- (a) The right to transfer is restricted in manner hereinafter provided.
 - (b) The number of member of the company (not including persons who are in the employment of the company, and persons, who having been formerly in the employment of the company were while in that employment and have continued after determination of that employment to be members of the company) is limited to fifty. Provided that where two or more persons hold one or more shares in the company, jointly they shall for the purpose of this Article be treated as a single member.
 - (c) Any invitation to the public to subscribe for any shares of debentures of the company is prohibited.

S H A R E S

4. The share capital of the company is Three hundred thousand shillings (Shs.300,000/=) divided into three thousand of (3,000) Ordinary Shares/One hundred shillings (100/=).each.
5. Subject to the provisions, if any, in that behalf memorandum of association, and without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of existing shares, any share may be issued with such preferred, deferred or other special rights or such restrictions, whether in regard to dividend, voting, return of share capital or otherwise as the company may from time to time by special resolution determine, and any preference share may, with the sanction of a special resolution, be issued on the terms that it is, or at the option of the company is liable to be redeemed.
- (1) If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the class) may be varied with the sanction of an extraordinary resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of that class.
 - (2) In every such separate general meeting the provisions of these Regulations relating to general meeting should mutatis mutandis apply, but so that the necessary quorum shall be two persons at least holding or representing by proxy seventy-five percent of the issued shares of that class, and that any holder of shares of the class present in person or by proxy may demand a poll.

- (3) For the purpose of this Article, the rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking pari passu therewith.
7. The directors may allot and issue shares in the capital of the company in payment or part payment for any property sold or transferred, goods or machinery supplied, or for service rendered to the company in the conduct of its business as fully paid-up shares, and if so issued, shall be deemed to be fully paid up.
 8. Every person whose name is registered as a member on the register of members shall, without payment, be entitled to a certificate under the Seal of the company specifying the share or shares held by him and the amount paid up thereon, provided that in respect of a share or shares held jointly by several persons the company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate, and delivery of a certificate for a share to one of several joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all.
 9. No person shall exercise any rights or privileges of a member until he shall have paid all calls and other moneys for the time being due on every share held by him.
 10. If a share certificate is defaced, lost or destroyed, it may be renewed on payment of such fee, if any, not exceeding one shilling, and on such terms, if any, as to evidence and indemnity, as the directors think fit.
 11. No part of the funds of the company shall directly or indirectly be employed in the purchase of, or in loans upon the security of, the company's shares, but nothing in this regulation shall prohibit transactions mentioned in the proviso to section 46 (1) of the Ordinance.
 12. The company shall be entitled to treat the person whose name appears upon the register in respect of any shares as the absolute owner thereof and shall not be under any obligation to recognise any trust or equity or equitable claim to or partial interest in such shares whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof.

13. The company shall have a lien on every share for all moneys (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of that share, and the company shall also have a lien on all shares standing registered in the name of a single person for all moneys presently payable by him or his estate to the company but the directors may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this regulation. The company's lien, if any, on a share shall extend to all dividends payable thereon.

14. The company may sell, subject to the provisions on forfeiture of shares, in such manner as the directors think fit, any shares on which the company has a lien, but no sale shall be made unless some sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable, nor until the expiration of fourteen days after a notice in writing, stating and demanding payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, has been given to the registered holder for the time being of the share, or the person entitled thereto by reason of his death or bankruptcy.
15. For giving effect to any such sale the directors may authorise some person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser thereof. The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares comprised in any such transfer and he shall not be bound to see the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.
16. The proceeds of the sale shall be received by the company and applied in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, and the residue shall (subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares prior to the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale.

CALLS ON SHARES

17. The directors may, subject to any conditions of allotment from time to time make calls upon the members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium) provided that (except as otherwise fixed by the conditions of allotment) no call on any share shall be payable at less than thirty days from the date appointed for payment of the last preceding call, and each member shall (subject to being given at least three weeks' notice specifying the time or times and place of payment) pay to the company at the time or times and place so specified the amount called on his shares.
18. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.
19. If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest upon the sum at the rate of eight per centum per annum from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of the actual payment, but the directors shall be at liberty to waive payment of that interest wholly or in part.
20. The provisions of these regulations as to the liability of joint holders and as to payment of interest shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the amount of the share or by way of premium, as if the same had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

21. The directors may, if they think fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same all or any part of the money unpaid upon the shares held by him beyond the sums actually called upon thereon as a payment in advance of call which shall extinguish, so far as the same shall extend liability upon the shares in respect of which it is advanced, and the company may pay interest upon the money so received, or so much thereof as from time to time exceeds the amount of the calls then made upon the shares in respect of which it has been received, at such rate as the member paying such sum and the directors agree.

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

22. The instrument of transfer of any share shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and transferee, and the transferor shall be deemed to remain a holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of members in respect thereof.
23. Shares shall be transferred in the following form, or in any usual or common form which the directors shall approve:-

"I, A.B. of _____, in consideration of Shs. _____ paid me by C.D. of _____ (hereinafter called "the said transferee") do hereby transfer to the said transferee the share (or shares) numbered _____ in the undertaking called _____ to hold unto the said transferee, subject to the several conditions on which I hold the same; and I, the said transferee, do hereby agree to take the said share (or shares) subject to the conditions aforesaid.

As witness our hands are set below the _____ day of _____ 19 _____.

Witness to the signatures of, etc."

24. The directors may in their absolute discretion decline to register any transfer of shares to a person of whom they do not approve not being already a member of the company and may also decline to register any transfer of shares on which the company has a lien. The directors may also suspend the registration of transfer during the fourteen days immediately preceding the ordinary general meeting in each year. The directors may decline to recognise any instrument of transfer unless:-
- (a) a fee not exceeding two shillings is paid to the company in respect thereof; and
 - (b) the instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates, and such other evidence as the directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer.

If the directors refuse to register a transfer of any shares they shall within two months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the company send to the transferee notice of the refusal.

25. The legal personal representatives of a deceased sole holder of a share shall be the only person recognised by the company as having any title to the share. In the case of a share registered in the names of two or more holders, the survivors or survivor or the legal personal representatives of the deceased's survivor shall be the only persons recognised by the company as having any title to the share.
26. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member shall, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be properly required by the directors, have the right, either to be registered as a member in respect of the share or, instead of being registered himself, to make such transfer of the share as the deceased or bankrupt person could have made, but the directors shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of transfer of the share by the deceased or bankrupt person before the death or bankruptcy.
27. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not, before being registered as a member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the company.
28. Save as hereinafter provided, no shares in the company shall be transferred otherwise than to a person who is already a member of the company until the rights of pre-emption hereby conferred shall have been exhausted that is to say:-
- (1) Every member or other person referred to in Article 26 who intends to transfer shares (hereinafter called the vendor) shall give notice in writing to the Board of his intention so to do. Such notice shall constitute the Board his agent for the sale of the said shares in one or more lots at the discretion of the Board to members of the company at a price to be agreed upon by the vendor and the Board, or in default of agreement, at a price which the auditor of the company for the time being shall certify by writing under his hand, to be in his opinion, the fair selling value thereof as between a willing vendor and willing purchaser.
- (11) Upon the price being fixed as aforesaid the Board shall forthwith give notice to all the members of the company of the number and price of the shares to be sold and invite each of them to state in writing within thirty days from the date of the said notice whether he is willing to purchase any and, if so, what maximum number of the said shares.

- (iii) At the expiration of the said thirty days the Board shall allocate the said shares to or amongst the member or members who shall have expressed his or their willingness to purchase as aforesaid and (if more than one) so far as may be pro rata according to the number of shares already held by them respectively PROVIDED THAT no member shall be obliged to take more than the said maximum number of shares so notified by him as aforesaid.
- (iv) Upon such allocation being made the vendor shall be bound on payment of the said price to transfer the shares to the purchaser or purchasers. If he makes default in so doing the Chairman for the time being of the directors of the company or failing him one of the directors duly nominated by resolution of the Board for that purpose shall forthwith be deemed to be deemed to be duly appointed attorney of the vendor, with full power to execute, complete and deliver in the name and on behalf of the vendor a transfer of the shares to the purchasing member and the Board may receive and give a good discharge for the purchase money on behalf of the vendor and enter the name of the purchaser in the register of members as holder by transfer of the shares purchased by him.
- (v) In the event of the whole or any lot of shares offered through the Board as provided by this Article not being sold in the manner by this article provided the vendor may at any time within six calendar months after the expiration of the said period of thirty days after the date of the notice given by the Board to the members transfer the shares not sold to any person (subject to article 24) and at any price.

FORFEITURE OF SHARE

29. If a member fails to pay any call or instalment of a call on the day appointed for payment thereof, the directors may, at any time thereafter during such time as any part of such call or instalment remains unpaid serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued.
30. The notice shall name a further day (not earlier than the expiration of three weeks from the date of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made, and shall state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time appointment the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.
31. If the requirements of such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may at any time hereafter before the payment required by the notice has been made be forfeited by a resolution of the directors to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture.

32. A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the directors think fit, and at any time before a sale or disposition the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the directors think fit.
33. A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding, remain liable to pay to the company all moneys which, at the date of forfeiture were presently payable by him to the company in respect of the shares, but his liability shall cease if and when the company receives payment in full of the nominal amount of the shares.
34. A statutory declaration in writing that the declarant is a director of the company, and that a share in the company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share. The company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share on any sale or disposition thereof and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of and he shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share, and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share.
35. The provisions of these regulations as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the amount of the share, or by way of premium, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

CONVERSION OF SHARES INTO STOCK

36. The company may by ordinary resolution convert any paid-up shares into stock, and reconvert any stock into paid-up shares of any denomination.
37. The holders of stock may transfer the same, or any part thereof, in the same manner, and subject to the same regulations, as, and, subject to which, the shares from which the stock arose might previously to conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances admit but the directors may from time to time fix the minimum amount of stock transferable, and restrict or forbid the transfer of fractions of the minimum, but the minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.
38. The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the company and other matters as if they held the shares from which the stock arose, but no privileges or advantage

(except participation in the dividends and profits of the company) shall be conferred by any such aliquot part of the stock as would not if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage.

39. Such of the regulations of the company as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock, and the words "share" and "shareholder" therein shall include "stock" and "stockholder".

ALTERATION OF CAPITAL

40. The company may from time to time by special resolution increase the share capital by such sum, to be divided into shares of such amount, as the resolution shall prescribe.
41. Subject to any direction to the contrary that may be given by the company by special resolution in general meeting, all new shares shall, before issue be offered to such persons as at the date of the offer are entitled to receive notices from the company of general meetings in proportion as nearly as the circumstances admit, to the amount of the existing shares to which they are entitled. The offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares offered, and limiting a time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined, and after the expiration of that time, or on the receipt of an intimation from the person to whom the offer is made that he declines to have shares offered, the directors may dispose of those shares in such manner as they think most beneficial to the company. The directors may likewise so dispose of any new shares which (by reason of the ratio which the new shares bear to shares held by persons entitled to an offer of new shares) cannot in the opinion of the directors, be conveniently offered under this article.
42. The new shares shall be subject to the same provisions with reference to the payment of calls, lien, transfer, transmission, forfeiture and otherwise as the shares in the original share capital:
43. The company may by ordinary resolution:-
- consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of a larger amount than its existing shares;
 - sub-divide its existing shares or any of them, into shares of a smaller amount than is fixed by the memorandum of association subject, nevertheless, to the provisions of section 51 (1) (d);
 - cancel any shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person.
44. The company may, by special resolution, reduce its share capital and any capital redemption reserve fund in any manner and with, and subject to, any incident authorised and consent required, by law.

GENERAL MEETINGS

45. A general meeting shall be held once in every calendar year at such time (not being more than fifteen months after the holding of the last preceding general meeting) and place as may be determined by the Directors. In default of a general meeting so held a general meeting may be convened by any one member in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings are to be convened by the directors.
46. All such general meetings shall be called Annual General Meetings and all other general meetings shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings.
47. The directors may, whenever they think fit, convene an Extraordinary General Meeting and Extraordinary General Meetings shall also be convened on such requisition or, in default, may be convened by such requisitionists as provided by section 114 of the Companies Ordinance. If at any time there are not within Tanzania sufficient directors capable of acting to form a quorum, any director or any one member of the company may convene an Extraordinary General Meeting in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings may be convened by the directors.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

48. Subject to the provisions of section 117 (2) of the Ordinance relating to special resolutions, three week's notice at the least (exclusive of the day on which the notice is served or deemed to be served but inclusive of the day for which notice is given) specifying the place, the day and the hour of meeting and, in case of special business, the general nature of that business shall be given in manner hereinafter mentioned, or in such other manner if any, as may be prescribed by the company in general meeting to such persons, as are, under the regulations of the company entitled to receive such notices from the company but with the consent of all the members entitled to receive notice of some particular meeting, that meeting may be convened by such shorter notice and in such manner as those members may think fit.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

49. All business transacted at any general meeting shall be deemed special with the exception of the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets and the ordinary report of the directors and auditors.
50. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting or any adjournment thereof unless a quorum of members is present when the meeting proceeds to business. A quorum shall be constituted when two members are present in person or by proxy and hold not less than seventy five percent of the issued share capital entitled to vote on the matters therein presented.

51. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the request of members, shall be dissolved, in any other case, it shall be adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum (as defined in article 50), is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting shall be dissolved.
52. No resolution, whether special or extraordinary, shall be carried as being passed at any general meeting or any adjournment thereof, unless said resolutions received the affirmative vote of not less than seventy five percent of the shares of such members as, being entitled to do so, vote in person or by proxy at a general meeting of which notice specifying the intention to propose the resolution as special or extraordinary has been duly given.
53. The Chairman (if any, of the Board of directors shall preside as Chairman at every general meeting of the company).
54. If there is no such chairman, or if at any meeting he is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting or is unwilling to act as chairman, the members present shall choose some one of their number, to be chairman.
55. The chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for ten days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
56. At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded by at least one member present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote. Unless poll is so demanded, a declaration by the chairman that the resolution has, on a show of hands, been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the minute book shall be conclusive evidence of the fact.
57. If a poll is duly demanded, it shall be taken in such manner as the chairman directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

58. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded, shall be entitled to a second or casting of vote.
59. A poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the chairman of the meeting directs.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

60. Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares, on a show of hands every member present in person shall have one vote. On a poll every member present in person shall have one vote for each share of which he is the holder.
61. In the case of joint holders the vote of the senior who tenders a vote whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders and for this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the register of members.
62. A member of unsound mind, or in respect of whom an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction in lunacy, may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his committee or other legal guardian appointed by the court, and any such committee or other legal guardian may, on a poll, vote by proxy.
63. No member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless all calls or other sums presently payable by him in respect of shares in the company have been paid.
64. On a poll votes may be given either personally or by proxy; Provided that no company shall vote by proxy unless a resolution of its directors in accordance with the provisions of section 116 of the Ordinance is in force.
65. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or his attorney duly authorized in writing or, if the appointor is a corporation, either under seal, or under seal, or under the hand of an officer or attorney duly authorized. A proxy need not be a member of the company.
66. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney, or other authority, if any under which it is signed or a notarially certified copy of that power or authority shall be deposited at the registered office of the company not less than twenty four hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting, at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.
67. Any instrument appointing a proxy may be in the following form, or any other form which the directors shall approve:

Registrar of Companies

Date

"I, _____ of _____, being member of _____ appoint _____ of _____ hereby as my proxy, to vote for me and on my behalf at the (ordinary or extraordinary as the case may be) general meeting of the company to be held _____ on _____ the _____ day of _____ 19 _____, and at any adjournment thereof.

Signed this _____ day of _____ 19 _____.

8. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll.

CORPORATIONS ACTING BY REPRESENTATIVES AT MEETINGS

9. Any corporation which is a member of the company may by resolution of its directors or other governing body authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representatives at any meeting of the company or of any class of members of the company, and the person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation which he represents as that corporation could exercise if it were an individual member or the company.

DIRECTORS

0. The first directors shall be two in number and shall be appointed by the subscribers to the Memorandum of Association. Unless and until otherwise determined by the company the number of directors (excluding alternate directors) shall not exceed five.
1. Any member of members shall, so long as he or they continue to hold in the aggregate twenty percent (20%) in nominal value of the issued shares of the company, in respect of each such holding of twenty percent (20%), be entitled to appoint any person to be a director of the company. Every such member or members may at any time remove from office any director appointed by him or them and appoint another person. Every such appointment or removal shall be effected by notice in writing signed by the member or members making the same or, in the case of a member being a Corporation, signed by any of its directors or other Authorised officer on its behalf, and shall take effect upon lodgement at the registered office.
2. Any member or members holding in the aggregate more than fifty percent (50%) in nominal value of the issued shares of the company may nominate as Chairman of the Board of Directors, one of the directors appointed under this Article.
5. A director may resign from office upon giving one month's notice in writing to the company of his intention so to do, and such resignation shall take effect upon the expiration of such notice or its earlier acceptance by the Board of Directors.

4. (1) The remuneration of the directors shall from time to time be determined by the company in General Meeting.
- (2) In addition to their usual remuneration the directors shall, subject to the approval of the whole Board of Directors, also be paid such travelling, hotel and other expenses as may reasonably be incurred by them in the exercise of their duties, including any such expenses incurred in connection with their attendance at meetings of directors.
5. Any director may at any time appoint any person to be an alternate director of the company, with powers which may be limited by the director, and may at any time remove any alternate director so appointed from office, and, appoint another person in his place. An alternate director shall (subject to his giving to the company an address at which notice may be served on him) be entitled to receive notices of all meetings of the directors, and to attend and vote as a director at any meetings at which the director appointing him is not personally present, and generally to perform all the functions of his appointor as a director in the absence of such appointor. An alternate director if his appointor ceases for any reason to be a director. All appointments and removals of alternate directors shall be effected by notice in writing under the hand of the directors or by cable, making or revoking such appointment sent to or revoking such appointment sent to or left at the registered office. An alternate director shall be an officer of the company and shall alone be responsible to the company for his own acts and defaults and he shall not be deemed to be the agent of or for the director appointing him. The remuneration of any such alternate director appointing him and shall consist of such part (if any) of the last mentioned remuneration as shall be agreed between the alternate director and the director appointing him. Any director or alternate director may, in addition to his position as director or alternate director, be appointed as an alternate to or by any number of directors.
5. A director and alternate director shall not require a share qualification but nevertheless shall be entitled to attend and speak at any general meeting of the company, and at any separate meeting of the holders of any class or shares in the company.
6. The quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of the directors may be fixed by the directors, and unless so fixed shall when the number of directors exceeds three, be three, and when the number of directors does not exceed three, be two. A resolution in writing signed by all the directors shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the directors duly called and constituted and may consist of several documents in the like form, each signed by one or more of the directors but so that the expression "director" in this article shall not include an alternate director other than an alternate director appointed by a director who at the date of the resolution is absent from Tanzania.
