Reason for extension

While we have made substantial progress in the initial phases of the project, unforeseen challenges have arisen that necessitate an extension of the implementation period. these challenges include; Shortage of Dollar which tends to pro long the payments to supplier mostly the imports supplier, unexpected logistical issues related to equipment procurement and unanticipated complexities in the construction of our new factory in Mbeya.

extending the implementation period will allow us to address these challenges effectively and ensure the successful completion of the project without compromising on quality or safety standard.
