3.0 PRIVATE COMPANY STATUS AND LIABILITY OF MEMBERS:

3.1 The Company is a Private Company Limited by shares, and accordingly:

- (a) no invitation shall be issued to the public to subscribe for any shares or debentures of the Company;
- (b) The Company shall not have power to issue share warrants to bearer.
- (c) the number of the Members, not including persons who are in the employment of the Company is limited to fifty (50) Members:

Provided that, for the purpose of this provision, where two or more persons hold one or more shares in the Company jointly, they shall be treated as a single Member; and

- (d) the right to transfer the shares of the Company is restricted in the manner hereinafter provided.

3.2 The liability of the members is limited to the amount, if any, unpaid on the shares held by them.

4.0 SHARE CAPITAL

The original share capital of the Company is Tshs. 10,000,000/= divided into 100,000/= each.

5.0 Without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holder of any shares or class shares already issued (which special rights shall not be modified, affected, varied, extended or surrendered except with the consent or sanction as provided for in the next following Articles) any share in the Company capital for the time being un-issued may be issued with such preferential, deferred, qualified or special rights, privileges, conditions or such restrictions, whether in regard to dividend, return of capital or otherwise as the Company may from time to time by Ordinary Resolution direct or if no such direction is given as the Directors determine.

6.0 MODIFICATION RIGHTS

6.1 All rights, privileges, conditions or restrictions for the time being attached or belonging to any class of shares for the time being forming part of the capital of the Company may from time be modified, affected, varied, extended, surrendered in any manner with the consent in writing of the holders of not less than three-fourths of the issued shares of that class or with the sanction of an Extra Ordinary Resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the members of that class. To any such General Meeting, the provisions of these articles as to general meetings of the company shall mutatis mutandis apply but except that the necessary quorum shall be members of the class holding or representing by proxy one third of the capital or credited as paid on the issued shares of that class.

6.2 The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights shall unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issues of the shares of that class, be deemed not to be varied by the creation or issued of further shares ranking "Pari passu" therewith.

7.0 SHARES:

Subject to the provision of these Articles, the un-issued shares of the Company, shall be at disposal of the Board, which may allot, grant options over or otherwise dispose of them to such persons, at such times and for such consideration and upon such terms and conditions as the Board may determine. No shares shall be issued at a discount except in accordance with section 60 of the Act.

8.0 PREFERENCE SHARES:

Subject to the provisions of Section 61 of the Act, any preference shares may, with the sanction of an Ordinary Resolution, be issued on the terms that they are, or at the option of the company are liable, to be redeemed on such terms and in such manner as the Company before the issue of the shares may by Special Resolution determine.

9.0 ALLOTMENT OF SHARES:

9.1 Subject to the provisions of these Articles relating to new shares, the shares shall be at the disposal of the Directors and they may (subject to the provisions of the Act) allot, grant option over or otherwise dispose of them to such persons, on such terms and conditions and at such times as they think fit, but no share shall be issued at a discount, except in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

9.2 The company may exercise the powers of paying commissions conferred by Section 56 of the Act provided that the rate or the amount of commission paid or agreed to be paid and the number of shares which persons have agreed for commission to subscribe absolutely shall be disclosed in the manner required by the said section and the rate of the commission shall not exceed the rate of ten (10) per centum of the price at which the shares, in respect whereof the same is paid, are issued or an amount actual to ten (10) per cent of such price (as the case may be). Such commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash or the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly in one way and partly in the other. The Company may also on any issue of shares pay such brokerage as may be lawful.

9.3 If any shares of the Company, are issued for purposes of raising money for defray the expenses of the construction of any works or buildings or the provision of any plant or equipment which cannot be made profitable for a lengthened period, the Company may pay interest on so much of share capital as is for the time being paid up and may charge the same to capital as part of the cost of construction of the works or buildings or the provision of plant.

9.4 Except as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction or as by required by law, no person shall be recognized by the Company as holding any share upon any trust and the Company shall not be bound by or compelled in any way to recognize (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share or any interest in any fractional part of a share or (except only as by these Articles or by law otherwise provided) any other rights in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder.

10.0 SHARE CERTIFICATES:

10.1 Every person whose name is entered, as a member in the register of members shall with payment be entitled to one certificate for all his shares under the Common Seal of the Company specifying the share or shares held by him and the amount paid thereon.

10.2 Every Share Certificate must specify number of shares and class in which the certificate is issued. The nominal value of those shares and any distinguishing numbers assigned to them. Every certificate must be issued under the Company Seal, which may be affixed on it or be otherwise executed in accordance with the Act or be issued in such a manner as the directors may approve

10.3 The Company shall be entitled to treat the person whose name appears upon the register in respect of any shares as the absolute owner thereof and shall not be under obligation to recognize any trust or equity claim to or partial interest in such shares whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof.

10.4 REPLACEMENT OF SHARE CERTIFICATES:

If a share certificate is defaced, lost, stolen or destroyed it may be renewed on payment of such fee if any, not exceeding one thousand (1000/-) shillings on such terms, if any, and as to evidence and indemnity as the Directors think fit.

11.0 LIEN:

11.1 The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share (other than fully paid shares) standing registered in the name of a single person for all the debts and liabilities of such member or his or his estate to the Company, and whether the same shall have been incurred before or after notice to the Company of any equitable or other interest of any person other than such Member, and whether the time for the payment or discharge of the same shall have actually arrived or not, and notwithstanding that the same are joint debts or liabilities of such member or his estate and any other person whether a member or not.

11.2 The Company's lien (if any) on a share shall extend to any amounts including all dividends payable thereon. But the Board may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provision of this article. Unless otherwise agreed, the registration of a transfer of shares shall not operate as a waiver of the Company lien, if any, on such shares.

11.3 The Company may sell, in such manner as the Board may think fit, any share on which the Company has a lien, but no sale shall be made unless some sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable nor until the expiration of fourteen days after notice in writing stating and demanding payment of the sum presently payable and giving notice of the intention to sell in default shall have been given to the holder for the time being of the share to the person entitled by reason of his death or bankruptcy to the share.

11.4 The net proceeds of the sale shall be applied in or towards payments or satisfaction of the debt or liability in respect whereof the lien exists so far as the same is presently payable and any residue shall (subject to a like lien for debts or liabilities not presently payable as existed upon the shares prior to sale) be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the time of sale. For giving effect to any such sale, the Board may authorize some person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser thereof. The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.

12.0 CALL ON SHARES:

12.1 The Directors may from time to time make calls upon the members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium) and not by the conditions of allotment therefore made payable at fixed times, provided that no call shall exceed one half of the nominal value of the share be payable at less than one month from the date fixed for payment of the last preceding call and each member shall (subject to receiving at least fourteen (14) days' notice specifying when and where payment is to be made) pay to the Company as required by the notice the amount called on his shares. A call may be revoked or postponed as the Directors may determine. A person upon whom a call is made shall remain liable for calls made upon him notwithstanding the subsequent transfer for the shares in respect of which the call was made.

- 12.2 A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorizing the call was passed and may be required to be paid in instalments.
- 12.3 The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.
- 12.4 If a sum in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest on the sum from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at such rate but not exceeding then (10) per cent per annum, as the Directors may determine, but the Directors shall be at liberty to waive payment of such interest wholly or in part.
- 12.5 The provision of the Articles as to liability of joint holders and as to payment of interest shall apply in the case of non-payment at a fixed time whether on account of the amount of the share or by way of premium as if the same had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
- 12.6 Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, shall for the purpose of these Articles, be deemed to be call duly made and payable the date on which by the terms of issue, the same becomes payable, and in case of non-payment, all the relevant provisions of these Articles as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made.
- 12.7 The Directors may, on the issue of shares, differentiate between holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and times of payment.
- 12.8 The Directors may, if they think fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by a member. Upon all or any of the moneys so advanced may (until the same would but for such advance become payable) pay interest at such are not exceeding (unless the Company shall in the General Meeting otherwise direct) eight (8) per cent per annum, as may be agreed upon between the Directors and the members paying such sum in advance.

12.9 No member shall be entitled to receive any dividend or to be present or to vote on any question either personally or by proxy, at any general Meeting or upon a poll, or to be reckoned in quorum whilst any call or other such moneys shall be due and payable to the Company in respect of any of the shares held by him, whether alone or jointly with any other person.

13.0 TRANSFER OF SHARES:

13.1 No shareholder shall sell, assign or otherwise transfer any shares without the prior written consent of the other Shareholder except as provided in this Article.

13.2 If any Member, wishes to transfer any of its shares in the Company, it shall first give the right of refusal to the other Member all of such shares it is seeking to transfer. Thereafter, the instrument of transfer of any share shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and transferee and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register of members in respect thereof.

13.3 Shares to be transferred shall be:

a) in writing and shall be delivered by the transferor to transferee at its address registered with the Company, and with a copy to the Company secretary.

b) be irrevocable and open for acceptance by the transferor to transferee for a period of thirty (30) days following the receipt of the offer by the transferee.

13.4 No transfer shall be registered unless a proper instrument of transfer shall have been delivered to the Company. The instrument of transfer of a share shall be executed by both the transferors and the transferee, and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect thereof. All instrument of transfer, when registered, shall be retained by the Company.

13.5 The Directors may refuse to register the transfer of a share to any person and if they do so, the instrument of transfer must be returned to the transferee with notice of the refusal, setting out their reasons for the refusal, as soon as practicable and in any event within two (2) months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the Company, unless they suspect that the proposed transfer may be fraudulent.

14.0 TRANSMISSION OF SHARES:

14.1 In case of death of a member, the survivor or survivors where the deceased was joint holder, and the legal personal representatives of the deceased, where he was a sole holder, shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to his interest in the shares; but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of any share which has been jointly held by him with other persons.

14.2 In case of a share registered in the names of two or more holders the survivors or personal representatives of the deceased survivor shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to the share.

14.3 Any person entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy or a member shall upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time properly be required by the Directors have the right either to be registered as a member in respect of the share or instead of being registered himself to make a transfer of the share as the deceased or bankrupt person could have made but the Directors shall in either case have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the share by the deceased or bankrupt person before the death or bankruptcy.

15.0 FORFEITURE OF SHARES:

15.1 When any share has been forfeited, notice to the forfeiture shall forthwith be given to the holder of the share or the person entitled to the share by reason of the share or the person entitled to the share by the reason of the death or bankruptcy or liquidation of the holder (as the case may be), but no forfeiture shall be in any manner invalidated by any omission or neglect to give such notice as aforesaid.

15.2 A forfeited share shall be deemed to be the property of the Company and may be sold or otherwise disposed of either to the person who was, before the forfeiture, the holder thereof or entitled thereto or to any other person upon such terms and in such manner as the Directors shall think fit, and at any time before a sale or disposition the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the Directors may think fit.

15.3 A statutory declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director of the Company and that a share in the Company has been duly forfeited or expropriated on a date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to share. The Company may receive consideration (if any) given for the share on the sale or disposition thereof, and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of, and he shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money (if any) nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceeding in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share.
