as in the case of an original meeting, but it shall not be necessary to specify in such notice the nature of the business to be transacted at the adjourned meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at any adjourned meeting.

78. At a General Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the show of hands) demanded: -

a) By the chairman of the meeting; or

- b) Any one member present in person or by proxy who holds not less than fifteen per centum of the paid up share capital carrying voting rights; or
- c) By any two members present in person or by proxy and having the right to attend General Meetings and vote thereat.

Unless a poll be so demanded a declaration by the chairman of the meeting that a resolution has on show of hands been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

79. Except as provided in Article 74, if a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner and at such time (within fourteen days) and place as the chairman of the meeting direct, and the result of the poll be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately.

80. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

81. A poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on a other question shall be taken such time within fourteen days as the chairman of the meeting directs, and ay business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with pending the taking of the poll. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

82. Subject to the provisions of the Act, a resolution in writing signed by all the members for the being entitled to receive notice of and to attend a vote at general meetings (or being corporations by their duly authorized representatives) shall be as valid and effective as if the same had been passed at a general meeting of the company duly convened and held.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

83. Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares, on a show of hands every member present in person shall have one vote, and on a poll every member shall have one vote for each share of which he is the holder.
84. On a poll a member entitled to more than one vote need not, if he votes, use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.
85. In the case of joint holders the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the Register of members.
86. A member of unsound mind, or in respect of whom an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction in lunacy, may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his committee, receiver curator bonis or other person in the nature of a committee, receiver or curator bonis appointed by that court, and any such committee, receiver curator bonis or other person may, on a poll, vote by proxy.
87. No member other than a member having the right to attend General Meetings and vote thereat shall be entitled to vote at any General Meeting unless all calls or other sums presently payable by him in respect of shares in the Company have been paid.
88. No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered, and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

89. On poll votes may be given either personally or by proxy.
90. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointer or of his attorney duly authorized in writing, or if the appointer is a corporation, either under seal, or under the hand of an officer or attorney duly authorized. A proxy need not be a member of the Company. Every notice convening a meeting of the Company shall state that a member entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint one or more proxies to attend and vote instead of him.
91. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority if any, under which it is signed or a notarial certified copy of that power or authority shall be deposited at the registered office of the Company or at such other place within the country as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting, not less than forty eight hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting, at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, or in the case of a poll, not less than twenty-four hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid. No instrument of proxy shall be valid after the expiration of twelve months from the date of its execution except at an adjourned meeting or on a poll demanded at a meeting or adjourned meeting in cases where the meeting was originally held within twelve months from that date.
92. An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in the following form or a form a near thereto as circumstance admit.
