The second one is through TAZARA wagon from Dar es Salaam to Matambwe Halt which is the headquarters of the Selous Game Reserve. The third means of transport is by air, there are 47 airstrips in Selous Game Reserve by which 27 are all weather (permanent) airstrips and the nearest airstrip is Mbuyu which is almost 6 km from the proposed Lake Manze Tourist Camp site. The airstrip will be fundamental for the operations of the camp and the Mbuyu airstrip seems the most appropriate to be utilized. | Year: 2005 Location: Selous Game Reserve Clients: Convolution Ideas Main project features: Construction Positions held: Team Leader |

NSSF therefore held discussion with the government and signed an agreement to undertake the Kigamboni bridge project on a "Build Operate and Transfer" (BOT) basis. It is the expectation of NSSF that construction of the bridge would likely promote Kigamboni and attract foreign investments, leading to development of export oriented industries and tourism. NSSF will also encourage investment in housing. | Clients: NSSF Main project features: Construction Positions held: Environmental Expert |
