PRELIMINARY

4. It shall not be an objection to any agreement for acquisition of any property or rights to which the Company may be a party that the other parties thereto, or some or one of them may be promoters or a promoter of the Company or that in the circumstances the Directors of the Company do not constitute an independent Board and every member of the Company, present or future, shall be deemed to join the Company on this basis.

PRIVATE COMPANY

5. The Company is a "Private Company" within the meaning of Section 27 of the Act and accordingly (1) no invitation shall be issued to the public to subscribe for any shares or debentures of the Company (2) the number of members of the Company [not including persons who are in the employment of the Company, and persons who, having been formerly in the employment and have continued after the determination of that employment to be members of the Company] shall be limited to fifty, provided that, for the purposes of this provision, where two or more persons held one or more shares in the Company jointly, they shall be treated as a single member; and (3) the right to transfer the shares of the Company is restricted in manner and to the extent hereinafter appearing.

SHARES

6. In Clause 2 of Table "A" the words "Ordinary Resolution" shall be substituted for the words "Special Resolution" where these words first occur.
7. The shares shall be at the disposal of the Directors, and (save as otherwise directed by the Company in General Meeting, they may allot or otherwise dispose of them to such persons at such times and generally on such terms and conditions as they may think proper subject nevertheless to Article 3 provided that no share shall be issued at a discount, except as provided by Section 60 of the Act
8. The Company may pay a commission to any person in consideration of his subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, for any shares in the Company, or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions, whether absolutely or conditionally, for any shares in the Company, provided that the Commission does not exceed 10 per cent of the price at which such shares are issued, or an amount equivalent thereto, and such commission may be paid, in whole or in part in cash or fully or partly paid shares of the Company, as may be arranged. The statement required by Section 56 of the Act shall be duly delivered to the Registrar of Companies for registration, and Section 56 of the Act shall, where necessary, be duly complied with and the amount of any such commission shall be duly stated in the and Annual Returns of the company as required by Section 128 of the Act.

9. No persons shall be recognized by the Company as holding any shares upon any trust, and the Company shall not be bound by or recognize any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share or any interest in any fractional part of a share, or (except only as by these presents otherwise expressly provided) any other right in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder.
10. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien and charge on all the shares registered in the name of a member (whether solely or jointly with others) for all moneys due to the Company from his estate, either alone or jointly with any other person, whether a member or not. The registration of a transfer of shares shall operate as a waiver of the Company's lien (if any) on a share shall extend to all dividends and other moneys payable in respect thereof.

CALLS ON SHARES

11. The Directors may from time to time make calls upon the members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares, and each member shall (subject to receiving at least fourteen day's notice specifying the time or times of payments) pay to the company at the time or times specified, the amount called on his shares.
12. On the trial or hearing of any action for the recovery of any money due for any call, it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the member sued is entered in the register of Members of the Company as the holder, or one of the holders, of the shares, in respect of which such debt accrued; that the resolution making the call is duly recorded in the Minute Book and that notice of such call was duly given to the member sued in pursuance of these presents, and it shall not be necessary to prove the appointments of the Directors who made such call, nor any other matters whatsoever but the proof of the matters aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the debt.

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

13. No transfer of any share in the capital of the Company to any person whether already a member of the Company or not shall be made or registered without the previous sanction of the Directors, who may, without assigning any reason, decline to give such sanction and shall so decline in the case of any transfer the registration of which would involve a contravention of Article 4 hereof. The Directors may also suspend the registration of transfers during fourteen days immediately preceding the Ordinary General Meeting in each year.
14. The Directors may decline to register any instrument of transfer unless;
 - (a) such a fee not exceeding two shillings or as the Directors may from time to time determine, is paid to the Company in respect thereof, and
 - (b) the instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates, and such other evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer. The Directors may decline to register any transfers of any shares on which the Company has a lien.If the Directors refuse to register a transfer of any shares, they shall within two months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the Company send to the transferee notice of the refusal as required by Section 80 of the Act.
15. Any member desiring to dispose of any share or shares held by him shall intimate to any Director in writing the numbers of such shares and the price at which he is willing to sell the same. Such notice shall constitute such Director the selling Agent of the member and on receipt of such notice the Director shall forthwith inform or cause to be informed all other members of the proposed sale and on receiving offers from any other member or members within thirty days for the purchase of the shares, shall submit the names of the proposed purchaser or purchasers to the Board of Directors who may sanction the transfer, or in the event of more than one offer being received may allot the shares for sale among the proposed purchasers in such manner or proportions as the Board of Directors may, in their sole discretion, deem fit. Such sanction and/or allocation shall be binding upon the proposed purchaser or purchasers who shall thereupon be bound to pay the stipulated price and upon payment thereof the proposed seller shall be bound to transfer the share or shares to the purchaser. In the event of the proposed seller defaulting in transferring the said share or shares, the Board of Directors may receive the purchase price and the Directors shall hereupon cause the name of the purchaser or purchasers to be entered in the Register of Members as the holder of the share or shares and shall remit the purchase money to the seller or retain it in trust on his behalf until he claims it. The receipt by two Directors for the purchase money shall be a good discharge to the purchaser and after his name has been entered in Register of Members in purported exercise of the aforesaid power, the validity of the proceedings shall not be questioned by any person and the remedy (if any) of the former holder of the shares or of any person claiming through or, under him shall be against the Company and in damages only. If the shares or any of them are not sold to existing members, the member desiring to sell may sell to any person not a member of the Company but so that the price paid by such persons shall be not less than the price fixed by the selling member in his notice to the Director hereinbefore referred to and in any event the Directors shall not be bound to register any person as a member unless such person has been approved in writing by the Board of Directors.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

16. If a member fails to pay any call or installment of a call on the day appointed for payment thereof the Directors may, at any time thereafter during such time as any part of such call or installment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or installment as is unpaid together with any interest which may have accrued and any expenses incurred by reason of such non-payment. Such notice shall state the place at which the payment required by such notice is to be made.
17. An entry in the Minute Book of the Company of the forfeiture of any shares, or that any have been sold to satisfy a lien of the Company, shall be sufficient evidence as against all persons claiming to be entitled to such shares that the said shares were properly forfeited or sold; and such entry and the receipt of the Company for the price of such shares shall constitute a good title to such shares, and the name of the purchaser shall be entered in the Register of Members as a member of the Company and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money nor shall his title to the said shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture or sale. The remedy (if any) of the former holder of such shares, and of any person claiming under or through him shall be against the Company and in damages only.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

35. A Director may hold any other office or place of profit under the company [except that of auditor] upon such terms as to remuneration tenure of office and otherwise as may be determined by the Board. A Director of the Company may also accept office as a Director of any Company promoted by the company or in which the Company is interested and may subscribe for or otherwise acquire shares in such company and shall not be accountable (unless otherwise agreed) for any benefit received by him as a Director or member of such Company. A Director may act by himself or his firm in a professional capacity for the Company and he or his firm shall be entitled to remuneration for his services as if he were not a Director.

36. A Director shall be capable of contracting or participating in the profits of any contract with the Company in the same manner as if he were not a Director, subject nevertheless to the provision that he shall declare the nature of his interest in any contract or proposed contract in which he is interested in manner required by Section 209 of the Act, but such declaration shall not be necessary where the Board is already aware of the interest of such Director in respect of any such contract or proposed contract in which he is so interested as aforesaid and his vote shall be valid. A general notice that a Director is member of any specified firm or company and is to be regarded as interested in any subsequent transaction with such firm of company shall be a sufficient disclosure under this clause and after such general notice it shall not be necessary to give any special notice relating to any particular transaction with such firm or company.

ROTATION OF DIRECTORS

37. Subject to any agreement for the name being subsisting the Company may by extraordinary resolution remove any Director before the expiration of his period of office and may by an ordinary resolution appoint another person in his stead. The person so appointed shall be subject to retirement at the same time as if he had become a Director on the day on which the Director in whose place he is appointed was last elected a Director.

PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

38. The quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of the Directors may be fixed by the Directors and unless so fixed shall be three.

39. A resolution in writing signed by all the Directors for the time being in Tanzania (including, if any Director shall be absent from Tanzania, the alternate or substitute Director, if any appointed by him) shall be as valid and effectual, as a resolution passed at a duly convened and constituted meeting of the Directors; notwithstanding that the same may be signed at different times and places.

40. It shall be necessary to give notice of meeting of Directors, to any Director for the time being absent from Tanzania. The notice shall be issued with a 14 day notification period.

41. Any minute of any meeting of the directors of the Company if purporting to be signed by the chairman of such meeting or by the chairman of the next succeeding meeting, shall be conclusive evidence, without any further proof, of the facts therein stated.

ALTERNATE DIRECTOR

42. Any Director may from time to time and at any time appoint any person (not disapproved on appointment by a majority of the other Directors for the time being) to be an alternate Director of the Company, and may at any time remove the alternate Director so appointed shall not be entitled to receive any remuneration from the Company nor be required to hold any qualification but shall be entitled (subject to his giving to the company an address within Tanzania at which notices may be served on him) to receive notices of and attend all meeting of the Directors and to vote as a Director at any such meeting at which the Director appointing him is not present and generally in the absence of his appointer to perform all functions of his appointer as a Director. An alternate Director may be removed from office by ordinary resolution of the company in General Meeting and shall ipso facto cease to be an alternate Director if his appointer ceases for any reason to be a Director. All appointments and removals of alternate Directors made by any Director in pursuance of the provisions of this Article shall be in writing under the hand of the director making the same and left at the registered office of the company. The nomination of an alternate Director shall be valid if made by cable or telegram provided such nomination shall be confirmed within three months from the date of such cable or telegram by a written nomination complying with the above mentioned requirements and any act done by the alternate Director nominated in such cable or telegram between the date thereof and the date of the receipt within the prescribed period by the Company of the Written nomination shall be as valid and effectual as if such alternate Director had been duly appointed in the first instance.

SECRETARY

43. A Secretary of the Company may be appointed by the directors who may from time to time or at any time appoint a person, firm or company to act temporarily as substitute for the Secretary for the time being of the Company, and any person, firm or company so appointed shall, while so acting be deemed for all purposes to be the Secretary of the company.

DIVIDENDS AND RESERVE

44. The directors may from time to time pay to the members such interim dividends as appear to the Directors to be justified by the profits of the Company according to the estimate formed by them thereof.
45. The directors may deduct from any dividends payable to any member all sums of money (if any) presently payable by him to the Company on account of calls or otherwise.
46. [a]. The Company at any General Meeting at which a dividend is declared may resolve that such dividend be paid wholly or in part by the distribution of specific assets and in particular of paid-up shares, debentures of debenture stock of any other company or in any one or more of such ways; provided always that no distribution shall be made which would amount to a reduction of capital except in the manner appointed by law.
- [b]. The Company in General Meeting may at any time and from time to time pass a resolution to the effect that it is desirable to capitalize a sum, being the whole or part of the undivided profits of the Company then standing to the credit of the reserve fund or to the credit of the profit and loss account (or representing premiums received on the issue of shares and standing to the credit of the share premium account) or being otherwise available for distribution and accordingly that such be capitalized and distributed free of income tax among the holders of Ordinary Shares of the Company (or their nominees) at the date of the passing of such resolution in proportion to the amount of capital paid up for the time being on the Ordinary Shares held by them respectively and that the Directors be authorized to distribute among them (or their nominees) un-issued shares credited as fully paid up to the like nominal value and in the like proportion and in satisfaction of such capitalized sum.

[c]. When such resolution has been passed, the Directors may allot and issue un-issued shares as fully paid up to the holders of Ordinary Shares of the Company (or their nominees) in satisfaction of the said capitalized sum and as nearly as may be in proportion to the amount of capital paid up for the time being on the Ordinary Shares held by them respectively, with full power to make such provision as they may think expedient for the case of fractions and, before such allotment (if they think fit) may authorize any person acting on behalf of the holders of any Ordinary Shares of the Company to enter into an agreement with the Company provided for the allotment to them (or their nominees) of such shares credited as fully paid up and in satisfaction as aforesaid and any agreement made under such authority shall be effective.
