How rights of shares may be modified

whilst the Company is a going concern or during or in contemplation of a winding up. To every such separate general meeting all the provisions of these Articles relating to a general meetings of the Company or to the proceedings thereat, shall mutatis mutandis apply, except that the necessary quorum shall be two persons at least holding or representing by proxy one-half in nominal amount of the issued shares of the class (but so that if at any adjourned meeting of such holders a quorum as above defined is not present, those Members who are present shall be a quorum), and that the holders of shares of the class shall, on a poll, have one vote in respect of every shares of the class held by them respectively.

8. Each of the following shall be deemed to constitute a variation of the rights attached to each class of shares:
- (a) any alteration to the memorandum or articles of association of the Company
 - (b) any increase or reduction or subdivision or consolidation or other alteration in the authorised or issued share capital of the Company or any of the rights attaching to any share capital; and
 - (c) any resolution to put the Company into liquidation.

Deemed
modification of rights

PRE-EMPTION RIGHTS ON NEW ISSUE

9. Unless otherwise agreed by Special Resolution, if the Company proposes to allot any shares, those shares shall not be allotted to any person unless the Company has first offered them to all the holders of shares of the same class as those that the Company proposes to allot, on the same terms, and at the same price, as those shares are being offered to other persons on a pari passu and pro rata basis to the number of shares held by those existing Members (as nearly as possible without involving fractions). The offer:
- (a) shall be in writing and give details of the number and subscription price of the shares; and
 - (b) may stipulate that any Member who wishes to subscribe for a number of shares in excess of the proportion to which each is entitled shall, in its acceptance, state the number of excess relevant securities for which they wish to subscribe.

Pre-emption rights

10. No shares in the Company nor any right to subscribe for or convert any security into shares in the Company shall at any time be allotted unless within one month before that allotment every Member for the time being has consented in writing to that allotment and its terms and to the identity of the proposed allottee.
11. No share of any class, nor any right to subscribe for or convert any security into a share of any class, shall be allotted otherwise than to the holder of a share of that same class.

POWER TO ALLOT

|-----|--|---------------------------------------|
| 12. | The Directors are authorised to exercise all powers of the Company to allot relevant securities, but only if the allotment otherwise conforms to the requirements of these Articles. The maximum nominal amount of relevant securities which may be allotted under this authority shall be the nominal amount of the unissued share capital at the date of adoption of this Article or such other amount as may from time to time be authorised by the Company in general meeting. The authority conferred on the Directors by this Article shall remain in force for a period of five years from the date of adoption of these Articles but may be revoked, varied or renewed from time to time by the Company in general meeting in accordance with the Act. | Power to allot shares |
| 13. | The Company may exercise the powers of paying commissions conferred by section 56 of the Act. Subject to the provisions of the Act, such commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash or the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly in one way and partly in the other. | Power to pay commission and brokerage |

|-----|--|-----------------------|
| 14. | Every person whose name is entered as a Member in the Register of Members shall be entitled without payment to receive within two months after allotment or lodgement of transfer (or within such other period as the conditions of issue shall provide) one certificate for all his shares of any one class or several certificates each for one or more of his shares upon payment of such sum, as the Directors shall from time to time determine. Every certificate shall be issued under the Seal. The certificate shall specify the shares or securities to which it relates and the amount paid up thereon. Provided that the Company shall not be bound to register more than three persons as the joint holders of any shares (except | Issue of Certificates |

in the case of executors of trustees of a deceased Member), and, in case of a share or shares held jointly by several persons, the Company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate therefore, and delivery of a certificate for a share to one of several joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all such holders.

15. If a share certificate be worn out, defaced, lost or destroyed, it may be renewed on payment of such fee (if any) and on such terms (if any) as to evidence, indemnity and the payment of out-of pocket expenses of the Company for investigating evidence, as the Directors think fit. Renewal of Certificates

LIEN

16. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every shares for all moneys (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of such share; and the Company shall also have a first and paramount lien and charge on all shares (including fully paid shares) standing registered in the name of each Member (whether solely or jointly with others) for all the debts and liabilities of such Member or his estate to the Company and that whether the same shall have been incurred before or after notice to the Company of any equitable or other interest in any person other than such Member, and whether the period for the payment or discharge or the same shall have actually arrived or not and notwithstanding that the same are joint debts or liabilities of such Member or his estate and any other person, whether a Member of the Company or not. The Company's lien (if any) on a share shall extend to all dividends payable thereon but the Directors may at any time declare any share to be exempt wholly or partially from the provisions of this Article. Company's lien
17. The Company may sell, in such manner as the Directors think fit, any share on which the Company has a lien, but no sale shall be made unless a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable, nor until the expiration of fourteen days after a notice in writing, stating and demanding payment of the sum presently payable, and giving notice of intention to sell in default, shall have been given to the holder for the time being of the share or the person entitled by reason of his death or bankruptcy to the shares. For giving effect to any such sale, the Directors may authorize some person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser thereof. The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares Sale of shares subject to lien comprised in such transfer, and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.

18. The net proceeds of such sale after payment of the costs of such sale shall be applied in or towards payment or satisfaction of the debt or liability in respect whereof the lien exists, so far as the same is presently payable and any residue shall (subject to a like lien for debts or liabilities not presently payable as existed upon the shares prior to the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the time of the sale.
- Application of proceeds of such sale

CALLS ON SHARES

19. The Directors may from time to time make calls upon the Members in respect of any moneys (whether on account of the amount of the shares or by way of premium) unpaid on their shares, provided that (except as otherwise fixed by the conditions of application or allotment) no call on any shares shall exceed one-fourth of the nominal amount of the share or be payable at less than fourteen days from the last call, and each Member shall (subject to receiving at least fourteen days' notice specifying the time or times and place of payment) pay to the Company at the time or times and place so specified the amount called on his shares. A call may be revoked or postponed as the Directors may determine.
- Calls
20. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorising the call was passed. A call may be made payable by instalments.
- Time when made
21. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.
- Liability of joint holders
22. If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest on the sum from the day appointed for payment to the time of actual payment at such rate not exceeding 10% per annum, as the Directors may determine, but the Directors shall be at liberty to waive payment of such interest wholly or in part.
- Interest on calls
23. Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable upon allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the amount of the shares or by way of premium, shall for all the purposes of these Articles be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue the same becomes payable, and in case of non-payment all the relevant provisions of these Articles as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

Sums due on allotment to be treated as calls

24. The Directors may from time to time make arrangements on the issue of shares for a difference between the holders of such shares in the amount of calls to be paid and in the times of payment.

25. The Directors may, if they think fit, receive from any Member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the moneys unpaid upon the shares held by him beyond the sums actually called up thereon as a payment in advance of calls and such payment in advance of calls shall extinguish, so far as the same shall extend, the liability upon the shares in respect of which it is advanced, and upon the moneys so received, or so much thereof as from time to time exceeds the amount of the calls then made upon the shares in respect of which it has been received the Company may pay interest at such rate as the Member paying such sum and the Directors agree upon.

Payment of calls in advance

RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFERS

26. For the purpose of Articles 27 to 36:

Associated Company means, in relation to a company, a company which is for the time being a holding company of that company or a subsidiary of that company or a subsidiary of any such holding company (as such terms are defined in the Act);

Transferor means a Member which has transferred or proposes to transfer shares to an Associated Company;

Transferee means a company for the time being holding shares in consequence (directly or indirectly) of a transfer or series of transfers of shares between companies which, at the time of transfer between them, were Associated Companies; and

means (so far as they are held by any person(s) being the holder(s) of them on the adoption of these Articles or by any person(s) in consequence of a transfer or series of transfers of shares to such person(s) pursuant to Article 28 the shares originally held by or transferred to such person(s) and any additional shares issued to such person(s) by way of capitalisation or acquired by such person(s) in exercise of any right or option granted or arising by virtue of the holding of those original shares or any of them or the membership conferred by those original shares.

27. No Member shall sell, transfer, assign, pledge, charge or otherwise dispose of any share or any interest in any share except (and subject to the provisions of Article 29):
- (a) to a Member holding shares of the same class;
 - (b) by any corporate Member (i) to a company which has acquired in connection with a scheme of amalgamation or reconstruction the whole or the main part of the undertaking and assets of such Member or (ii) to an Associated Company. If, while it holds shares in the Company, a Transferee ceases to be an Associated Company of the Transferor from which the Relevant Shares were derived, the Transferee must notify all the other Members in writing within 30 days of the cessation that such event has occurred. The Transferee shall be bound to transfer the Relevant Shares to the Transferor or to an Associated Company of the Transferor, any such transfer being deemed to be authorised under this Article;
 - (c) with the prior written consent of all other Members for the time being; or
 - (d) a Member may transfer all (but not some) of its shares in the Company to any person for cash and not on deferred terms in accordance with the procedure set out in Articles 29 to 33.

PERMITTED TRANSFER

Permitted transfers

28. Except in the case of a transfer pursuant to Article 27 the right to transfer shares or to dispose of any shares or any interest in shares in the Company shall be subject to the restrictions and provisions set out in Articles 29 to 33.

29. Before transferring or disposing of any shares or any interest in any shares, the Member wishing to transfer its shares (the Seller) must give an irrevocable notice (the Transfer Notice) to the other shareholders (the Continuing Members) of the details of the proposed transfer including, in particular, the identity of the buyer and the price of the shares. Notice to continuing shareholders
30. If the Continuing Member(s) gives notice to the Seller within 28 days of receiving the Transfer Notice (the first day being the day after it receives the Transfer Notice) that it wishes to buy all the Seller's shares in the Company, the Continuing Member(s) will have the right to do so at the price specified in the Transfer Notice pro rata their existing shareholding. Continuing shareholders pre-emption rights
31. The Continuing Member is bound to buy all the Seller's shares when it gives notice to the Seller under Article 30 that it wishes to do so. Binding obligation
32. If, at the expiry of the period specified in Article 31, the Continuing Member has not notified the Seller that it wants to buy the shares, the Seller may transfer all its shares in the Company to the buyer identified in the Transfer Notice at a price not less than the price specified in that notice provided that it does so within two months of the expiry of the period specified in Article 31. Transfer to third party
33. A person entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member shall be regarded as giving a Deemed Transfer Notice in relation to such Shares at such time as the Directors determine. If a company that is a Member resolves to appoint (or has appointed) a liquidator, administrator or administrative receiver over it (or a material part of its business), that Shareholder shall be regarded as giving a Deemed Transfer Notice in respect of all shares held by it at such time as the Directors determine. On receipt of a Deemed Transfer Notice the Company shall first offer the shares that are the subject of the notice to the existing Members pro rata their current shareholding. In the event a Member does not wish to purchase the shares offered pursuant to this Article 34 the shares shall be offered to the remaining Members pro rata their current shareholding. In the event any shares are not taken up the shares shall be transferred to the person otherwise entitled to the shares as a consequence of Transmission of Shares the death, bankruptcy or insolvency as the case may be.

DIRECTORS' RIGHT TO INFORMATION

34. A majority of the Directors may from time to time require any Member to provide the Company with such information and evidence as they may reasonably require to ensure compliance with this Article 35. If a Member fails to provide information or evidence in respect of any shares registered in its name to the reasonable satisfaction of such Directors within 14 days of their request, such Directors may serve a notice on the Member stating that the Member shall not in relation to those all shares held by that Member be entitled to be present or to vote in person or by proxy at any General Meeting of the Company or any meeting of the holders of shares of that class or to receive dividends on the shares until such evidence or information has been provided to the Directors' satisfaction.

DIRECTORS' RIGHT TO REFUSE REGISTRATION

35. The Directors shall forthwith register any duly stamped transfer made in accordance with these Articles, but otherwise may in their absolute discretion and without assigning any reason therefore refuse to register any transfer of shares (not being fully-paid shares) to a person of whom they do not approve or of a share on which the Company has a lien.
36. The Directors may, subject to compliance with the requirements of the Act as to advertisement, suspend the registration of transfers at such time and for such periods as they may from time to time determine, but so that such registration shall not be suspended for more than 30 days in any year.
37. All instruments of transfer which shall be registered shall be retained by the Company but any instrument of transfer which the Directors may decline to register in accordance with Article 36 or 39 shall on demand be returned to the person depositing it with the Company.
38. The Directors may decline to recognise any instrument of transfer unless:
- (a) Such reasonable fee, as the Directors may from time to time

Refusal to register transfer

Suspension of registration

Recognition of instrument of transfer require, is paid to the Company in respect thereof; and

- (b) The instrument of transfer is deposited at the Office or such other place as the Directors may appoint, accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates, and such other evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

39. If a Member fails to pay the whole or any part of any call or instalment of a call on the day appointed for payment thereof, the Directors may, at any time thereafter during such time as any part of such call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued and all expenses which may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment. Notice requiring payment of Calls
40. The notice shall name a further day (not being less than seven days from the date of the notice) on or before which and the place where the payment required by the notice is to be made, and shall state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited. Notice to state time and place for payment
41. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which such notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before payment of all calls and interest and expenses due in respect thereof has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before forfeiture. Forfeiture on non-compliance with notice
42. When any share has been forfeited in accordance with these presents, notice of the forfeiture shall forthwith be given to the holder of the share, or the person entitled to the share by transmission, as the case may be, and an entry of such notice having been given and of the forfeiture with the date thereof shall forthwith be made in the Register of Members opposite to the entry of the shares; but no forfeiture shall be in any manner invalidated by any accidental omission or neglect to give such notice or to make Notice after forfeiture such entry as aforesaid.

| 43. | A forfeited share shall become the property of the Company and may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of, either to the person who was, before forfeiture, the holder thereof or entitled thereto, or to any other person, upon such terms and in such manner as the Directors shall think fit, and at any time before a sale, re-allotment or disposition, the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the Directors think fit. The Directors may if necessary, authorize some person to transfer a forfeited share to any such other person as aforesaid. | Sale of forfeited shares |
| 44. | A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a Member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding the forfeiture, remain liable to pay to the Company all moneys which, at the date of the forfeiture, were payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares, with interest thereon as shall be determined by the Directors from the date of forfeiture until payment, but the Directors may waive payment of such interest either wholly or in part and the Directors may enforce payment without any allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture. | Rights and liabilities of Members whose shares have been forfeited |
| 45. | A statutory declaration in writing by a Director or the Secretary that a share has been duly forfeited on the date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share, and such declaration and the receipt by the Company of the consideration (if any) given for the share on the sale, re-allotment or disposal thereof together with the share certificate delivered to a purchaser or allottee thereof shall (subject to the execution of a transfer if the same be required) constitute a good title to the share, and the person to whom the share is sold, reallocated or disposed of shall be registered as the holder of the share and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money (if any). | Title to forfeited shares |

65. If any votes shall be counted which ought not to have been counted, or might have been rejected, the error shall not vitiate the resolution unless the same be pointed out at the same meeting, or at any adjournment thereof, and not in that case unless it shall in the opinion of the Chairman of the meeting be of sufficient magnitude to vitiate the resolution.

Votes counted in error

66. If a poll is dully demanded, it shall be taken at such time and in such manner (including the use of ballot or voting papers or tickets) as the Chairman may direct, and the result of a poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. The Chairman may in the event of a poll, appoint scrutineers and may adjourn the meeting to some place and time fixed by him for the purpose of declaring the result of the poll. The demand for a poll may with the consent of the Chairman of the meeting be withdrawn.

How poll to be taken

67. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the Chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded is not entitled to a second or casting vote.

No casting vote

68. A poll demanded on the election of a Chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. No notice need be given of a poll taken immediately.

Time for taking a poll

69. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll has been demanded.

105. The quorum at any meeting of the Directors shall be two Directors. A person who holds office only as an alternate Director shall, if his appointor is not present, be counted in the quorum reflecting the designation of his appointor. No business shall be transacted at any meeting of the Directors unless a quorum is present at the commencement of the meeting and also when that business is voted on. If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes of the time for the relevant meeting as set out in the notice of meeting then the Director(s) present shall resolve to adjourn that meeting to a specified place and time (which shall not be earlier than three nor later than seven days after the date originally fixed for the meeting).
106. A meeting of the Directors for the time being, at which a quorum is present, shall be competent to exercise all powers and discretion for the time being exercisable by the Directors.
107. Without prejudice and in addition to the Provisions of Article 92 the Directors may delegate any of their powers to committees consisting of such number of Members of their body as they think fit. Any committee so formed shall in the exercise of the powers so delegated conform to any regulations that may be imposed on them by the Directors.
108. The meetings and proceedings of any such committee, consisting of two or more Members, shall be governed by the provisions of these Articles regulating the meetings and proceedings of the Directors, so far as the same are applicable and are not superseded by any regulations made by the Directors under the last preceding Article.
109. All acts done by any meeting of Directors, or of a committee of Directors, or by any person acting as a Director, shall as regards all persons dealing in good faith with the Company, notwithstanding that there was some defect in the appointment of any such Director, or person acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified, or had vacated office or were not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed, and was qualified and had continued to be a Director and had been entitled to vote.
