On payment of the price to the Company, the purchaser shall be deemed to have obtained a good quittance for such payment and on execution and delivery of the transfer the purchaser shall be entitled to insist upon his name being entered in the register of members of the Company as the holder by transfer of the shares. The Company shall forthwith pay the price into a separate bank account in the Company's name and shall hold such price in trust for the vendor;
- (g) During the six (6) months following the expiry of the said period of twenty-one (21) days referred to in paragraph (d) hereof, the vendor shall, subject nevertheless to the provisions of Article 34, be at liberty to transfer to any person and at any price (not being less than the price fixed under paragraph (b) hereof) any share not allocated by the directors in an allocation notice provided that, if the vendor stipulated in his transfer notice that, unless all the shares comprised therein were sold pursuant to this Article none should be sold, the vendor shall not be entitled, save with the written consent of all the other members of the Company, to sell hereunder only some of the shares comprised in his transfer notice.

 - (f) any transfer by a corporate member to a company formed to acquire the whole or a substantial part of the undertaking and assets of such corporate member as part of a scheme of amalgamation or reconstruction.
34. The Board may refuse to register any transfer of any share:-

 - (b) to a person of whom they do not approve;
 - (c) the registration of which would cause the number of members to exceed the maximum permitted by Article 4;
 - (d) unless a fee not exceeding Tanzania Shillings Five hundred (Tshs. 500/=) is paid to the Company in respect thereof;
 - (e) unless the instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates and such other evidence as the Board may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer;
 - (f) unless the instrument of transfer is in respect of only one (1) class of shares.
35. If the Board refuses to register a transfer it shall, within sixty (60) days after the date on which the instrument of transfer was lodged with the Company, send to the transferee notice of the refusal.
36. The registration of transfers may be suspended at such time and for such periods as the Board may from time to time determine, provided always that such registration shall not be suspended for more than thirty (30) days in any year.
37. The Company shall be entitled to charge a fee not exceeding Tanzania Shillings Five hundred (Tshs. 500/=) on the registration of every probate, letters of administration, certificate of death or marriage, power of attorney or other instrument relating to or affecting the title to any share.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

38. In the case of the death of a member, the survivor where the deceased was a joint holder, and the executors or administrators of the deceased where he was a sole or only surviving holder, shall be the only person recognised by the Company as having any title to his shares; provided that nothing herein contained shall release the estate of the deceased member from any liability in respect of any share solely or jointly held by him.
39. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member shall, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be required by the Board, have the right either to be registered as a member in respect of the share or instead of being registered himself, to make such transfer of the share as the deceased or bankrupt person could have made, and the Board shall, in either case, have the same right to refuse or suspend registration as it would have had in the case of a transfer of the share by the deceased or bankrupt person before the death or bankruptcy.
40. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share except that he shall not be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to general meetings of the Company, provided that the Board may, at any time, give notice in writing requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share and, if the notice is not complied with within (3) three months after the date of service thereof, the Board may, thereafter, withhold payment of dividends and other monies payable in respect of the share until compliance with the notice has been effected.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

41. If a member fails to pay any call or instalment of a call on the day appointed for payment thereof the Board may, at any time thereafter while any part of such call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid together with any interest and expenses which may have accrued and all expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment.
42. The notice shall specify a date (being not less than fourteen (14) days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which and the place where the payment required by the notice is to be made and shall state that, in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed, the shares in respect of which such call was made or instalment is payable will be liable to be forfeited. The Board may accept the surrender of any share liable to be forfeited hereunder and, in such case, references herein to forfeiture shall include surrender.
43. If the requirements of any such notice are not complied with, any share in respect of which such notice has been given may, at any time after the date specified in such notice, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited share and not actually paid before the forfeiture.
44. When any shares have been forfeited, notice of the forfeiture shall forthwith be given to the holder of the shares or to the person entitled to the shares by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the holder (as the case may be) but no forfeiture shall be invalidated by any omission or neglect to give such notice as aforesaid.
45. Forfeited shares shall be deemed to be the property of the Company and may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed off upon such terms in such manner as the Board may think fit and, at any time before sale, re-allotment or other disposition, the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the Board may determine.
46. A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares but shall, notwithstanding, remain liable to pay to the Company all monies which, at the date of forfeiture, were presently payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares together with interest thereon at such rate (not exceeding fifteen per cent (15%) per annum) as the Board may determine, from the date of forfeiture until payment.
47. A statutory declaration in writing that a declarant is a director or the secretary of the Company and that shares have been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive evidence of the facts stated therein as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the shares. Such declaration and the receipt by the Company of the consideration (if any) given for the shares on the sale, re-allotment or disposal thereof together with the certificate for the shares delivered to a transferee or allottee thereof shall (subject to the execution of a transfer if the same be so required) constitute a good title to the shares and the person to whom the shares are sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of shall be registered as the holder thereof and shall not be bound to see to the application of the consideration (if any) nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale, re-allotment or other disposition of the shares.

CONVERSION OF SHARES INTO STOCK

48. The Company may from time to time, by ordinary resolution, convert any paid up shares into stock and may reconvert any stock into paid-up shares of any denomination.

49. The holders of stock may transfer the same or any part thereof in the same manner and subject to the same regulations as and subject to which the shares from which the stock arose might previous to conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances admit and the directors may from time to time fix the minimum amount of stock transferable but so that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.
50. The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of the stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at general meetings of the Company and other matters as if they held the shares from which the stock arose but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in dividends and in the assets on a winding up) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred such privilege or advantage.
51. All the provisions of these Articles which are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock and the words "share" and "shareholder" herein shall include "stock" and "stock-holder".

INCREASE OF CAPITAL

52. The Company may from time to time, by ordinary resolution, increase its capital by such sum to be divided into shares of such amounts as the resolution shall prescribe.

- (a) Consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amounts than its existing shares;
 - (b) Sub-divide its shares or any of them into shares of smaller amounts than is fixed by the memorandum of association (subject nevertheless to the provisions of Section 63 (1) (d) of the Act) and the resolution whereby any share is so sub-divided may determine that one (1) or more of the shares resulting from such sub-division may carry any such preferred, deferred, special or qualified rights over or be subject to any such restrictions as compared with the other or others as the Company has power to attach to unissued or new shares;
 - (c) Cancel any shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been issued or agreed to be taken by any person and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled.

Not more than fifteen (15) months shall elapse between the date of one (1) annual general meeting of the Company and that of the next. So long as the Company holds its first annual general meeting within eighteen (18) months of its incorporation, it need not hold it in the year of its incorporation or in the following year. Annual and other general meetings shall be held at such times and places as the Board shall appoint. All general meetings, other than annual general meetings, shall be called extraordinary general meetings.
56. The Board may, whenever it thinks fit, convene an extraordinary general meeting and extraordinary general meetings shall also be convened on such requisition or, in default, may be convened by such requisitionists as is provided by Section 132 of the Act. If, at any time, there are not within Kenya sufficient directors capable of acting to form a quorum, any director or any two (2) members of the Company may convene an extraordinary general meeting in the same manner, as nearly as possible, as that in which meetings may be convened by the Board.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

57. Every general meeting shall be called by at least twenty-one (21) days notice in writing (exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given). The notice shall specify the place, the date and the time of such general meeting and, in case of special business, the nature of that business and shall be given, in manner hereinafter mentioned or any such other manner, if any, as may be prescribed by the Company in general meeting to such persons as are, under these Articles, entitled to receive such notices from the Company; Provided that with the consent in writing of all the members entitled to receive notice thereof, a meeting may be called by shorter notice than that specified in this Article.
58. In every notice calling a meeting there shall appear, with reasonable prominence, a statement that a member entitled to attend and vote thereat is entitled to appoint one (1) or more proxies to attend and vote in his stead and that a proxy need not be a member.
59. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by any person entitled to receive such notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

62. If, within thirty (30) minutes of the time appointed for the meeting, a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of members, shall be dissolved. In any other case, it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place and if, at such adjourned meeting, a quorum is not present within thirty (30) minutes of the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting shall be dissolved.
63. The chairman (if any) or, in his absence, the deputy-chairman (if any) of the Board shall preside at every general meeting. Whenever a meeting is adjourned for thirty (30) days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in the

66. A poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time and place and in such manner as the chairman of the meeting shall direct.
67. If a poll has been duly demanded, the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
68. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded and such demand may be withdrawn at any time.
69. On a poll votes may be given personally or by proxy or by attorney or by a representative of a corporation appointed in accordance with Article 83.

71. If any vote shall be counted which ought not to have been counted or might have been rejected, the error shall not vitiate the resolution unless it is pointed out at the same meeting and not, in that case, unless it shall, in the opinion of the chairman of the meeting, be of sufficient magnitude to vitiate the resolution.
72. Subject to the provisions of the Act, a resolution in writing signed by all the members for the time being entitled to receive notice of and to attend and vote at general meetings (or being corporations by their representatives appointed in accordance with Article 83) shall be as valid and effective as if the same had been passed at a general meeting of the Company duly convened and held. Such resolution may be contained in one (1) document or in several and either shall be treated as valid.

106. 109. The Board may entrust to and confer upon a managing director or manager any of the powers exercisable by it (other than the powers to borrow money, charge the property and assets of the Company and pay dividends) upon such terms and conditions and with such restrictions as it thinks fit and either collaterally with or to the exclusion of its own powers and may from time to time object to the terms of any agreement entered into in any particular case revoke, withdraw, alter or vary all or any of such powers.

All dividends shall be apportioned and paid pro rata according to the amounts paid up on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid; but if any shares be issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date, such share shall rank for dividend accordingly.
116. The Board may deduct from any dividend payable to any member on or in respect of a share any sums of money presently payable by him to the Company on account of calls or otherwise.
117. The Board may retain any divided or other money payable on or in respect of a share on which the Company has a lien and may apply the same in or towards satisfaction of the debts, liabilities or engagements in respect of which the lien exists.
118. No dividend shall bear interest against the Company.
119. With the sanction of a general meeting, any dividend may be paid wholly or in part by distribution of specific assets and, in particular, of paid-up shares or debentures of any other company or in any one or more of such ways. Any dividend, interest or other sum payable in cash in respect of shares may be paid by cheque or warrant sent through the post directed to the registered address of the holder or, in the case of joint holders, to the registered address of that one of the joint holders who is first named on the register of members or to such person and to such address as the holder or joint holders may in writing direct. 123. Whenever such a resolution as aforesaid shall have been passed the Board shall make all such appropriations and applications of the undivided profits, allotments and issues of fully paid shares, income notes or debentures as may be required thereby and shall do all acts and things required to give effect thereto, with full power to the Board to acquire fractions or to make such provisions by the issue of fractional certificates or by payment in cash or otherwise as it thinks fit for the case of shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions, and also to authorise any person to enter on behalf of all the members entitled thereto into an agreement with the Company providing for the allotment to them respectively, credited as fully paid up, of any shares, income notes or debentures to which they may be entitled upon such capitalisation or, as the case may require, for the payment up by the Company on their behalf, by the application thereto of their respective proportions of the profits resolved to be capitalised, of the amounts or any part of the amounts remaining unpaid on their existing shares, and any agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding on all such members.
