Dear Sir/Madam,

RE: EXPLANATION FOR NO BOARD RESOLUTION FOR SOLE PROPRIETORSHIP

I am writing to provide clarification on the absence of a board resolution in our application for the Tanzania Investment Centre (TIC) Certificate of Incentives.

As a sole proprietorship, my company is owned and operated by one individual, namely myself. In accordance with the laws governing sole proprietorships in Tanzania, decision-making authority rests solely with the proprietor.

Therefore, there is no requirement for a board resolution, as there is no board of directors or separate decision-making entity. All decisions, including those related to the application for TIC incentives, are made by myself as the sole proprietor.

We trust that this explanation clarifies the matter and meets the requirements of the TIC. Please do not hesitate to contact us if further clarification is needed.

Thank you for your understanding.

Yours faithfully,

Desmond Ngarami Mushi
