Unless the context otherwise requires, words of expressions contained in these articles shall bear the same meaning as in the Act or any statutory modification thereof in force at the date at which these Articles become binding upon the company.

4. The company is a private company and accordingly:

- a) The right to transfer shares is strictly in a manner herein after prescribed.
- b) The number of the members of the company (exclusive persons who are in the employment of the company and of persons who having been formally in the employment and have continued after the determination of such employment to be members of the company) is limited to fifty PROVIDED THAT where two or more persons hold one or more shares in the company jointly, they shall for the purpose of this Article be treated as a single member.
- c) Any invitation to the public to subscribe for any shares or debentures of the company is prohibited.
- d) The company shall not have power to issue share warrants to bearer.

SHARE CAPITAL AND SHARES

- 5. The share capital of the company is Tanzania Shillings 50,000,000,000/= divided into 10,000 shares of Tanzania shillings 5,000,000/= each.
- 6. The shares of the company shall be, under the control of the Board of Directors and shall be subject to the provisions in without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on with such preferred , deferred or other special rights, or such capital or otherwise, as the company may from time to time to come by special resolution determine, and any preference share may, with the sanction of a special resolution, be issued on the terms that it is, or at the option of the company is liable to be redeemed.
- 7. If at any time share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may be varied with the consent in writhing of the holders of three-fourths of the issued shares of that class or with the sanction of an extra ordinary resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of the class. To every such separate general meeting the provisions of those regulations relating to general meetings shall mutatis mutandis apply.

8. Every person whose name is entered as a member in the register of members shall without payment, be entitled to a certificate under the seal of the company specifying the share or shares held by him or such body and the amount paid up thereon, provided that in respect of a share or shares held jointly by several persons the company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate, and delivery of a certificate for a share to one of the several joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all.
9. The company shall be entitled to treat the person whose name appears upon the Register in respect of any share or shares as the absolute owner thereof and shall not be under any obligation to recognize any trust or equitable claim to or partial interest in such share or shares whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof.
10. If a share certificate is defaced, lost or destroyed it may be renewed on payment of such fee, if any, not exceeding Tanzania shillings Thirty thousand only, and on such terms, if any, as to evidence and indemnity as the directors think fit.

LIEN

11. (i) The company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share for all monies (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of that share, and the company shall also have a first and paramount lien on all shares standing registered in the name of any person for all monies presently payable by him or his estate to the company, but the Directors may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this article.

(ii) The lien hereby conferred shall attach to all shares registered in the name of any person indebted or under liability to the company, whether he be the sole registered holder or be one of several joint holders.

(iii) The company's lien, if any, on a share shall extended to all dividends payable thereon.

12. The company may sell, in such manner as the Directors think fit, any shares on which the company has a lien, but no sale shall be made unless some sum in respect of which the lien exist is presently payable, nor until the expiration of twenty-eight days after a notice in writing, stating and demanding payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, has been given to the registered holder for the time being of the shares.
13. For giving effect to any such sale the directors may authorize some person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser thereof. The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares comprised in any such transfer and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by an irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.
14. The proceeds of the sale shall be applied in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable and the residue shall be held (subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares prior to the sale) by the company on behalf of the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale.

CALLS ON SHARES

15. The directors may from time to time make calls upon member in respect of any moneys unpaid on its shares provided that no call share exceed onefourth of the nominal amount of the share, or be payable at less than one month from the last call; and the member shall (subject to receiving at least fourteen days' notice specifying the time or times of payment) pay to the company at the time or times so specified the amount called on his shares. A call may be revoked or postponed as the directors may determine. If at any time there shall be joint holders of a share, such joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.

16. If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the member shall pay interest upon the sum at the rate of eight per cent per annum (8%) from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the date of actual payment, but the Directors shall be at liberty to waive payment of that interest wholly or in part.
17. The provisions of these regulations as to payment of interest shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the amount of the share, or by way of premium, as if the same had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
18. The directors may make arrangements on the issue of share for a difference of between the holders in the amount of calls to be paid and in the times of payment.
19. The directors may, if they think fit, receive from the member willing to advance the same all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid any shares held by it; and upon all or any of the moneys so advanced may (until the same would, but for such advance become presently payable) pay interest at such rate (not exceeding without the sanction of the company in general meeting, six 'per cent), as may be agreed upon between the member paying the sum in advance and the directors.

TRANSFER AND TERMINATION OF SHARES

20. The directors are allowed to transfer shares registered on their names in the company's register of shares and possessing certificate(s) of the said shares thereof.
21. Save as is herein after provided, the Directors may in their absolute discretion decline to register any transfer of shares to a person of whom they do not approve not being already a member of the company, and may also decline to register any transfer of shares on which the company has lien. The directors may also suspend the registration of transfers during the period of fourteen days immediately preceding the Annual General Meeting in each year.
22. The directors may also decline to recognize any instrument of transfer unless: -
- (i) A fee not exceeding Tanzanian shillings ten thousand only is paid to the company in respect thereof; and
 - (ii) The instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transfer or to make the transfer.
23. If the directors refuse to register a transfer of any shares, they shall within two months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the company send to the transferee notice of the refusal.
24. Save as hereinafter provided, no shares in the company shall be transferred otherwise than to a person who is already a member of the company until the rights of pre-emption hereby conferred shall have been exhausted that is to say:-
- (i) Every member who intends to transfer shares (hereinafter called the vendor) shall give notice in writing to the Board of his intention so to do. Such notice shall constitute the Board, his agent for the sale of the said shares in one or more lots at the discretion of the Board to members of the company at a price to be agreed upon by the vendor and the Board, or in default of agreement, at a price which the auditor of the company for the time being shall certify by writing under his hand, to be in his opinion, the fair selling value thereof a between a willing vendor and a willing purchaser.

- (ii) Upon the price being fixed as aforesaid the Board shall forthwith give notice to all the members of the company of the number and price of the shares to be sold and invite each of them to state in writing within thirty days from the date of the said notice whether he is willing to purchase any and, if so what maximum number of the said shares.
- (iii) At the expiration of the, said thirty days the Board shall allocate the said shares to or amongst the member or members who shall have expressed his or their willingness to purchase as aforesaid, and (if more than one) so far as may be pro rata according to the number of shares already held by them respectively PROVIDED THAT no member shall be obliged to take more than the said maximum of shares so notified by him as aforesaid.
- (iv) Upon such allocation being made the vendor shall be bound on payment of the said price to transfer the shares to the purchaser or purchasers. If he makes default in so doing the Chairman for the time being of the directors of the company or failing him one of the directors duly nominated by resolution of the Board for that purpose shall forthwith be deemed to be duly appointed attorney of the vendor with full power to execute, complete and delivery in the name and on behalf of the vendor transfer of the shares to the purchasing member and the Board may receive and give a good discharge for the purchase-money on behalf of the vendor and enter the name of the purchaser in the register of members as holder by transfer of the shares purchased by him.

(v) In the every of the whole or any lot of shares offered through the Board as provided by this Article not being sold in the manner by this article provided, the vendor may at any time within six calendar months after the expiration of the said period of thirty days after the date of the notice given by the Board to the members, transfer the shares not so sold to any person and at any price

25. The legal personal representatives of a deceased sole holder of share shall be the only persons recognized by the company as having any title to the share. In the case of a share registered in the names of two or more holders, the survivors or the survivor, or legal personal representatives of the deceased's survivor shall be the only persons recognized by the company as having any title to the shares.
26. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member shall, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be properly required by the directors, have the right, either to be registered as in respect of the share or, instead of being registered himself, to make such transfer of the share as the deceased or bankrupt person could have made; but the directors shall, in either cases, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the share by the deceased or bankrupt person before the death or bankruptcy.
27. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of death or bankruptcy of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not, before being registered as a member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of its to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to the meetings of the company.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

28. If the member fails to pay any call or installment of a call on the day appointed for payment thereof, the directors may at any time thereafter during such time as any part of such call or installment remains unpaid, serve a notice on his requiring payment of so much of the call or installment as is unpaid together with any interest which may have accrued.
29. The notice shall name a further day (not earlier than the expiration of fourteen days from the date of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice has to be made, and shall state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time appointed the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.
30. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by resolution of the directors to that effect, and such forfeiture shall extend to dividends in respect of any share so forfeited not actually paid at the date of the said notice.
31. A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the Directors think fit, and at any time before a sale or disposition the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the directors think fit.
32. The member whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares but shall, notwithstanding remain liable to pay to the company all moneys which, at the date of the forfeiture were presently payable by him to the company in respect of the shares, but his liability shall cease if and when the company receives payment in full of the nominal amount of shares.

33. A statutory declaration in writing that the declarant is a director of the company, and that a share in the company has been duly forfeited or expropriated on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share.' The company may receive the consideration if any, given for the share on any sale or disposition thereof and may execute a transfer of the share on any sale or disposition thereof and may execute a transfer of the share favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of and he shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share, and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture or expropriation, sale or disposal of the share.

34. The provisions of these articles as to the forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of the issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the amount of the shares, or by way of premium as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

CONVERSION OF SHARES INTO STOCK

35. The company may by ordinary resolution convert any paid-up shares into stock, and reconvert any stock into paid-up shares of any denomination.

36. The holders of stock may transfer the same, or any part -thereof, in the same manner, and subject to the same regulations;

37. The holder of stock shall, according to the amount of the stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the company and other matters as if they held the shares from which the stock arose, but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the company) shall be conferred by any such aliquot part of stock as would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege of advantage.
38. Such of the regulations of the company as are applicable to paid up shares shall apply to stock, and the words "share" and "share holder" therein shall include "stock" and "stockholder" respectively.

ALTERATION OF CAPITAL

39. The company may from time to time by special resolution increase the share capital by such sum to be divided into shares of such amount, as the resolution shall prescribe.
40. Subject to any direction to the contrary that may be given by the resolution sanctioning the increase of share capital, all new shares shall before issue, be offered to such persons as at the date of the offer are entitled to receive notice from the company of general meetings in proportion as nearly as the circumstances admit, to the amount of the existing shares to which they are entitled. The offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares offered, and limiting the time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined, and after the expiring of that time, or on receipt of an intimation from the person to whom the offer is made that he declines to accept the shares offered, the directors may dispose the same in such manner as they think most beneficial to the company. The directors may likewise so dispose of any new shares which (by reason of the ratio which the new shares bear to shares held by persons entitled to an offer of new shares) cannot, in the opinion of the directors be conveniently offered under this article.

41. The new shares shall be subject to the same provisions with reference to the payment of calls, lien, transfer, transmission, and forfeiture and otherwise as the shares in the original share capital.

42. The company may by ordinary resolution:

a) Consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital of larger amount than its existing shares;

b) Sub-divide its existing shares or any of them into shares, of smaller amount than is fixed by the memorandum of association, subject, nevertheless, to the provisions of section 64 (1) of the Act;

c) Cancel any shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person.

43. The company may, by special resolution reduce its share capital in any manner and with, and subject to any ancient authorized, any consent required, by law.

GENERAL MEETINGS

44. A general meeting shall be held once in every calendar year at such time (not being more than fifteen months after the holding of the last preceding general meeting) and place as may be determined by the directors. In default of a general meeting so held, a general meeting may be convened by any member in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings are to be convened by the directors.

45. All general meetings other than the Annual General Meeting (AGM) shall be called extraordinary general meetings.

46. The directors may, whenever they think fit, convene an extraordinary general meeting and extraordinary general meetings shall also be convened on such requisition, or, in default, may be convened by such resolutions, as provided by section 134 of the Act.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

47. Subject to the provisions of section 135 (2) of the Act relating to special resolutions, twenty one days at the least (excluding of the day of which the notice is served or deemed to be served, but inclusive of the day for which notice is given) specifying the place, the day and the hours of meeting and, in case of special business, the general nature of that business shall be in manner hereinafter mentioned, or in such other manner, if any, as may be prescribed by the company in general meeting, to such persons as are, under the regulations of the company, entitled to receive such notice from the company; but with the consent of all the members entitled to receive notice of some particular meeting, that meeting may be convened by such shorter notice and in such manner as those members may think fit.

48. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of meeting by, any member shall not invalidate the proceedings at any meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

49. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at any extraordinary meeting, and all that is transacted at the Annual General Meetings, with the exception of sanctioning a dividend., the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets and the ordinary report of the Directors and Auditors, the collection of Directors and other officers in place of those retiring by relation, and the appointment and fixing of the remuneration of the Auditors.

50. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business, save as herein otherwise provided two members present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum. PROVIDED THAT one-member present by a representative shall be a quorum if such member is the sole member of the company.
51. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of a number, shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, and, if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting shall be dissolved.
52. The Chairman, if any, of the Board of Directors shall preside as Chairman at every General Meeting of the company.
- 53: If there is no such Chairman, or if at any meeting he is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the remaining directors (or alternate directors as the case may be) shall choose one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting.
54. The Chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so, directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for ten days or more; notice of such adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of original meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
55. At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is demanded.
