- (c) any invitation to the public to subscribe for any shares or debentures of the company is prohibited.
- (d) the Company shall not have the power to issue share warrants to the bearer.

SHARE CAPITAL

4. The Share Capital of the Company at the date of registration of these Articles is Tanzanian Shillings One Billion Three Hundred Fifty Million Only (TZS 1,350,000,000.00), divided into One Hundred Thousand (100,000) ordinary shares of Tanzanian Shillings Thirteen Thousand Five Hundred Only (TZS 13,500.00) each. Share Capital

LOANS BY THE COMPANY

5. No part of the funds of the Company shall be employed in the purchase of or in loans upon the security of the Company's shares. The Company shall not, except as authorized by the Act, give any financial assistance for or in connection with any purchase of a share in the Company. Company's shares not to be purchased

RIGHTS OF SHAREHOLDERS

6. Without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of any shares or class of shares already issued (which special rights shall not be modified or abrogated except with such consent or sanction as is provided by Article 7 below, any share in the Company (whether forming part of the original capital or not) may be issued with such preferred, deferred or other special rights, or such restrictions, whether, concerning dividends, return of capital, voting or otherwise, as the Company may from time to time by ordinary resolution determine, and subject to the provisions of the Act, the Company may issue Preference Shares which are, or which at the option of the Company are to be, liable to be redeemed. Issue of shares subject to special conditions

MODIFICATION OF RIGHTS

7. Whenever the capital of the Company is divided into different classes of shares, the special rights attached to any class may, subject to the provisions of the Act, be modified or abrogated, either with the consent in writing of the holders of three-fourths of the issued shares of the class, or with the sanction of a Special Resolution passed at a separate General Meeting of the holders of three-fourths of the issued shares of the class (but not otherwise), and maybe so modified or abrogated either whilst the Company is a going concern or during or in contemplation of a winding up. To every such separate General Meeting all the provisions of these Articles relating to General Meetings of the Company or the proceedings thereat, shall mutatis mutandis, apply, except that the necessary quorum shall be two persons at least holding or representing by proxy one-half in a nominal amount of the issued shares of How rights of shares may be modified the class (but so that if at any adjourned meeting of such holders a quorum as above defined is not present, those Members who are present shall be a quorum), and that the holders of shares of the class shall, on a poll, have one vote in respect of each share of the class held by them respectively.

SHARES

8. Subject to the provisions of Article 38 and any shareholders agreement in existence at the time of the issuance of the shares, unissued shares shall be at the disposal of the Directors, and they may allot, grant options over, or otherwise dispose of them to such persons, at such times, and on such terms as they think proper, but so that no shares shall be issued at a discount, except under the Act. Unissued shares at the disposal of Directors
9. Shares may be held in the Company in the trust of the beneficial owner. Trustee shares

CERTIFICATES

10. Every person whose name is entered as a Member in the Register of Members shall be entitled without payment to receive within two months after allotment or lodgment of transfer (or within such other period as the conditions of issue shall provide) one certificate for all his shares of any one class or several certificates each for one or more of his shares upon payment of such sum, as the Directors shall from time to time determine. Every certificate shall be issued under the Seal. The certificate shall specify the shares or securities to which it relates, and the amount paid up thereon. Provided that the Company shall not be bound to register more than three persons as the joint holders of any shares (except in the case of executors of trustees of a deceased Member), and, in case of a share or shares held jointly by several persons, the Company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate, therefore, and delivery of a certificate for a share to one of several joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all such holders. Issue of Certificates
11. If a share certificate is worn out, defaced, lost, or destroyed, it may be renewed on payment of such fee (if any) and such terms (if any) as to evidence, indemnity, and the payment of out-of-pocket expenses of the Company for investigating evidence, as the Directors think fit. Renewal of Certificates

LIEN

12. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share for all sums of money (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of such share, and the Company shall also have a first and paramount lien and charge on all shares (including fully paid shares) standing registered in the name of each Member (whether solely or jointly with others) for all the debts and liabilities of such Member or his estate to the Company and that whether the same shall have been incurred before or after notice to the Company of any equitable or other interest in any person other than such Member, and whether the period for the payment or discharge or the same shall have arrived or not and notwithstanding that the same are joint debts or liabilities of such Member or his estate and any other person, whether a Member of the Company or not. The Company's lien (if any) on a share shall extend to all dividends payable thereon but the Directors may at any time declare any share to be exempt wholly or partially from the provisions of this Article.
13. The Company may sell, in such manner as the Directors think fit, and share on which the Company has a lien, but no sale shall be made unless a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable, nor until the expiration of fourteen days after a notice in writing, stating and demanding payment of the sum presently payable, and giving notice of intention to sell in default, shall have been given to the holder for the time being of the share or the person entitled because of his death or bankruptcy to the shares. For giving effect to any such sale, the Directors may authorize some person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser thereof. The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares comprised in such transfer, and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings about the sale.
14. The net proceeds of such sale after payment of the costs of such sale shall be applied in or towards payment or satisfaction of the debt or liability in respect whereof the lien exists, so far as the same is presently payable, and any residue shall (subject to a like lien for debts or liabilities not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the time of the sale.
- Company's lien
- Sale of shares subject to lien
- Application of proceeds of such sale

shares held by him beyond the sums called up thereon as a payment in advance of calls and such payment in advance of calls shall extinguish, so far as the same shall extend, the liability upon the shares in respect of which it is advanced, and upon the sums of money so received, or so much thereof as from time to time exceed the amount of the calls then made upon the shares in respect of which it has been received the Company may pay interest at such rate as the Member paying such sum and the Directors agree upon.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

22. (a) Subject to the restrictions of these Articles or the Shareholders Agreement, all transfers of shares may be affected by transfer in writing in the usual common form or any other form in writing under hand approved by the Directors. Form of transfer
- (b) The instrument of transfer of a share shall be in writing and shall be signed by or on behalf of the transferor and transferee, and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register of Members in respect thereof, provided that the Directors may dispense with the execution of the instrument of transfer by the transferee in any case in which they think fit in their discretion so to do. Execution
23. The Directors may subject to compliance with the requirements of the Act as to advertisement, suspend the registration of transfers at such time and for such periods as they may from time to time determine, but so that such registration shall not be suspended for more than thirty days in any year. Director's refusal to register, and closing register
24. All instruments of transfer that shall be registered shall be retained by the Company but any instrument of transfer that the Directors may decline to register shall on demand be returned to the person depositing it with the Company. Custody of instruments of transfer

The Directors may decline to recognize any instrument of the transfer unless:

- (a) Such fee, as the Directors may from time to time require, is paid to the Company in respect thereof; and
- (b) The instrument of transfer is deposited at the office or such other place as the Director may appoint, accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates, and such other evidence as the

Directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

25. In case of the death of a Member the survivors or survivor where the deceased was a joint holder, and the executors or administrators of the deceased where he was a sole or only surviving holder shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to his shares, but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased holder (whether sole or joint) from any liability in respect of any share solely or jointly held by him. Transmission on death
26. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member may, upon such evidence as to his title being produced as may from time to time be required by the Directors, and subject as hereinafter provided, either be registered himself as holder of the share or elect to have some person nominated by him registered as the transferee thereof. Registration of Execution and Trustees in Bankruptcy
27. If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects. If he elects to have his nominee registered, he shall testify his election by executing to his nominee a transfer of such share. All the limitations, restrictions, and provisions of these Articles relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfer of shares shall apply to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death or bankruptcy of the Member had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer executed by such Member. Notice of Election to be registered and registration of nominee
28. A person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member shall be entitled to receive and may give a discharge for all dividends and other sums of money payable in respect of the shares, but he shall not be entitled to receive notice of or to attend or vote at meetings of the Company or, save as aforesaid, to any of the rights or privileges of a Member until he shall have become a Member in respect of the share, and should he fail either to transfer the share or to elect to be registered as a Member in respect thereof within sixty days of being required so to do by the Directors, he shall in the case of shares which are fully paid up be deemed to have elected to be registered as a Member in respect thereof and may be registered accordingly. Right of unregistered executors and trustee

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

29. If a Member fails to pay the whole or any part of any call or installment of a call on the day appointed for payment thereof, the Directors may, at any time thereafter during such time as any part of such call or installment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or installment as is unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or installment as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued and all expenses which may have been incurred by the Company because of such non-payment. Notice requiring payment of Calls
30. The notice shall name a further day (not being less than seven days from the date of the notice) on or before which and the place where the payment required by the notice is to be made and shall state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited. Notice to state the time and place for payment
31. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which such notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before payment of all calls, interest, and expenses due in respect thereof has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited shares and not paid before forfeiture. Forfeiture on non-compliance with notice
32. When any share has been forfeited under these Articles, a notice of the forfeiture shall forthwith be given to the holder of the share, or the person entitled to the share by transmission, as the case may be, and an entry of such notice having been given and of the forfeiture, with the date, thereof shall forthwith be made in the Register of Members opposite to the entry of the shares; but no forfeiture shall be in any manner invalidated by any accidental omission or neglect to give such notice or to make such entry as aforesaid. Notice after forfeiture
33. A forfeited share shall become the property of the Company and may be sold, re-allotted, or otherwise disposed of, either to the person who was, before forfeiture, the holder thereof or entitled thereto, or to any other person, upon such terms and in such manner as the Directors shall think fit, and at any time before a sale, re-allotment or disposition, the forfeiture may be canceled on such terms as the Directors think fit. The Directors may, if Sale of forfeited shares necessary, authorize some person to transfer a forfeited share to any such other person as aforesaid.

34. A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a Member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding the forfeiture, remain liable to pay to the Company all sums of money which, at the date of the forfeiture, were payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares, with interest thereon as shall be determined by the Directors from the date of forfeiture until payment, but the Directors may waive payment of such interest either wholly or in part and the Directors may enforce payment without any allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture. Rights and liabilities of Members whose shares have been forfeited
35. A statutory declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director or the Secretary of the Company, and that a share has been duly forfeited on the date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share, and such declaration and the receipt of the Company for the consideration (if any) given for the share on the sale, re-allotment or disposal thereof together with the certificate of proprietorship of the share under seal delivered to a purchaser or allottee thereof shall (subject to the execution of a transfer if the same be required) constitute a good title to the share, and the person to whom the share is sold, reallocated or disposed of, shall be registered as the holder of the share and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money (if any) nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale, re-allotment or disposal of the share. Title to forfeited shares

INCREASE OF CAPITAL

36. The Company may from time to time by Ordinary Resolution increase its share capital by such sum to be divided into shares of such amount as the resolution shall prescribe. Power to increase capital
37. The Company may by Ordinary Resolution direct that new shares or any of them shall be offered in the first instance, either at par or at a premium, to the then Members or the holders of any class of shares for the time being, in proportion to the number of shares or shares of the class or group held by them respectively or make any other provisions as to the issue of the new shares. Allotment of new shares
38. All new shares shall be subject to the provisions of these Articles regarding payment of calls, lien, transfer, transmission, forfeiture, and otherwise and, Right and liabilities attached to new unless otherwise provided under the powers contained in these Articles, shares shall be Ordinary Shares.

ALTERATIONS OF CAPITAL

39. The Company may by Ordinary Resolution:
- (a) Consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of a larger amount than its existing shares. Power to consolidate shares
 - (b) Cancel any shares, which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken, or agreed to be taken by any person, and diminish the amount of its capital by the amount of the shares so canceled. Power to cancel shares
 - (c) Sub-divide its shares, or any of them, into shares of a smaller amount than is fixed by the Memorandum of Association (subject, nevertheless, to the provisions of the Act), and so that the resolution whereby any share is sub-divided may determine that, as between the holders of the shares resulting from such sub-division, one or more of the shares may have any such preferred or other special rights over, or may have such deferred rights, or be subject to any such restrictions as compared with the others as the Company has the power to attach to unissued or new shares. Power to sub-divide shares
- And may by Special Resolution:
- (d) Reduce its capital, any capital redemption reserve fund, or any share premium account in any manner authorized by the Act. Power to reduce capital
40. The Company may by Ordinary Resolution convert any paid-up shares into stock and reconvert any stock into paid-up shares of any denomination. Conversion into stock
41. The holders of stock may transfer the same, or any part thereof in the same manner, and subject to the same regulations as and subject to which the shares from which the stock arose might previously to conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances admit, and the Directors may from time to time fix the minimum amount of stock transferable but so that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose. Rights of stockholders to transfer stock

42. The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges, and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the Company, and other matters as if they held the shares from which the stock arose, but no such privileges or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the Company and the assets on winding up) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage. Other rights and privileges of stockholders
43. Such of the regulations of the Company as apply to paid-up shares shall apply to stock, and the words "share" and "shareholder" therein shall include "stock" and "stockholder". Application of certain regulations to stock and stockholders

GENERAL MEETINGS

44. (a) A General Meeting of the Members shall be held as the Annual General Meeting once in every year, at such time (within not more than fifteen months after the holding of the last preceding Annual General Meeting) and place as may be determined by the Directors. The General Meetings referred to in this Article shall be called "Annual General Meetings". All General Meetings are other than Annual General Meetings shall be called "Extraordinary Meetings". Annual General Meeting
- (b) All General Meetings and Extraordinary Meetings may be held by video conference, provided that such video conferencing enables all persons participating in that meeting to communicate concurrently with each other and without an intermediary and to participate reasonably effectively in the meeting. A person so participating shall be deemed present in person at the meeting and shall be entitled to vote and be counted in the quorum. Meetings via video Teleconference
- (c) Subject to the provisions of the Act, a resolution in writing signed (including by electronic signature) by or on behalf of all the shareholders for the time being entitled to receive notice of and to attend and vote at general meetings shall be as valid and effective as if the same had been passed at a general meeting of the Company duly convened and held, and may consist of two or more documents in like form each signed (including by electronic signature) by or on behalf of one or more of the shareholders. Members' resolution in writing
45. The Directors may call an Extraordinary Meeting whenever they think fit and shall, on the requisition under the Act, proceed to convene an Extraordinary Meeting as required by the Act. In the case of an Extraordinary General Extraordinary Meetings

Meeting called in pursuance of a requisition, unless such meeting shall have been called by the Directors, no business other than that stated in the requisition as the objects of the meeting shall be transacted.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

46. All meetings of Members shall be called with no less than ten days' advance written notice. The notice shall specify the place, the day, and the hour of the meeting, and in case of special business, the general nature of such business and shall be given in the manner hereinafter mentioned to such persons as are, under the provisions herein contained, entitled to receive notices from the Company. With the consent in writing of all Members entitled to receive notices from the Company, a meeting may be convened by a shorter notice and in such manner as such Members may think fit.

Notice of General Meetings required

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

47. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an Extraordinary Meeting, and also all business that is transacted at an Annual General Meeting, except for declaring dividends, the reading, and consideration of the accounts and balance sheet, and the ordinary reports of the Directors and documents required to be annexed to the balance sheet, the election of directors and appointment of Auditors and other officers in the place of those retiring by rotation or otherwise, the fixing of the remuneration of the Auditors and the voting of remuneration or extra remuneration to the Directors.
48. Any person entitled to be present and vote at a meeting may submit any resolution or amendment to the meeting, provided that at least five and not more than fourteen clear days before the day appointed for the meeting, he shall have served upon the Company a notice in writing signed by him (including by way of electronic signature), containing the proposed resolution or amendment, and stating his intention to submit the same.

Special business

Notice of resolutions and amendments by Members

49. Upon receipt of any such notice as in the last proceeding Article mentioned, the Secretary shall include in the notice of the meeting in any case where the notice of intention is received before the notice of the meeting is issued and shall in any other case issue as quickly as possible to the Members notice that such resolution or amendments will be proposed. Any resolution or amendment of which such notice has not been given shall in the case of a resolution and may in the case of an amendment be ruled out of order, and the ruling of the Chairman shall be conclusive. Issue of such notice
50. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum is present. Except as otherwise provided herein, all the shareholders being present in person or by proxy shall constitute a quorum for business to be transacted at any General Meeting. Quorum
51. If within half an hour of the time appointed for the meeting, a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of Members, shall be dissolved. In any other case, it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to such other day and at such other time and place as the Directors may determine, and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within fifteen minutes from the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Members present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum. Adjournment if quorum is not present
52. The Chairman of the Board of Directors if any shall preside as Chairman at every General Meeting of the Company. If at any meeting the Chairman is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting or is unwilling to act as Chairman, the Members present shall choose some Director, or if no Director be present, or if all the Directors present decline to take the chair, they shall choose some Member present to be Chairman. Chairman
Election of Chairman
53. The Chairman may with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so, directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting except business which might lawfully have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for fourteen days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting. Adjournments
Notice of adjournments

CALLS ON SHARES

15. The Directors may from time to time make calls upon the Members in respect of any sum of money (whether on account of the amount of the shares or by way of premium) unpaid on their shares, provided that (except as otherwise fixed by the conditions of application or allotment) no call on any shares shall exceed one-fourth of the nominal amount of the share or be payable at less than fourteen days from the last call, and each Member shall (subject to receiving at least fourteen days' notice specifying the time or times and place of payment) pay to the Company at the time or times and place so specified the amount called on his shares. A call may be revoked or postponed as the Directors may determine. Calls
16. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorizing the call was passed. A call may be made payable in installments. Time when made
17. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof. Liability of joint holders
18. If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest on the sum from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at such rate not exceeding ten percent (10%) per annum, as the Directors may determine, but the Directors shall be at liberty to waive payment of such interest wholly or in part. Interest on calls
19. Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable upon allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the amount of the shares or by way of premium, shall for all the purposes of these Articles be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of the issue the same becomes payable, and in case of non-payment all the relevant provisions of these Articles as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable under a call duly made and notified. Sums due on the allotment are to be treated as calls
20. The Directors may from time to time decide on the issue of shares for a difference between the holders of such shares in the number of calls to be paid and in the times of payment. Power to differentiate
21. The Directors may, if they think fit, receive from any Member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the sums of money unpaid upon the Payment of calls in

| 54. | At any General Meeting, a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded by the Chairman or by at least two members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote, or by a Member or Members entitled either because of their holding or as representatives or as proxies, to cast one-tenth or more of the votes which could be cast in respect of that resolution if all persons entitled to vote thereon were present at the meeting. Unless a poll is so demanded, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried, and an entry to that effect in the minute book shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution. | Method of Voting |
| 55. | If any votes shall be counted which ought not to have been counted or might have been rejected, the error shall not vitiate the resolution unless the same be pointed out at the same meeting, or any adjournment thereof, and not in that case unless it shall in the opinion of the Chairman of the meeting be of sufficient magnitude to vitiate the resolution. | Demand of poll |
| 56. | If a poll is duly demanded, it shall be taken at such time and in such manner (including the use of ballot or voting papers or tickets) as the Chairman may direct, and the result of a poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. The Chairman may in the event of a poll, appoint scrutineers and may adjourn the meeting to some place and time fixed by him to declare the result of the poll. The demand for a poll may with the consent of the Chairman of the meeting be withdrawn. | Votes counted in error |
| 57. | Subject to the Shareholders Agreement, in the case of an equality of votes, on a show of hands or a poll, the Chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded shall be entitled to a second or casting vote. | How to polls be taken |
| 58. | A poll demanded on the election of a Chairman, or a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. No notice needs to be given if a poll is not taken immediately. | Chairman's casting vote |
| 59. | The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll has been demanded. | Time to take a poll |
| | | Continuance of business after the demand for a poll |

VOTES OF MEMBERS

60. Subject to any special rights or restrictions as to voting attached by or under these Articles to any class of shares, on a show of hands every Member who is present in person shall have one vote and, on a poll, every member who is present in person or by proxy shall have one vote for every share of which he is the holder. Voting rights of Members
61. In the case of joint holders of a share, the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders and for this purpose, seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the Register of Members. Voting rights of joint holders
62. A Member of unsound mind, or in respect of whom an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction in lunacy, may vote, whether on a show of hands or a poll, by his committee, curator bonis, or other people like a committee or curator bonis appointed by such Court, and such committee, curator bonis or other people may on a poll vote by proxy, provided that such evidence as the Directors may require of the authority of the person claiming to vote shall have been deposited at the Office not less than three days before the time for holding the meeting. Voting Rights of Lunatic Members
63. No Member shall, unless the Directors otherwise determine, be entitled to vote at a General Meeting either personally or by proxy, or to exercise any privilege as a Member unless all calls or other sums presently payable by him in respect of shares in the Company have been paid. No right to vote where a call is unpaid
64. No objection shall be raised to the qualifications of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meetings at which the vote objected to is given or tendered, and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the Chairman of the meeting whose decision shall be final and conclusive. Objections
65. Votes may be given either personally or by proxy. On a show of hands, a Member (other than a corporation) present only by proxy shall have no vote, but a proxy for the corporation may vote on a show of hands. A proxy need not be a Member of the Company. Votes on a poll
66. Any corporation that is a Member of the Company may, by resolution of its directors or other governing body, authorize any person to act as its representative at any meeting of the Company or any class of members of Voting of corporation the Company, and such representative shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation which he represents as if he had been an individual shareholder, including power, when personally present, to vote on a show of hands.

67. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointer or of his attorney duly authorized in writing, or if the appointer is a corporation either under the common seal or under the hand of an officer or attorney so authorized. Execution of proxies
68. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which it is signed, or a notarially certified copy of such power or authority, shall be deposited at the Office not less than twenty-four hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting, or in the case of a poll not less than twenty-four hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, and in default, the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid. Deposit of proxies
69. An instrument of proxy may be in the usual common form or such other form as the Directors shall prescribe. The proxy shall be deemed to include the right to demand, or join in demanding a poll, and shall (except and to the extent to which the proxy is specially directed to vote for or against any proposal) include power generally to act at the meeting for the Member giving the proxy. A proxy, whether in the usual or common form or not shall, unless the contrary is stated thereon, be valid as well for any adjournment of the meeting as for the meeting to which it relates and need not be witnessed. Form of proxies
70. A vote given following the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid, notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal or revocation of the proxy, the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the share in respect of which the proxy is given, provided that no intimation in writing of such death, insanity, revocation or transfer shall have been received by the Company at the Office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned the meeting at which the proxy is used. Intervening death or insanity of principal not to revoke proxy
