The Company may pay a commission to any person in consideration of his subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, for any shares in the Company, or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions, whether absolutely or conditionally, for any shares in the Company, provided that the Commission does not exceed 10 per cent of the price at which such shares are issued, or an amount equivalent thereto, and such commission may be paid, in whole or in part in cash or fully or partly paid shares of the Company, as may be arranged. The statement required by Section 56 of the Act shall be duly delivered to the Registrar of Companies for registration, and Section 56 of the Act shall, where necessary, be duly complied with and the amount of any such commission shall be duly stated in the and Annual Returns of the company as required by Section 128 of the Act.
9. No persons shall be recognized by the Company as holding any shares upon any trust, and the Company shall not be bound by or recognize any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share or any interest in any fractional part of a share, or (except only as by these presents otherwise expressly provided) any other right in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder.
10. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien and charge on all the shares registered in the name of a member (whether solely or jointly with others) for all moneys due to the Company from his estate, either alone or jointly with any other person, whether a member or not. The registration of a transfer of shares shall operate as a waiver of the Company's lien (if any) on a share shall extend to all dividends and other moneys payable in respect thereof.

CALLS ON SHARES

11. The Directors may from time to time make calls upon the members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares, and each member shall (subject to receiving at least fourteen day's notice specifying the time or times of payments) pay to the company at the time or times specified, the amount called on his shares.
12. On the trial or hearing of any action for the recovery of any money due for any call, it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the member sued is entered in the register of Members of the Company as the holder, or one of the holders, of the shares, in respect of which such debt accrued; that the resolution making the call is duly recorded in the Minute Book and that notice of such call was duly given to the member sued in pursuance of these presents, and it shall not be necessary to prove the appointments of the Directors who made such call, nor any other matters whatsoever but the proof of the matters aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the debt.

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

13. No transfer of any share in the capital of the Company to any person whether already a member of the Company or not shall be made or registered without the previous sanction of the Directors, who may, without assigning any reason, decline to give such sanction and shall so decline in the case of any transfer the registration of which would involve a contravention of Article 4 hereof. The Directors may also suspend the registration of transfers during fourteen days immediately preceding the Ordinary General Meeting in each year.
14. The Directors may decline to register any instrument of transfer unless (a) such a fee not exceeding two shillings or as the Directors may from time to time determine, is paid to the Company in respect thereof, and (b) the instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates, and such other evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer. The Directors may decline to register any transfers of any shares on which the Company has a lien. If the Directors refuse to register a transfer of any shares, they shall within two months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the Company send to the transferee notice of the refusal as required by Section 80 of the Act.
15. Any member desiring to dispose of any share or shares held by him shall intimate to any Director in writing the numbers of such shares and the price at which he is willing to sell the same. Such notice shall constitute such Director the selling Agent of the member and on receipt of such notice the Director shall forthwith inform or cause to be informed all other members of the proposed sale and on receiving offers from any other member or members within thirty days for the purchase of the shares, shall submit the names of the proposed purchaser or purchasers to the Board of Directors who may sanction the transfer, or in the event of more than one offer being received may allot the shares for sale among the proposed purchasers in such manner or proportions as the Board of Directors may, in their sole discretion, deem fit. Such sanction and/or allocation shall be binding upon the proposed purchaser or purchasers who shall thereupon be bound to pay the stipulated price and upon payment thereof the proposed seller shall be bound to transfer the share or shares to the purchaser. In the event of the proposed seller defaulting in transferring he said share or shares, the Board of Directors may receive the purchase price and the Directors shall hereupon cause the name of the purchaser or purchasers to be entered in the Register of Members as the holder of the share or shares and shall remit the purchase money to the seller or retain it in trust on his behalf until he claims it. The receipt by two Directors for the purchase money shall be a good discharge to the purchaser and after his name has been entered in Register of Members in purported exercise of the aforesaid power, the validity of the proceedings shall not be questioned by any person and the remedy (if any) of the former holder of the shares or of any person claiming through or, under him shall be against the Company and in damages only. If the shares or any of them are not sold to existing members, the member desiring to sell may sell to any person not a member of the Company but so that the price paid by such persons shall be not less than the price fixed by the selling member in his notice to the Director hereinbefore referred to and in any event the Directors shall not be bound to register any person as a member unless such person has been approved in writing by the Board of Directors.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

16. If a member fails to pay any call or installment of a call on the day appointed for payment thereof the Directors may, at any time thereafter during such time as any part of such call or installment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or installment as is unpaid together with any interest which may have accrued and any expenses incurred by reason of such non-payment. Such notice shall state the place at which the payment required by such notice is to be made.
17. An entry in the Minute Book of the Company of the forfeiture of any shares, or that any have been sold to satisfy a lien of the Company, shall be sufficient evidence as against all persons claiming to be entitled to such shares that the said shares were properly forfeited or sold; and such entry and the receipt of the Company for the price of such shares shall constitute a good title to such shares, and the name of the purchaser shall be entered in the Register of Members as a member of the Company and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money nor shall his title to the said shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture or sale. The remedy (if any) of the former holder of such shares, and of any person claiming under or through him shall be against the Company and in damages only.

44. The directors may from time to time pay to the members such interim dividends as appear to the Directors to be justified by the profits of the Company according to the estimate formed by them thereof.
45. The directors may deduct from any dividends payable to any member all sums of money (if any) presently payable by him to the Company on account of calls or otherwise.
- 46 (a) The Company at any General Meeting at which a dividend is declared may resolve that such dividend be paid wholly or in part by the distribution of specific assets and in particular of paid-up shares, debentures of debenture stock of any other company or in any one or more of such ways; provided always that no distribution shall be made which would amount to a reduction of capital except in the manner appointed by law.
- [b] The Company in General Meeting may at any time and from time to time pass a resolution to the effect that it is desirable to capitalize a sum, being the whole or part of the undivided profits of the Company then standing to the credit of the reserve fund or to the credit of the profit and loss account (or representing premiums received on the issue of shares and standing to the credit of the share premium account) or being otherwise available for distribution and accordingly that such be capitalized and distributed free of income tax among the holders of Ordinary Shares of the Company (or their nominees) at the date of the passing of such resolution in proportion to the amount of capital paid up for the time being on the Ordinary Shares held by them respectively and that the Directors be authorized to distribute among them (or their nominees) un-issued shares credited as fully paid up to the like nominal value and in the like proportion and in satisfaction of such capitalized sum.

- [c] When such resolution has been passed, the Directors may allot and issue un-issued shares as fully paid up to the holders of Ordinary Shares of the Company (or their nominees) in satisfaction of the said capitalized sum and as nearly as may be in proportion to the amount of capital paid up for the time being on the Ordinary Shares held by them respectively, with full power to make such provision as they may think expedient for the case of fractions and, before such allotment (if they think fit) may authorize any person acting on behalf of the holders of any Ordinary Shares of the Company to enter into an agreement with the Company provided for the allotment to them (or their nominees) of such shares credited as fully paid up and in satisfaction as aforesaid and any agreement made under such authority shall be effective.

ACCOUNTS

47. The Board shall cause proper books of accounts to be kept with respect to:-
- [a] All sums of money received and expended by the company and the matters in respect of which the receipt and expenditure take place;
