In these Articles, unless the context otherwise requires, expressions defined in the Companies Act or any statutory modification thereof in force at the date of which these articles become binding on the Company, shall have the meaning so defined; and words importing the singular shall include the plural, and vice versa, and words importing the masculine gender shall include females, and words importing persons shall include bodies corporate;

“The Board” means ‘the Board of Directors of MOUNT SOWOKO VILLAGE HOUSE AND RESORT LIMITED

“The Act” means the Companies Act, Act No. 12 of 2002

4. Any branch or kind of business or relationship with external world which the Company is either expressly or by implication authorised to undertake may be undertaken by the directors at such time or times as they shall think fit
5. The registered office of the Company shall be at such place as the directors shall from time to time appoint

CAPITAL

6. The capital of the Company is Tanzania Shillings One Billion Three Hundred Million (1,300,000,000) only divided into Ten Thousand (10,000) shares of Tanzanian Shillings One Hundred Thirty Thousand (130,000) only.

SHARES

7. Subject to any requirement that may be mandatory under the Act or these Articles, if any, the company may, by a resolution passed by the General Meeting, issue its unissued shares to such person/s and on such terms as the Board may think fit. Without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of any existing shares or class of shares, any share in the capital of the Company may be issued with such preferred, deferred or other special rights or such restrictions, whether in regard to dividend, voting, return of capital or otherwise as the Company may from time to time by ordinary resolution determine.
8. Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act (Cap 212), any preference shares may, with the sanction of an ordinary resolution, be issued on the terms that they are, or at the option of the Company are liable to be redeemed on such terms and in such manner as the Company before the issue of the shares may by Special Resolution determine.
9. The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights shall unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class, be deemed not to be varied by the creation or issued of further shares ranking pari-passu therewith.
10. If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of the three fourths of the issued shares of that class, or with the sanction of an extraordinary resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of that class. To every such separate meeting the provisions of these articles relating to general meetings shall mutatis mutandis apply, but so that the necessary quorum shall be two persons at least holding or representing by proxy one third of the issued shares of the class and that any holder of shares of the class present in person or by proxy may demand a poll.
11. Every person whose name is entered as member in the register of members shall, without payment, be entitled to one certificate under the common seal of the Company (if any is available) specifying the share or shares held by him and the amount paid up thereon, provided that in respect of a share or shares held jointly by several persons the Company shall be bound to issue more than one certificate, and delivery of certificate of a share to one of several jointly holders shall be sufficient delivery to all.
12. If a share certificate is defaced, lost, or destroyed, it may be renewed on payment of such fee, if any, not exceeding five thousand shillings, and on such terms, if any, as to evidence and indemnity as the directors think fit.

LIEN

13. The Company shall have a lien on every share for all moneys (whether present payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of that share, and the Company shall also have a lien on all shares standing registered in the name of a single person for all moneys presently payable by him or his estate to the Company; but the directors may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this article. The Company's lien, if any on a share shall extend to all dividends payable thereon.

14. The Company may sell, in such manner as the directors think fit, any shares on which the Company has a lien, but no sale shall be made unless some sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable, nor until the expiration of fourteen days after a notice in writing, stating and demanding payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, has been given to the registered holder for the time being of the share, or the person entitled by reason of his death or bankruptcy to the share.
15. For giving effect to any such sale the directors may authorise some person to transfer the share sold to the purchaser thereof. The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares comprised in any such transfer and he shall not be found to see to the application of the purchaser money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.
16. The proceeds of sale shall be applied in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, and the residue shall be held (subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares prior to the sale) by the Company on behalf of the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale.

CALLS ON SHARES

17. The directors may from time to time make calls upon the members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares, and each member shall (subject to receiving at least fourteen days notice specifying the time or times of payment) pay to the Company at the time or times of specified the amount called in his shares. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the directors authorising the call was passed.
18. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect hereof.
19. If sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the date appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest upon the sum at bank rate prevailing from time to time from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment, but the directors shall be at liberty waive payment of the interest wholly or in part.
20. The provisions of these articles as to the liability of joint holders and as to payment of interest shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of share, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the amount of the share, or by way of premium, as if the same has become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
21. The directors may make arrangements on the issue of shares for a difference between the holders in the amount of calls to be paid and in the times of payment.

22. The directors may, if they think fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him; and upon all or any of the moneys so advanced may (until the same would, but for such advance, become presently payable) pay interest at such rate (not exceeding, without the sanction of any Company in general meeting, the bank rate existing from time as may be agreed upon between the member paying the sum in advance and the directors.

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION

23. Subject to the provisions hereinafter contained shares in the Company shall be transferable by written instrument signed by both the transferor and transferee. The Transfer shall be complete when the Company registers transfer of the respective shares. Unless otherwise determined by the Board, no special format of document will be needed for purposes of the company communicating registration or refusal of registration of transfer. A normal letter communicating the same shall suffice.
24. The Board may in its absolute discretion and without assigning any reason therefor decline to register any transfer of shares to any person whom it does not approve, such a person not being already a member of the Company and may also decline to register any transfer of shares on which the Company has a lien. The Board shall be required to assign strong reasons to refuse transfer of shares between existing members.
25. The personal representatives of a deceased sole holder of share shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to the share. In the case of share registers in the names of two or more holders, the survivors or survivor, or the personal representatives of the deceased survivor, shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to the share.
26. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member shall, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be required by the directors, have the right, either to be registered as a member in respect of the share or, instead of being registered himself, to make such transfer of share as the deceased or bankrupt person could have made; but the directors shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of transfer of the share by the deceased or bankrupt person before the death or bankruptcy;
27. Unless it is agreed by the transferor and transferee and stipulated in the transfer instrument and that agreement is approved in writing by the company, every share which is transferred or transmitted or in any manner changes hands shall be so transferred and or transmitted and or changes hands with the rights and obligations on the part of the new holder as it was or would have been as the case may be if it remained in the in the hands of the previous holder;

FORFEITURE OF SHARES AND EXPROPRIATION OF SMALL HOLDINGS

28. If a member fails to pay any call or installment of a call, on the day appointed for payment thereof, the directors may at any time thereafter during such time as any part of such call or installment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or installment as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued.

29. The notice shall name a further day (not earlier than the expiration of fourteen days from the date of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made, and shall state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time appointed the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.
30. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the directors to that effect and such forfeiture shall extend to any dividends in respect of any share so forfeited not actually paid at the date of the said notice.
31. A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the directors think fit, and at any time before a sale or disposition the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the directors think fit.
32. A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall notwithstanding, remain liable to pay to the Company all moneys which, at the date of the forfeiture, were presently payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares, but his liability shall cease if and when the Company receive payment in the full of the nominal amount of the shares.
33. A statutory declaration in writing that declarant is a director of the Company, and that a share in the Company has been duly forfeited or expropriated on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share. The Company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share on any sale or disposition thereof and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of and he shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share, and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase-money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture or expropriation, sale or disposal of the share.
34. The provisions of these articles as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by terms of issue of share, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the amount of the share, or by way of premium, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

ALTERATION OF CAPITAL

35. The Company may, from time to time by ordinary resolution increase the share capital by such sum, to be divided into shares of such amount, as the resolution shall prescribe.
36. The new shares shall be subject to the same provisions with reference to payment of calls, lien, transfer, transmission, forfeiture, expropriation, and otherwise as the shares in the original share capital.
37. The Company may by ordinary resolution:-

- (a) Consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares;
- (b) Sub-divide its existing shares, or any of them, into shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the memorandum of association, subject, nevertheless, to the provisions of the Companies Act.
- (c) Cancel any shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person and may by special resolution;
- (d) Reduce its share capital and any capital redemption reserve fund in any manner and with, and subject to, any incident authorised, and consent, required, by law.

GENERAL MEETINGS

- 38. The Company shall in each year hold a general meeting as its annual general meeting in addition to any other meetings in that year, and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it, and not more than fifteen months shall elapse between the date of an annual general meeting and that of the next. The annual general meeting shall be held at such time and at such place as the directors shall appoint.
- 39. All general meeting other than the annual general meeting shall be called extraordinary general meetings.
- 40. The directors may, whenever they think fit, convene an extraordinary general meeting. If at any time there are not within the united republic of Tanzania sufficient directors capable of acting to form a quorum, any director or any one member of the Company may convene an extraordinary general meeting in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings are convened by the directors.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 41. An annual general meeting and a meeting called for the passing of special resolution shall be called by twenty-one days' notice in writing at the least, and all other meetings by fourteen days' notice in writing at least. Such notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given and shall specify the place, the day, and the hour of meeting and, in case of special business, the general nature of the business shall be given in the manner hereinafter mentioned, or in such other manner, if any, as may be prescribed by Company in general meeting to such persons as are, under these articles, entitled to receive such notices from the Company; but with the consent of all the members entitled to receive notice of some particular meeting, that meeting may be convened by such shorter notice and in such manner as those members may think fit.
- 42. An omission to give notice to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any member shall not in itself invalidate the proceedings at any meetings.
- 43. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an extraordinary general meeting, and all that is transacted at an annual general meeting, with the exception of sanctioning a dividend, the consideration of the accounts and balance sheet and the ordinary report of the directors and auditors, the election of directors in the place of those retiring by rotation, and the appointment and fixing of the remuneration of the directors.

44. Unless otherwise provided herein or decided by the company, no business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. Save as herein otherwise provided, two shareholders together holding more than 50% of the current shares issued (provided the individuals who attend are different), shall be a quorum.
45. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, and, if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting the meeting shall be dissolved.
46. The chairman of the board of directors at the time shall preside as chairman at both general meetings and board meetings of the Company. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Articles, such a chairman as such shall not have a casting vote in case of equality of votes. In case a motion is equally supported, no decision shall be taken until when the majority supporting the same is obtained. The secretary of the Board shall equally act as secretary of the General meeting and of the company in general.
47. If there is no such chairman, or if at any meeting he is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting or is unwilling to act as chairman, the members present shall choose some one of their number to be chairman. There is nothing bad for a person who is current secretary to act as chairman in a particular meeting provided in that meeting he shall not act as Secretary.
48. Any ordinary resolution of the Company determined on without any general meeting and evidenced by writing under the hands of all the directors or a sole director and of members of the Company holding three-fourths of the issued shares of the Company shall be as valid and effectual as an ordinary resolution duly passed at a general meeting of the Company duly convened and held.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

49. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these Articles, each share shall carry one vote and decisions of the company shall be decisions of the majority basing on the number of votes.
50. In the case of joint holders the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders; and for this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the register of member.
51. A member of unsound mind, or in respect of whom an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction in lunacy, may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his committee, guardian, a curator bonis, or other person in the nature of a committee or curator bonis appointed by that court, and any such committee, curator bonis, or other person may, on a poll, vote by proxy.

52. No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered, and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting whose decision shall be final and conclusive.
53. On a poll votes may be given either personally or by proxy.
54. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or his attorney duly authorised in writing, or if the appointor is a corporation, either under the common seal, or under the hand of an officer or attorney so authorised. A member shall not be entitled to appoint more than one proxy to attend on the same occasion nor may a proxy vote except on a poll.

60. The remuneration of the directors shall from time to time be determined by the Company in general meeting.
61. In addition to their usual remuneration the directors shall also be paid such traveling, hotel and other expenses as may reasonably be incurred by them in the exercise of their duties, including any such expenses incurred in connection with their attendance at meetings of directors, as the board may determine.
62. Any director may, in writing, appoint any person, who is approved by the majority of the directors, to be his alternate to act in his place at any meeting of the directors to which he is unable to be present.
63. Unless and until otherwise decided by the company in its general meeting:
- (a) a director and alternate director shall not require a share qualification
 - (b) The quorum of the Board shall be at least 51% of the current number of directors;
 - (c) The decision of the Board shall be a decision of the members of the Board of Directors attending;
 - (d) The decision of the Board can be altered, reversed and or set aside by the General Meeting whenever it sees fit so to do
 - (e) The Directors shall enjoy powers of appointment of the secretary of the company and alteration of the same any time it is needed. Until that is done, the Secretary of the Board shall be AUGUSTINE THADDEUS MINJA.
64. The Company in any of its general meetings may at any time remove any director, and may, whether after removing one or not, appoint another person in his stead. A vacancy occurring in the board of directors may be filled up by the Company by an ordinary resolution of the general meeting.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF DIRECTORS

65. The business of the Company shall be managed by the directors as a board of directors. The board may exercise all such powers of the Company as are not, by the Companies Act (Cap. 212) or any statutory modification thereof, for the time being in force, or by these articles, required to be exercised only by the Company in general meeting, subject nevertheless to the provisions of these articles and of the said Act, and the exercise of such powers shall be subject to control of any general meeting of the Company specially convened for the purpose, but no resolution of the Company in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the directors which would have been valid if that resolution had not been passed.
66. The directors may from time to time appoint any person to the office of managing director or manager or secretary for such term and at such remuneration (whether by way of salary, or commission, or participation in profits, or partly in one way and partially in another) as they may think fit. Provided that unless it is hereinafter otherwise decided by the company in any general meeting, it shall not be mandatory that holder of any such positions be a member or director of the company.

67. The directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow money, and to mortgage or charge its undertaking, property, uncalled capital, or any part thereof, and to issue debentures, debenture stock, and other securities whether outright or as security for any debt liability or obligation of the Company or of any third party.
68. The directors shall duly comply with the provisions of the Companies Act (Cap. 212) or any statutory modification thereof for the time being in force, and particular with the provisions in regard to registration of the particulars of mortgages and charges affecting the property of the Company, or created by it, and to keeping a register of the directors and secretaries, and to sending to the Registrar of Companies an annual list of members, and a summary of particulars relating thereto, and notice of any consolidation or increase of share capital, or conversion of shares into stock, and copies of special and extraordinary resolutions, and a copy of the register of directors and notification of any changes therein.

74. The continuing directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in the body.
75. The Chairperson of the Board shall be Mr. AUGUSTINE THADDEUS MINJA.
76. The Chairman of the Board shall preside as chairman of a Board meeting. In case he is absent, the directors present may choose one of the members to be chairperson of their meeting.
77. The directors may delegate any of their powers to committees consisting of such members of their body as they think fit; any committee so formed shall in the exercise of the powers so delegate conform to any regulation that may be imposed on them by the directors.
78. A committee may elect a chairman of their meeting; if no such chairman is elected, or if at any meeting the chairman is not present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, the members present may choose any of their number to be chairman of the meeting.
79. A committee may meet and adjourn as they think proper. Questions arising at any meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present, and in the case if an equality of votes the chairman shall have a second or casting vote.
80. All acts done by any meeting of the directors or of a committee of directors, or any person acting as a director, shall, notwithstanding that it afterwards discovered that there was some effect in the appointment of any such directors or persons acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed to be a director.
81. A resolution determined on without any meeting of directors and evidenced by writing under the hands of all directors, or sole director, or of all members of a committee, or of sole member of a committee, shall be as valid and effectual as a resolution duly passed at meeting of the directors or of such committee.

THE SEAL

82. The Board shall provide for the safe custody of the seal, which shall only be used by the authority of the directors or of a committee of the directors or of a committee of the directors authorised by the directors in that behalf, and every instrument to which the Seal Secretary or by a second director or by some other person appointed by the directors for the purpose but so that the directors may be resolution determine, either generally or in any particular case, that the signature of any director may be affixed by some mechanical means to be specified in such resolution, provided that the use of such means is by such resolution restricted to certificates which have first been approved for sealing by the Auditors, Transfer Auditors, Transfer Agents or Bankers of the Company in writing

DIVIDENDS AND RESERVE

83. The Company in general meeting may declare dividends, but no dividend shall exceed the amount recommended by the Board of directors.
84. The directors may from time to time pay to the members such interim dividends as appear to the directors to be justified by the profits of the Company.
85. Unless otherwise determined by the company, dividends shall not be paid otherwise than out of profits.
86. Subject to the rights of persons, if any, entitled to shares with special rights as to dividends, all dividends shall be declared and paid according to the amounts paid on the shares, but if and so long as nothing is paid up on any of shares in the Company dividends may be declared and paid according to the amount of the shares. No amount paid on a share in advance of call shall, while carrying interest, be treated for purpose of this article as paid on the share.
87. The directors may, before recommending and dividend, set aside out of the profits of the Company such sums as they think proper as a reserve or reserves which shall, at the discretion of the directors, be applicable for meeting contingencies, or for equalising dividends, or for any other purpose to which the profits of the Company may be properly applied, and pending such application may, at the like discretion, either be employed in the business of the Company or be invested in such investments (other than shares of the Company) as the directors may from time to time think fit.
88. If several persons are registered as joint holders of any share any one of them may give effectual receipts for any dividends payable on the share.
89. No dividend shall bear interest against the Company, unless otherwise determined by the company
