- c) Any invitation to the public to subscribe for any shares or debentures is prohibited;
- d) The Company shall not have power to issue share warrants to bearer.

SHARE CAPITAL AND MODIFICATION

4. The share capital of the Company is Tanzanian Shillings 18,478,000,000/= divided into 1,847,800 shares of Tanzania Shillings 10,000/= each. The shares in the original or any increased capital may be divided into several classes and there may be attached thereto respectively any preferential, deferred or other special rights, privileges, conditions, or restrictions as to dividend, capital voting or otherwise.

5. Subject to the provisions of the Act, and without prejudice to any rights attached to any existing shares, any shares may be issued with such rights or restrictions, whether in regard to dividend, voting, return of capital or otherwise as the Company may, by ordinary resolution, determine.

6. Subject to the provisions of section 61 of the Act, any shares may, with the sanction of an ordinary resolution, be issued on the terms that they are, or at the option of the Company are liable to be redeemed on such terms and in such manner as the Company, before the issue of the shares, may, by special resolution, determine.

7. If at any time, the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may, whether or not the Company is being wound up, be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of three-fourths of the issued shares of that class, or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of the class. To every such separate general meeting, the provisions of these Regulations relating to general meetings shall apply, but so that the necessary quorum shall be two persons at least holding or representing by proxy one-third of the issued shares of the class and that any holder of shares of the class present in person or proxy may demand a poll.

8. The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking paripassu therewith.

9. Subject to provisions of these Articles, the shares shall be at the disposal of the Directors, and they may (subject to the rights of pre-emption) allot, grant option over or otherwise dispose of them to such persons, on such terms and conditions, and at such times as they think fit, but so that no share shall be issued at a discount, except in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

10. The Company may exercise the powers of paying commissions conferred by section 56 of the Act. Subject to provisions of the Act, such commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash or the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly in one way and partly in the other.

11. Except as required by law, no person shall be recognized by the Company as holding any share upon any trust, and the Company shall not be bound by or be compelled in any way to recognize (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in share or any interest in any fraction part of a share or (except as otherwise provided by the articles or by law) any other rights or interests in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder.

SHARE CERTIFICATES

12. Every Member, upon becoming the holders of any shares, shall be entitled without payment to receive within two months after allotment or lodgments of transfer (or within such other period as the conditions of issue shall provide) one certificate for all the shares of each class held by him (and, upon transfer a part of his holding of shares of any class, to a certificate for the balance of such holding) or several certificates after the first such reasonable sum as the directors may determine. Every certificate shall be sealed with the seal which it relates and the amount or respective amounts paid thereon. In respect of a more than one certificate and delivery of a certificate for a share to one joint holder shall be sufficient delivery to all joint holders.

13. If a share certificate is defaced, worn out, lost or destroyed, it may be renewed on such terms (if any) as to evidence and indemnity and payment of expenses reasonable incurred by the Company in investigating evidence as the directors may determine but otherwise free of charge, and (in the case of defacement or wearing out) on delivery up of the old certificate.

LIEN

14. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share (not being a fully paid share) for all moneys (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of that share; but the directors may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this Regulation. The Company's lien, if any, on a share extend to any amounts payable in respect of it.

15. The lien hereby conferred shall attach to all shares in the Company registered in the name of any person indebted or under liability to the Company, whether he is the sole registered holder or shall be one of several joint holders.

16. The Company's lien, if any, on a share extend to all dividends payable thereon.

17. The Company may sell, in such manner as the directors determine, any shares on which the Company has a lien if a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable and is not paid within fourteen clear days after a notice in writing has been given to the holder of the share, or the person entitled thereto by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the holder, demanding payment and stating that if the notice is not complied with the shares may be sold.

18. To give effect at any such sale, the directors may authorize some persons to transfer the shares sold to, or in accordance with the directions of the purchaser thereof. The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares comprised in any such transfer, and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.

19. The next proceeds of the sale shall be received by the Company and applied in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, and the residue, if any, shall (upon surrender to the Company for cancellation of the certificate for the Shares sold and subject to a like lien for sums not presently as existed upon the shares before the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the shares, at the date of the sale.

CALLS ON SHARES

20. Subject to the terms of allotment, the directors may make calls upon the Members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares whether in respect of nominal value or premium) and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times, provided that no call shall exceed one-fourth of the nominal value of the share or a call, and each member shall (subject to receiving at least fourteen clear days' notice that specifying when and where payment is to be made) pay to the Company as required by the notice the amount called on his shares. A call may be required to be paid by installments. A call may, before receipt by the Company of any sum due there under, be revoked in whole or part and payment of a call may be postponed in whole or part. A person upon whom a call is made shall remain liable or calls made upon him notwithstanding the subsequent transfer of the shares in respect of which the call was made.

21. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the directors authorizing the call was passed.

22. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.

23. If call remains unpaid after it has become due and payable, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest on the amount unpaid from the day it became due and payable to the time of actual payment at the rate fixed by the term or allotment of the share or, if no rate is fixed, at a rate not exceed five percent per annum as the Directors may determine, but the directors may waive payment of such interest wholly or in part.

24. An amount payable in respect of a share on allotment or at any fixed date, whether in respect of nominal value or premium or as an installment of a call, shall be deemed to be a call, and if it is not paid the provision of the articles shall apply as if that amount had become due and payable by virtue of a call.

25. Subject to the terms of allotment, the directors may, on the issue of shares, differentiate between the holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment.

26. The directors may, if they think fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the moneys un-called and unpaid upon any shares held by him, and upon all or any the moneys so advanced may (until the same would, but for such advance become (payable) pay interest at such rate not exceeding (unless the Company in general meeting shall otherwise direct) six percent per annum, as may be agreed upon between the directors and the members paying such sum in advance.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

27. The instrument of transfer of any share shall be in any usual form or any other form which the directors may approve and shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and, unless the share is fully paid up, by or on behalf of the transferee, and the transferor shall be deemed to remain a holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of members in respect thereof.

28. Save as hereinafter provided, the directors may, in their absolute discretion and without assigning any person therefore, decline to register any transfer of any not approve, whether or not it is a fully paid share. The directors could also in their absolute discretion refuse to register any transfer of share on which the Company has a lien. They may also refuse to register a transfer unless:

- a) It is lodged at the office or such other place as the director may appoint, and is accompanied by the certificate of share to which it relates, and such other evidence, as the directors may reasonably require , to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer; and
- b) Such fee, as the directors may require, from time to time, is paid to the Company in respect thereof.

29. If the directors refuse to register a transfer, they shall, within sixty days after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the Company, send to the transferee notice of the refusal.

30. The registration of transfers of shares or any transfers of any class of shares may be suspended at such times and of such periods (not exceeding thirty days in any year) as the directors may determine.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

31. In case of the death of a member, the survivor or survivors where the deceased was a joint holder, and personal representative of the deceased where he was a sole holder or the only survivor of joint holders, shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to his interest in the shares; but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased member from any respect of any share which had been jointly held by him.

32. A person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member may, upon such evidence being produced as may properly be required by the directors and subject as hereinafter provided, either elect by notice to the Company to be registered as holder of the share, or elect to have some person nominated by him registered as the transferee in which case he shall execute the appropriate instrument of transfer. All the instruments relating to the right to transfer of share shall apply to any such notice or transfer as if it were an instrument of transfer executed by the member before the death or bankruptcy of the member had not occurred.

33. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the holder shall have the rights to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not, before being registered as the holder of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company.

34. Save as is hereinafter provided, no shares in the Company shall be transferred to any person other than to a person who is already a Member of the Company until the rights of pre-emption hereby conferred shall have been exhausted that is to say:

- a) Every Member or other person referred to in Article 33 hereof who intends to transfer shares (hereinafter called the "Vendor") shall give notice in writing to the Board of his intention to do so. Such notice shall constitute the Board of his agent for the sale of the said shares in one or more lots at the discretion of the Board to members of the Company at the price to be agreed upon by the vendor and the Board or in default of agreement, at a price which the auditor of the Company for the time being shall certify by writing under his hand, to be in his opinion, the fair selling value thereof as between a willing vendor and a willing purchaser.

- b) Upon the price being fixed as aforesaid, the Board shall forthwith give notice to all the Members of the Company of the number and price of the shares to be sold and invite each, one of them to state in writing within thirty days from the date of the said notice whether he is willing to purchase any, and if so, what maximum number of the said shares.
- c) At the expiration of the said thirty days, the Board shall allocate the said shares to or amongst the Member or Members who shall have expressed his or their willingness to purchase aforesaid shares, and (if more than one) so far as may be pro rata according to the number of shares already held by them respectively PROVIDED THAT no Member shall be obliged to take more than the said maximum number of shares so notified by him as aforesaid.
- d) Upon such allocation being made the vendor shall be bound on payment of the said price to transfer the shares to the purchaser or purchasers. if he makes default in so doing, the Chairman, for the time being, of directors of the Company or failing him one of the Directors duly nominated by resolution of the Board for that purpose shall forthwith be deemed to be the duly appointed attorney of the vendor with full power to execute complete and deliver in the name and on behalf of the vendor a transfer of the shares to the purchasing Members and the Board may receive and give a good discharge for the purchase-money on behalf of the vendor and enter the name of the purchaser in the register of Members as holder by transfer of the shares purchased by him.

35. In the event of the whole or any lot of share offered through the Board as provided by Article 34 thereof not being sold in the manner by that Article provided, the vendor may at any time within six calendar months after the expiration of the said period of thirty days after the date of the notice given by the Board to the Members, transfer the shares not sold to any person (subject to Article 28) at any price.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

36. If a call remains unpaid after it has become due and payable, the directors may give to the person from whom it is due not less than fourteen clear days` notice requiring payment of the amount unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued. The notice shall name the place where payment is to be made and shall state that if the notice is not complied with, the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.

37. If the notice is not complied with, any share in respect of which it was given may, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the directors to that effect and the forfeiture shall include all dividends or other moneys payable in respect of the forfeited shares and not paid before the forfeiture.

38. Subject to the provisions of this Act, a forfeited share may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the directors determine either to the person who was before the forfeiture the holder or to any other person, and at any time before a sale, re-allotment or other disposition, the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the directors think fit. Whether, for the purposes of its disposal, a forfeited share is to be transferred to any person, the directors may authorize some person to execute an instrument of transfer of the share in question.

39. A person, any of whose shares have been forfeited, shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares and shall surrender to the Company for cancellation, the certificate of the shares forfeited, but shall remain liable to the Company for all moneys which, at the date of forfeiture, were payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares, but his liability shall cease if and when the Company shall have received payment wholly or in part or enforce payment without any allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture for any consideration received on their disposal.

40. A statutory declaration by a director or the secretary that a share have been forfeited on a date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive evidence of the facts stated therein as the execution of an instrument of transfer, if necessary, constitute a good title to the share, and the person to whom the share is disposed of shall not be bound to seek the application of the consideration, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity of the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture or disposal of the share.

INCREASE OF CAPITAL

41. The Company may, from time to time, by ordinary resolution, increase the share capital by such sum to be divided into shares of such amount as the resolution shall prescribe.

42. The Company, by resolution of increasing capital, may direct that the new shares or any of them be offered in the instance either at par or at a premium or (subject to the provisions of the Act) at a discount to all holders for the time being of shares, of any class or classes, in proportion to the number of such shares held by them respectively or may make any other provisions as to the issue of the new shares. In the absence of any such direction or so far as the same not provide, the new shares shall be at the disposal of the Board which may otherwise allot, grant options over or otherwise dispose of them to such persons and on such terms as it shall think fit.

43. The new shares shall be subject to the same provisions with reference to the payment of calls, lien, transfer, transmission, forfeiture, and expropriation and otherwise as shares in the original share capital.

ALTERATION OF CAPITAL

44. The Company may by ordinary resolution: -

- a) Consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares;
- b) Subject to the provisions of section 65(1)(d) of the Act, subdivide its existing shares, or any of them, into shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the memorandum of association:

- c) Cancel shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have been taken into or agreed to be taken by any person and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled.
- d) Issue any preference, cumulative or redeemable shares.

45. Whenever as result of a consideration of shares, any Members would become entitled for fractions of a share, the directors may, on behalf of those members, sell the shares representing the fractions for the best price reasonably obtainable to any person (including subject to the provisions of this Act, the Company) and distribute the net proceeds of sale in due proportion among those members, and the directors may authorize some person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares to or in accordance with the directions of the purchaser. The transferee shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings in reference to the sale.

46. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Company may, by special resolution, reduce its share capital, any capital redemption reserve fund or any share premium account in any way.

GENERAL MEETINGS

47. The Company shall in each year hold a general meeting as its annual general meeting in addition to any other meetings in that year, and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it; and not more than fifteen months shall elapse between the date of one annual general meeting of the Company and that of the next.

48. All general meetings other than annual general meetings shall be called extra ordinary general meetings.

49. The directors may, whenever they think fit, call an extraordinary general meetings and extraordinary general meetings shall also be conveyed by such requisition, as provided by section 134 of the Act. If at any time, there are not within the territory sufficient directors to call the meetings, any director or any two members of the Company may call the meetings in the same manner as nearly as possible as those meetings which may be convened by the directors.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

50. Every general meeting shall be called by twenty-one clear days' notice in writing. The notice shall specify the time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business and, in the case of an annual general meeting, shall specify the meeting as such:

Provided that a meeting of the company may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed: -

- a) In the case of an annual general meeting, by all the members entitled to attend and vote thereat; and
- b) In the case of another meeting by a majority in number of the members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority together holding not less than 95 percent in nominal value of the shares giving that right.

51. Subject to the provisions of the articles and to any restrictions imposed on any shares, the notice shall be given to all the members, to all persons entitled to shares in the consequences of the death or bankruptcy of a member and to the directors and auditors. The accidental omissions to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at the hearing.

PROCEEDING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

52. All businesses shall be deemed special that is transacted at an extraordinary general meeting, and so all that is transacted at an annual general meeting, with the exception of declaring a dividend, the consideration of the accounts, and the report of the directors and auditors, the election of directors in the place of those retiring and the appointment of and the fixing of the remuneration of the auditors.

53. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business; two persons entitled to vote on the business to be transacted, each being a member or a proxy for a member or a duly authorized representative of a corporation shall be quorum.

54. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, or if during the course of a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place or to such other day such other time and place as the directors may determine.

55. The chairman, if any, of the board of directors or in his absence some other director nominated by the directors shall preside as chairman of the general meeting, but if neither the chairman nor such other director (if any) be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting and willing to act, the directors present shall elect one of their members to be chairman of the meeting and, if there is only one director present and willing to do so, he shall be chairman.

56. If at any meeting, no director is willing to act as chairman or if no director is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present shall choose a person who is willing to act as a chairman, to be a chairman.

57. A director shall, notwithstanding that he is not a member, be entitled to attend and speak at a general meeting and at any separate meetings of the holders of any class of shares in the Company.

58. The Chairman may, with the consent of any meetings at which a quorum is present and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting had the adjournment not taken place.

59. At any general meeting, a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of a show of hands) demanded:

- a) by the chairman or;
- b) by at least two members having the right to vote at the meeting; or
- c) by member or members representing not less than one-tenth of the total vote right of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting; or
- d) by member or members holding shares conferring a right to vote at the meeting being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than one-tenth of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right; and a demand by a person or a proxy for a member shall be the same as a demand by the Member.

60. Unless a poll is so demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be evidence of that fact.

61. The demand for a poll may, before the poll is taken, be withdrawn.

62. Except as provided in article 64, if a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner as the chairman directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

63. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any other vote he may have.

64. A poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken immediately. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken either immediately or at such time not being more than thirty days after the poll is demanded as the chairman of the meeting directs, and any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with pending the taking of the poll.

- c) Becomes of unsound mind; or
- d) Resigns his office by notice in writing to the Company; or
- e) Shall for more than six consecutive months have been absent without permission of the directors from meetings of the directors held during that period and the directors resolve that his office be vacated.

APPOINTMENT AND RETIREMENT OF DIRECTORS

93. The Company may, by ordinary resolution, appoint a person who is willing to act to be a director either to fill a vacancy or to be an additional director.

94. The directors may appoint a person who is willing to act to be a director, either to fill a vacancy or as an additional director, provided that the total number of directors does not exceed the number fixed by or in accordance with these articles. A director so appointed shall hold office only until the next following annual general meeting, and shall they be eligible for re-election.

95. The directors may, by ordinary resolution of which special notice has been given in accordance with section 144 of the Act, remove any director before the expiration of his period of office notwithstanding anything in these articles or in any agreement between the Company and the director. Such removal shall be without prejudice to any claim the director may have for damages for breach of any service contract with the Company.

96. The Company may, by ordinary resolution, appoint another person in place of a director removed from office under the immediately preceding regulation, and without prejudice to the powers of directors under article 94. A Company may, by ordinary resolution, appoint any person to be a director either to fill a vacancy or as an additional director.

PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

97. Subject to the provisions of the articles, the directors may regulate their meetings as they think fit. Questions arising at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In case of an equality of votes, the chairman shall have a second or casting vote. A director may, and the secretary at the request of a director shall call a meeting of the directors. It shall not be necessary to give notice of a meeting of directors to any director who is absent from Tanzania.

98. The quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of the directors may be fixed by the directors and unless so fixed shall be two.

99. The continuing directors may, notwithstanding any vacancy in their number, but if their number is reduced below the number fixed as the necessary quorum. The continuing directors or director may act only for the purpose of filling vacancies or of calling a general meeting.

100. The directors may appoint one of their members to be the chairman of the board of directors and determine the period of which he is to hold office. Unless he is unwilling to do, the directorso appointed shall preside at every meeting of directors as which he is present.

101. But if no such chairman is appointed, or if he is unwilling to preside, or if at any meeting, the chairman is not present within five minutes, after the time appointed for holding the same, directors present may choose one of their members to be chairman of the meeting.

102. The directors may delegate any of their powers to any committee consisting of one or more directors; any committee so formed shall, in the exercise of the powers so delegated, conform to any regulations. The proceedings of a committee with two or more members shall be governed by the articles regulating the proceedings of directors so far as they are capable of applying.

103. All facts done by a meeting of the directors or of a committee of directors or by a person acting as a director shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any such director, or that any of them were disqualified from holding office, or had vacated office, or were not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued to be a director and was entitled to vote.

104. A resolution in writing signed by all the directors entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the directors, or of a committee of directors, shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the directors or (as the case may be) a committee of directors duly convened and held, and may consist of several documents in the like each signed by one or more directors.

105. Save as otherwise provided in the articles, a director shall not vote at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors on any resolution concerning a matter in conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the Company. Subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Act, an interest of a person who is connected with a director shall be treated as an interest of the director.

106. A director shall not be counted in the quorum present at a meeting in relation to a resolution on which he is not entitled to vote.

107. The Company may, by ordinary resolution, suspend or relax to any extent, either generally or in respect of any particular matter, any provision of the articles prohibiting a director from voting at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors.

108. Where proposals are under consideration concerning the appointment of two or more directors to offices or employment with the Company or anybody corporate in which the Company is interested, the proposals may be divided and considered in relation to each director separately and (provided he is not for another reason precluded from voting) each of the directors concerned shall be entitled to vote and be counted in the quorum in respect of each resolution except resolution concerning his own appointment.

109. If a question arises at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to vote, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairman of the meeting and his ruling in relation to any director other than himself shall be final and conclusive.

MINUTES

110. The directors shall cause minutes to be made in books kept for the purpose;

THE SEAL

113. The seal shall only be used by the authority of the directors or of a committee of the directors authorized by the directors. The directors may be satisfied by its being done by or to the same person acting both as director and as or in the place of the secretary.

DIVIDENDS AND RESERVE

114. Subject to section 180 of the Act, the Company may, by ordinary resolution, declare dividend in accordance with the respective rights of the members, but no dividend shall exceed the amount recommended by the directors.

115. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the directors may from time to time pay to the members such interim dividends as appear to the directors to be justified by the profits of the Company available for distribution.

116. The directors may, before recommendation of any dividend, set aside out of profits of the Company such sums as they think proper as a reserve or reserves which shall, at the direction of the directors, be applicable for any purpose to which shall, at the direction of the directors, be applicable for any purpose to which the profits of the Company may be properly applied, and pending such application may, at the like discretion, either be employed in the business of the Company or be invested in such investments (other than shares of the Company as the directors may from time to time think fit). The directors may also without placing the same to reserve carry forward and profits which they may think prudent not to divide.

117. Except as otherwise by the rights attached to shares, all dividends shall be declared and paid according to the amounts paid on the shares in respect of which the dividends are paid. All dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid; but if any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend accordingly.

118. Any general meeting declaring a dividend may, upon the recommendation of the directors, direct payment on such dividend wholly or partly by the distribution of assets and, where any difficulty arises in regard to the distribution, the directors may settle the same, and in particular may issue fractional certificates and fix the value or distribution of any assets and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any members upon the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of members, and may vest any assets in trustees.

119. Any dividend, interest or to other moneys payable in cash in respect of shares may be paid by cheque sent through the post to the registered address of the holders, to the registered address of that one of the joint holders who is first named in the register of members or to such person and to such address as the holder or joint holders may in writing direct. Any one of two or more joint holders may give effectual receipts for any dividends or other moneys payable in respect of the shares held by them as joint holders.

120. No dividend or other moneys payable in respect of a share shall bear interest against the Company unless otherwise provided by the rights attached to the share.

121. No dividend which has remained unclaimed for twelve years from the date when it became due for payment shall, if the directors so resolve, be forfeited and cease to remain owing by the Company.

ACCOUNTS

122. The directors shall cause proper books of account to be kept with respect to: -

- a) All sums of money received and expended by the Company and the matters in respect of which the receipt and expenditure takes place.
- b) All sales and purchases of goods by the Company; and
- c) The assets and liabilities of the Company.

proper books shall not be deemed to be kept if there are not kept such books of account as are necessary to give a true and fair view of the state of the Company's affairs and to explain its transactions.

123. The books of account shall be kept at the registered office of the Company, or subject to section 151(4) of the Act, at such other place or places as the directors may think fit, and shall always be open to the inspection of the directors.

124. No member shall (as such) have any right of inspecting any accounting records or other books or documents of the Company except as conferred by statute or authorized by the directors or by ordinary resolution of the Company.

125. The directors shall, in accordance with section 153, 155 and 159 of the Act, cause to be prepared and to be laid before the Company in general meeting such profit and loss accounts balance sheets, cash flow statements, group accounts (if any) and reports as are referred to in those sections.
