“I. A. B of In consideration of the sum of Tshs paid to me by C.D. of hereinafter called “(the said transferee)” do hereby transfer to the said transferee the share (or shares) numbered in the undertaking called JIETAI POULTRY (TANZANIA) LIMITED to hold unto the said transferee, subject to the several conditions on which I hold the same; and I, the said transferee, do hereby agree to take the said share (or shares) subject to the conditions aforesaid”

As witness our hands the day of the year

Witness to the Signatures etc.

21. Save as is hereinafter provide, the Directors may in their absolute discretion decline to register any transfer of shares to a person of whom they do not approve being already member of the Company and may also decline to register any transfer of shares on which the company has a lien. The Directors may also suspend the registration of transfers during the period of fourteen days immediately preceding the Annual General Meeting in each year. The Directors may also decline to recognize any instruments of transfer unless:

- (a) a fee not exceeding two hundred thousand shillings is paid to the company in respect thereof, and
 - (b) The instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates and such other evidence as the Directors may reasonably require showing the right of the transferor to make the transfer.
22. If the Directors refuse to register a transfer of any shares, they shall within two months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the company send to the transferee notice of the refusal.
23. The legal personal representative of a deceased holder of a share shall be the only person recognized by the Company as having any title to the share and in case of a share registered in the names of two or more holders the survivors or survivor or the legal personal representative of the survivor shall be the only person recognized by the company as having any title to the share.
24. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member shall upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be properly required by the Directors, have the right, either to be registered as a member in respect of the share or instead of being registered himself, to make such transfer of the shares as the deceased or bankrupt person could have made, but the Directors shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the share by the deceased or bankrupt person before the death or bankruptcy. Any person so becoming entitled to a share shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled as if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the company.
25. Save as is hereinbefore provided, no shares in the company shall be transferred otherwise than to a person who is already a member of the company until the rights of pre-emption hereby conferred shall have been exhausted that is to say:

(a) Every member or other person referred to in Article 23 who intends to transfer shares (hereinafter called the Vendor") shall give notice in writing to the Board of his intention to do so. Such notice shall constitute the Board his agent for the sale of the said shares in one or more lots at the discretion of the Board to members of the company at a price to be agreed upon by the Vendor and the Board or in default of agreement at a price which the Auditor of the company for the time being shall certify by writing under his hand to be, in his opinion, the fair selling value thereof as between a willing Vendor and a willing Purchaser.

(b) Upon the price being fixed as aforesaid they shall forthwith give notice to all the members of the company of the number and price of the shares to be sold and invite each of them to state in writing within thirty days from the date of the said notice whether he is willing to purchase any and, if so, what maximum number of the said shares

(c) At the expiration of the said thirty days the Board shall allocate the said shares to or amongst the members who shall have expressed his or their willingness to purchase as aforesaid, and (if more than one) so far as may be pro-rata according to the number of shares already held by them respectively PROVIDED THAT no member shall be obliged to take more than the said maximum number of shares so notified by him as aforesaid.

(d) Upon such allocation being made the vendor shall be bound on payment of the said price to transfer the shares to the purchaser or purchasers. If he makes default in so doing the Chairman for the time being of the Directors of the company or failing him one of the Directors duly nominated by resolution of the Board for that purpose shall forthwith be deemed to be the duly appointed attorney of the Vendor with full power to execute complete and deliver in the name and on behalf of the vendor a transfer of the shares to the purchasing member and the Board may receive and give a good discharge for the purchase money on behalf of the vendor and enter the name of the purchaser in the register of holder by transfer of the shares purchased by him.

- (e) In the event of the whole or any lot of shares offered through the Board as provided by this Article not being sold in the manner by that article provided, the vendor may at any time within six calendar months after the expiration of the said period of thirty days after the date of the notice given by the Board to the members, transfer the shares not so sold to any person (subject to Article 20) and at any price.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

- 26. If a member fails to pay any call or installment of a call on the day appointed for payment thereof, the Directors may at any time thereafter during such time as any part of such call or installment as is unpaid serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or installment is unpaid together with any interest which may have accrued.
- 27. The notice shall name a further day (not earlier than the expiration of fourteen days from the date of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made and shall state that in the event of non-payment at or before, the time appointed the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.
- 28. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect; and such forfeitures shall extend to any share so forfeited not actually paid at the date of the said notice.
- 29. A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the Directors think fit, and at any time before a sale or disposition the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the Directors think fit.
- 30. A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares but shall, the forfeiture notwithstanding, remain liable to pay to the company call moneys which, at the date of the forfeiture, were presently payable by him to the company in respect of the shares, but his liability shall cease if and when the company receives payment in full of the nominal amount of the shares.

31. A statutory declaration in writing that the declaring is a Director of the company, and that a share in the company has been duly forfeited or expropriated on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share. The company may receive the consideration if any, given for the share on any sale or disposition thereof and may execute a transfer of the share in favor of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of and he shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share, and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture or expropriation, sale or disposal of the share.
32. The provisions of these articles as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, become payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the amount of the shares, or by way of premium as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

CONVERSION OF SHARES INTO STOCK

33. The Company may by ordinary resolution convert any paid-up into stock and reconvert any stock into paid-up shares of any denomination.
34. The holders of stock may transfer the same, or any part thereof, in the same manner, and subject to the same regulations, as and subject to which, the shares from which the stock arose might previously to conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances admit; but the Director may from time to time fix the minimum account of stock transferable, and restrict or forbid the transfer of fractions of the minimum, but the minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.
35. The holder of stock shall, according to the amount of the stock held by them, have the same right, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the Company and other matter as if they held the shares from which the stock arose, but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the Company) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage.

36. Such of the regulations of the Company as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock, and the words "share-holder" therein shall include "stock" and "stock-holder".

ALTERATIONAL OF CAPITAL

37. The Company may from time to time by special resolution increase the share of such amount as the resolution shall prescribe.
38. Subject to any direction to the contrary that may be given by the resolution sanctioning the increase of share capital, all new shares shall, before issue, be offered to such persons as at the date of the offer are entitled to receive notice from the Company of general meetings in proportion as nearly as the circumstances admit, to the amount of the existing shares to which they are entitled. The offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares offered, and limited to a time within which the offer if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined, and after the expiration of that time, or on receipt of an intimation from the person to whom the offer is made that he declines to accept the shares offered, the Directors may dispose of the same in such manner as they think most beneficial to the think most benefit to the Company. The Directors may likewise so dispose of any new shares which (by reason of the ratio which the new shares bear to shares held by persons entitled to an offer of new shares) cannot, in the opinion of the Directors, be conveniently offered under is Article.
39. The new shares shall be subject to the same provision with reference to the payment of calls, lien, transfer, transmission, and forfeiture and otherwise as the shares in the original share capital.
40. The Company may by ordinary resolution:
- (a) Consolidate and divide all or any its shares capital into shares of a larger amount than its existing shares.
 - (b) Sub-divide its existing shares, or any of them into shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the Memorandum and Association, subject, nevertheless, to the relevant provision of company Act.
 - (c) Cancel any shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person.

41. The Company may, by special resolution, reduce its shares capital in any manner and with, and subject to, any incident authorized, and consent required, by law.

GENERAL MEETINGS

42. A general meeting shall be held once in every calendar year at such time (not being more than fifteen months after the holding of the last preceding general meeting) and place as may be determined by the Directors. In default of a general meeting so held, a general meeting may be convened by any one member in the same manners possible as that in which meetings are to be convened by the Directors.
43. All general meetings other than the Annual General Meeting shall be called extraordinary general meetings.
44. The Directors may, whenever they think fit, convene extraordinary general meetings or, in default, an extraordinary general meeting may be convened as provided by relevant Sections of the Companies Act.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

45. Subject to the provisions of Companies Act relating to special resolutions, seven days' notice at the least (exclusive of the day on which the notice is served or deemed to be served, but inclusive of the day for which notice is given) specifying the space, the day and the hour of meeting and, in case of special business, the general nature of that business shall be given in the manner hereinafter mentioned; or in such other manner, if any, as may be prescribed by the Company in general meeting, to such persons as are, under the regulations of the Company, entitled to receive such notice from the Company; but with the consent of all the members entitled to received notice of some particular meeting, that meeting may be convened by such shorter notice and in such manner as those members may think fit.
46. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by any member shall not invalidate the proceedings at any such meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

47. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an extraordinary meeting and all that is transacted at the Annual general Meeting, with the exception of sanctioning a dividend, the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets and ordinary report of the Directors and Auditors, the election of Directors and other officers in place of those retiring by rotation and the appointment and fixing of the remuneration of the Auditors.
48. No business shall be transacted at any general Meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the when the meeting proceeds to business save as herein otherwise provided four-member present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum.
49. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requiring of a member or members, shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, and, if at the adjourned meeting two members present either in personal or by proxy shall be a quorum.
50. The Chairman, if any, of the Board of Director shall preside as Chairman at every general meeting of the Company.
51. If there is no such Chairman, or if at any meeting he is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, or is unwilling to act as Chairman, the Directors present shall elect one of their number to be the Chairman of the meeting, or if no Director be present shall choose one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting.
52. The chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so, directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourn meeting other than that business unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When the meeting is adjourned for ten days or more notice of the adjourned meeting shall give as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
53. At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless a poll is demanded (before or on the declaration of - the show of hands) by at least one member who is present in person or by proxy entitled to vote, if such member, or members, together hold not less than fifteen per centum (15%) of the issued shares of the Company, and unless a poll has been so demanded a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority or lost and an entry to that effect made in the minutes shall be conclusive evidence of the fact. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

54. If a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner as the Chairman direct, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
 55. In Case of an equality of votes whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the Chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to a casting or second vote.
 56. A poll demanded on the election of a Chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the Chairman directs.
 57. An ordinary resolution of the Company determined on without any general meeting and evidenced by writing under the hands of all the Directors or a sole Director and of the Company holding in the aggregate three-fourths of

The issued shares of the company shall be as valid and effectual as an ordinary resolution duly passed at a general meeting of the company.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

58. On a show of hands every member present in person shall have one vote. On a poll every member shall have one vote for each share of which he is the holder. On a poll votes may be given personally or by proxy.
59. In the case of joint holders, the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of votes of the other joint holders and for that purpose, seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the register of members.
60. No member of unsound mind or in respect of whom an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction in lunacy, may vote, whether on a show of hands or
