28. The Directors may from time to time borrow, raise moneys for the purpose of the Company which may exceed the issued share capital of the Company.

BORROWING POWERS

29. The Directors may exercise all powers of the Company to borrow money, and to mortgage or charge its undertaking, property and uncalled capital or part thereof, and to issue debentures, debenture stock and other securities whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of the Company or of any third party.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF DIRECTORS

30. The business of the Company shall be managed by the Directors, who may pay all expenses incurred in promoting and registering the Company, and may exercise all such powers of the Company as are not by the Act, or by these regulations, required to be exercised by the Company in general meeting; subject nevertheless, to any of these regulations, to the provisions of the Act and to such regulations being not inconsistent with the aforesaid regulations or provisions, as may be prescribed by the Company in general meeting, but no regulation made by the Company in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Directors which would have been valid if that regulation had not been made.

31. The Directors may from time to time and at any time by power of attorney appoint any company, firm or person or body of persons, whether nominated directly or indirectly by the Directors, to be the attorney or attorneys of the Company for such purpose and with such powers, authorities and discretion (not exceeding, those vested in or exercisable by the Directors under these regulations) and for such period and subject to such conditions as they may think fit.

DISQUALIFICATION OF DIRECTORS

32. The office of director shall be vacated if the director:

- (a) resigns;
- (b) becomes of unsound mind
- (c) becomes prohibited from being a director by reason of any Court Order;
- (d) dies;
- (e) in case of a life director, ceases to be a member of the Company;
- (f) is voted out of office by an ordinary resolution in General Meeting;
- (g) is prohibited from acting as a director by the provisions of the Act.

MANAGING DIRECTOR

33. The Directors may from time to time appoint a Managing Director who may not necessarily be out of their body for such a period and on such terms as they think fit, and subject to the terms of agreement entered into any such particular case, may revoke such an appointment.
34. A Managing Director shall receive such remuneration as the Directors may determine.

SECRETARY

35. The Directors shall appoint a Secretary of the Company on such terms, at such remuneration and upon such conditions, as they may think fit; and the Secretary appointed may be removed by them.

THE SEAL

36. The Directors shall provide for the safe custody of the seal, which shall only be used by the authority of the Directors or of a committee of the Directors authorised by the Directors in that behalf, and every instrument shall be countersigned by the Secretary or by a second director or by some other person appointed by the Directors for the purpose.

ACCOUNTS

37. The Directors shall cause true accounts to be kept:
- (a) of the assets and liabilities of the Company;
 - (b) of all sums of money received and expended by the Company and the manner in respect of which receipts and expenditures take place. The books of accounts shall be always open for the inspection of the Directors and shall be kept at a place decided by the Directors.
38. The Directors shall from time to time determine whether in any particular case or cases or generally and to what extent and at what time and place and under what conditions or regulations the accounts and books of the Company or any of them shall be open to the inspection of the members and no member (not being a director) shall have any right of inspecting any book or documents of the Company except as conferred by statute or authorised by the Directors.

AUDIT

39. Once at least in every year the accounts of the Company shall be examined and the correctness of the balance sheet ascertained by an auditor.
40. The Directors shall appoint the first auditor who will hold office until the first annual general meeting.
41. The Directors may fill up any casual vacancy in the office of auditor.
42. The remuneration of the auditor shall be fixed by the Company in general meeting; except that the remuneration of any auditor appointed by the Directors may be fixed by the Directors.

CAPITALIZATION OF PROFITS

43. The Company in general meeting may upon the recommendation of the Directors resolve that it is desirable to capitalize any part of the amount for the time being standing to the credit of any of the Company's reserve accounts or to the credit of the profit and loss account or otherwise available for distribution, and accordingly that such sum be set free for distribution amongst the members who would have been entitled thereto, if distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions on condition that the same shall not be paid in cash but be applied either in or toward paying up any amounts for the time being unpaid or any shares held by such members respectively.

NOTICES

44. A notice may be given by the Company to any member either personally or by sending it by post to him at his registered address, and/or if he has no registered address, to his last known address, if any, supplied by him or her to the Company for the giving of notice to him. Where a notice is sent by post, service of the notice shall be deemed to have been effective if the notice was posted.
45. Notice of every general meeting shall be given in any manner herein before authorized to every member at his or her registered address or last known address.
46. Every person upon whom the ownership of a share devolves by reason of his being a legal personal representative of a trustee or a trustee in bankruptcy of a member where the member but for his death or bankruptcy would be entitled to receive notice of the meeting; and the auditor for the time being of the Company.

WINDING UP

47. If the Company shall be wound up the liquidator may, with the sanction of an extraordinary resolution of the Company and any other sanction required by the Act, divide amongst the members in specie or kind the whole or any part of the assets of the Company (whether they shall consist of property of the same kind or not) and may for such purposes set such value as he may determine how such division shall be carried out as between the members or different classes of members. The liquidator may, with the like sanction, vest the whole or any part of such assets in trustees upon such trusts for the benefits of the contributors as the liquidator, with the like sanction, shall think fit, but so that no member shall be compelled to accept any shares or other securities where there is any liability

INDEMNITY

48. Every Director, Managing Director, Agent, Auditor, Secretary, and other officer for the time being of the Company shall be indemnified out of the assets of the Company against any liability incurred by him in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgment is given in his favour or in which he is acquitted or in connection with any application under the COMPANIES ACT in which relief is granted to him by the Court.

ALTERATIONS OR ADDITIONS

49. Subject to the provisions of the Act and to those contained in the Memorandum of Association, the Company may by special resolution make alterations or additions to the Articles of Association and any such alterations or additions made shall be as valid and effectual as if originally contained in these Articles and be subject in like manner to alteration by Special Resolution.

ARBITRATION

50. If and whenever any dispute or difference shall arise between the Company and any of the members of their respective representative touching upon the construction or meaning of any of the Articles herein contained or any act, matter or thing made or done or omitted to be done or with regard to the rights or liabilities arising there under or arising out of the relation existing between the parties by reason of these Articles or the Act such differences shall (unless a sole arbitrator be agreed upon) forthwith be referred to the arbitration of three (3) arbitrators, one to be appointed by each party and the third to be appointed by the first two or, in the event of failure to agree within thirty (30) days the procedure laid down in the Arbitration Act [Cap 15 R.E 2002] or any enactment replacing the Arbitration Act.
